Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

WHAT'S HAPPENING HERE

A CUP OF JOE

Greetings in Christ! I'm writing this article way ahead of time... even before I leave for the convocation. That means you are reading now what I wrote a couple weeks ago, so I can't tell you for sure that I enjoyed the convocation, but odds are pretty good that Fr. Le and I both enjoyed it very much.

I wanted to point out that On October 2nd, the Church celebrates the Feast of the Guardian Angels, which is a big day for our parish. If you don't know why that is so, I'll explain it now. Heck, even if you do know why the Feast of the Guardian Angels is a big deal for our parish, I'm still going to explain it now... On this day in 2019, we were tearing down the section of the Church that you are in now in order to prepare for the new building. The men working on it called us over because the pillars that were holding up the Church had, in many cases, rotted completely through. The roof to our old Church building was not being held up by the pillars, but by the walls, which is an incredibly dangerous thing. On this day in 2019, we found out that God had protected us for who knows how long from a disaster. I decided that, since it was the Feast of Guardian Angels, it was probably our Angels holding that roof up... praise God.

We thanked our Guardian Angels that day and we placed a Guardian Angel medal in the floor of our Church. If you look at the first cross on the floor when you enter the North doors of the main Church area, you are looking at where the medal is.

This is also my Dad's birthday and I thank God for him. I moved here in 2018 and Dad joined me in January of 2020. Mom had gone to be with the Lord and he wasn't doing so good on his own. It has been a great joy to me to be with my dad, to love him and be loved by him all this time. I'm so thankful for him. I'm also thankful for you letting me take care of him. I know that means I'm sometimes not at things you'd like me at and I am so grateful that you never complain. You all are God's gift to me and I am so grateful.

Thank you for letting me be your priest.

Prologue

“The Messiah is among us, what can that possibly mean?” the Abbot mumbled to himself. But as he walked slowly down the mountains the full meaning of the Hermit’s words took root deep in his soul. Back at the monastery the monks were growing concerned. The Abbot had said he would be gone three days and he had already been gone five days. The next evening when there was still no sign of him, they began discussing what fate might have befallen him. The following morning Brother Fabian callously suggested he was not coming back either because he had died in the mountains or because he had abandoned them for some other life. Just as the sun was setting that afternoon Brother Bartholomew saw a figure approaching the monastery and cried out, “We have a visitor.” It was not a visitor. It was the Abbot. He whispered softly to Bartholomew, “Gather everyone in the chapel.”

Our Catholic Heritage

by Earl Hagen

106th Pope - Adrian II

Born in Rome, he was elected pope on December 14, 867. He had previously refused the pontifical crown twice. He is remembered for having crowned Alfred the Great as King of England (the first English sovereign blessed by Rome). In 869 he called the 8th Ecumenical Council of Constantinople. This helped unite the Roman Church with Moravia (Czechoslovakia). This council also condemned anyone who altered the Nicene-Constantinopolitan Creed. He married a woman during his younger years called Stephania. The two lived together happily for many years and even had a daughter. Eleutherius, the son of Arsenius (Librarian of the Roman Church) developed an attraction to Adrian's daughter. He attacked Lateran Palace, kidnaped the pope's wife and daughter, both of whom he would murder. Pope Adrian II died December 14, 872, and is buried in the Vatican Grottoes.

Prayerfully Prepared for You by the Sisters of the Community of the Resurrection, Cason, Maine

HERE AND THERE

Eucharistic Adoration “Adorers” Needed

Every Tuesday and Friday, we expose the Blessed Sacrament for time of Eucharistic Adoration. This is a wonderful time for private prayer and personal communion with the Lord.

It is necessary that, when the Lord is exposed on the altar during adoration, individuals are present for prayer and adoration, either communally or individually. We lovingly refer to those volunteers who dedicate this time to our Lord, as Adorers. We invite and welcome all to come and spend time with the Lord, but we need some to commit to a time so we know our Lord is not left alone.

If you would like to volunteer for this wonderful ministry, please contact the parish office at (810) 694-4891 or Genevieve Psenski at gpsenski@hfgb.org. This will be the best hour of your day. Let Him transform you.

Arts and Environment

Holy Family Arts and Environment are in need of volunteers for one hour each week to help with altar arrangements and to keep our gardens on campus beautiful. If interested, please contact Genevieve Psenski at gpsenski@hfgb.org or (810) 694-4891.
