3rd Sunday
OF EASTER

With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. —Lk 24:31

Third Sunday of Easter

OPENING

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: Acts 2:14, 22-33

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed: "You who are Jews, indeed all of you staying in Jerusalem.

Let this be known to you, and listen to my words. You who are Israelites, hear these words.

Jesus the Nazarene was a man commended to you by God with mighty deeds, wonders, and signs, which God worked through him in your midst, as you yourselves know.

This man, delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God, you killed, using lawless men to crucify him.

But God raised him up, releasing him from the throes of death, because it was impossible for him to be held by it.

For David says of him:

I saw the Lord ever before me, with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.

Therefore my heart has been glad and my tongue has exulted; my flesh, too, will dwell in hope, because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your holy one to see corruption.

You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence.

"My brothers, one can confidently say to you about the patriarch David that he died and was buried, and his tomb is in our midst to this day.

But since he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants upon his throne, he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he abandoned to the netherworld nor did his flesh see corruption.

God raised this Jesus; of this we are all witnesses. Exalted at the right hand of God, he received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father and poured him forth, as you see and hear."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Lord, you will show us the path of life.

SECOND READING: 1 Peter 1: 17-21

Beloved:

If you invoke as Father him who judges impartially according to each one's works, conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct, handed on by your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb.

He was known before the foundation of the world but revealed in the final time for you, who through him believe in God who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL: Luke 24:13-35

That very day, the first day of the week, two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus, and they were conversing about all the things that had occurred.

And it happened that while they were conversing and debating, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him.

He asked them, "What are you discussing as you walk along?"

They stopped, looking downcast.

One of them, named Cleopas, said to him in reply, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know of the things that have taken place there in these days?"

And he replied to them, "What sort of things?"

They said to him, "The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, how our chief priests and rulers both handed him over to a sentence of death and crucified him. But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel; and besides all this, it is now the third day since this took place.

Some women from our group, however, have astounded us:

they were at the tomb early in the morning and did not find his body; they came back and reported that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who announced that he was alive.

Then some of those with us went to the tomb and found things just as the women had described, but him they did not see."

GOSPEL Continued

And he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke!

Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?"

Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the Scriptures.

As they approached the village to which they were going, he gave the impression that he was going on farther.

But they urged him, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over."

So he went in to stay with them.

And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them.

With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?"

So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!"

Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL PRAYER

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty,
Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

SANCTUS

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

AGNUS DEI

CLOSING

A Cup of Joe

Greetings in Christ all!

In these crazy days, God is doing amazing things. As I shared a bit last week, this time has been challenging, but incredible. Personally, I don't recall any time as a pastor where I have been so free to be a priest. We are reaching out and touching lives in the name of Jesus in a way I never thought we'd be able to.

All of this is happening because of your prayers, your support and your interest in our family and I simply cannot thank you enough.

I do want to ask a favor of you if you are able.

Right before this crisis hit, I announced at every Mass my intention to push us hard on DSA. I shared with you all how important it was for us to do our part as one of the larger members of the Diocese of Lansing family.

In the last 7 or 8 years, we have not come close to hitting our goal or even, in the last 4 years, hitting 50% of our goal.

I would love to see us do better and I'm asking everyone to pray about it. Our support is the only way our diocese can function. People have shared with me in the past the ways that they feel the diocese has let them down and trust me, I get it. However, I want to share with you some of the things they've done for our family in the year and a half that I've been here to help you see how vital they have been for us.

First, the houses. Tearing down the houses was a project that began before I got here and froze because of unexpected asbestos issues. The diocese gave us almost $70,000 to tear those down...not a loan, not a grant, they simply gave us a gift.

Second, our Church. To put it bluntly, the diocese took a major gamble on us being able to fund building the Church. Without their help and their promise to load us whatever overage happened, we would not be building our new Church. They gave us a ton of irreplaceable wisdom in this process. Every call I've made downtown has been answered and I couldn't even begin to cover the innumerable ways that they have saved us money in this project. I'm running out of room, not examples. To put it bluntly, we owe our diocese a great deal and its time for us to cowboy up and do our best to faithfully meet our goal. Please pray about it.

If you are able and feel called to support the DSA effort, please go to <https://www.dioceseoflansing.org/DSA>. At this present time, gifts and pledges that are sent to Holy Family will be secured until our office and The Catholic Foundation are running at full staff. They can only process ONLINE gifts and pledges for right now.

I love you all and thank God that I get to be your priest.

Stewardship & Worship

Receive God's gifts gratefully - Cherish & tend to them responsibly -
Share them in justice & love - Return them to God

Outreach (clothes)

While the stay-at-home order is in effect and COVID19 is an issue, Outreach will not be accepting donations of any clothing. We believe the same to be true of the Salvation Army and St. Vincent de Paul. Please hang on to the clothes to donate later.

"Others First" is Next Weekend

With our directive to stay at home for the next several weeks, we don't expect food or sundries to be brought to Outreach, but we would ask that you consider giving monetary gifts to support our efforts. During a crisis like this we have a great number of people to serve! You may either use online giving or write a check to Holy Family (specified for Outreach) and mail it to: Holy Family, 11804 S. Saginaw St., Grand Blanc, MI 48439.

First Friday Mass for Vocations

Please join us (via livestream) on Friday, May 1st, for Mass at 8:00 a.m. Our Mass Intention will be "For Vocation to the Priesthood and Consecrated Life."

2020 Diocesan Services Appeal

Diocesan Services Appeal
2020 Goal - $5,200,000

Thank you to everyone who has made a gift or pledge commitment to our Diocesan Services Appeal. Our gifts to DSA enable our diocese to provide services crucial to our parish. The programs and services funded by DSA offer direct assistance to individuals and families, and to parishes, schools, and Catholic Charities agencies.

At this present time, due to reduced staffing, The Catholic Foundation is processing online gifts and pledges ONLY. Gifts and pledges that are sent to Holy Family will be secured until our office and The Catholic Foundation are running at full staff. Please continue to send in your gifts/pledges or go to the Diocese of Lansing website to donate directly.

As of 4/19/2020
Estimated Pledges $20,595
11.14% of our goal*
39 donors

*Holy Family's goal for 2020 is $184,796.

Pushpay

At a time like this when we are unable to attend Mass, Pushpay allows you to easily give a one-time gift or recurring gift, and you have the ability to give from your smartphone anytime and anywhere.

With Pushpay, you can:

- Give easily, quickly and securely
- Give recurring donations
- Login to your account and see your giving history

To get started, you can visit our website (hfgb.org) or Holy Family app and click "Donate".

Share Your Compassion, Become a Volunteer Chaplain

At Hurley Medical Center, our Spiritual Care Department is staffed by volunteer On-Call Chaplains who are the comfort and compassion to many of our patients and their families. These volunteers do not need to be ordained or licensed.

For more information, contact Don Cox, Volunteer Spiritual Care Coordinator at 810.262.9517 or at dcox3@hurleymc.com. Or go to www.hurleyfoundation.org and fill out a volunteer application.
