Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

What's Happening Here

A Cup of Joe

Greetings in Christ!

Welcome to October...I love this month.

I wanted to give you a little more information on the priest convocation from the diocese. Personally, I think the best part for me was the diocese inviting us to strip away all the "duties" of priesthood and look at who we are called to be. We looked at the promises we made back when we were ordained, we looked at a sheet that the diocese made with specific things that priests are called to do, for example "Are you in a support group?" or "Are you faithfully praying your breviary?" Things like that. It was a good challenge for me and the group I was assigned to also found it helpful.

Beyond that, there was a lot of talk about Catholic Schools and the RRM (Realigning Resources Mission). I think the most fascinating aspect was that the Witness to Hope Campaign gave the diocese a chance to offer assistance to people who needed it to send their kids to school. What the Witness to Hope allowed was about $500,000 in aid, but the applications for aid tend to exceed $2,400,000 each year. We are looking at aggressive plans to fill that gap so that everyone who wants to go to Catholic school can.

This is a goal at our parish as well. Right now at Holy Family, the Cost to Educate (CTE) is just under $6,000 per child, but our tuition is nowhere near that. Our Parish Family has stepped up tremendously to help us fill the gap between what we charge for tuition and what it actually costs and I pray we are in a position to continue doing this for a long time. There were a lot of stats from a massive data gathering that showed how going to Catholic Schools as young people radically increases the possibility that that child will continue to go to Church when they get older. I think the wildest stat was this: while only 3% of Catholic kids go to a Catholic school, Catholic school graduates account for 45% of our priests. How amazing is that?

As our secular system continues to fall into modern thinking that what the Church teaches is harmful, we have to work all the harder to ensure that every Catholic who wants has an opportunity to go to a Catholic school. We are not alone in this! The diocese recognizes that every parish with a school needs some help and is working on really creative ways to help. I'll keep us updated as things go.

All through the days of convocation, I sat there grateful for you all. I have found such a wonderful home here and it is because of all of you. I thank you for loving me as I am and challenging me to be better.

God bless you all!

We depend on your generosity to stock our St. Joseph Food Pantry and Clothes Closet. Please remember the needy as you shop. Currently, our specific needs are: canned fruit, ketchup, pasta sauce, canned stew, shaving cream, shampoo/conditioner, and dish soap.

Nonperishable items may be brought to Mass or to Outreach Mon - Fri between 10 am and 2 pm throughout October.

In addition to supplies, we greatly appreciate monetary donations (to Holy Family, specifying Outreach), which can be used to support our efforts.

Thank you!

This will be offered on the same days and times as Sunday Religious Education classes: i.e. every two weeks, 9:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. Whether you're looking for something to do while your kids are in class; curious about Church teaching; looking to deepen your understanding of God, the Church, and your faith; or simply have nothing better to do, come join us for food, fellowship, and friendship. Topics to be discussed will be decided by the group. There is no signup required and this is open to any adults of the parish. Please contact Katie Buszek with any questions (kbuszek@hfgb.org).

Everyday Stewardship

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

If Heaven were like Harvard

There's no getting around it: life on earth can seem easier if you're rich. Most of the bodily and material needs a person could have are fulfilled if you've got a little bit of money behind you. So why doesn't this same theory apply to entering the kingdom of Heaven? Why isn't Heaven like an Ivy League school, where a connection and a hasty tuition check might open a lot of doors?

When you think about it, the virtues required to enter Heaven — things like charity and justice and courage — should be even closer within the grasp of those who never had to worry about where their food is coming from. In theory, your capacity for good works should only increase with the resources at your disposal.

The same is true for stewardship potential. Let's say I've got a lot of talent. Maybe I've got a lot of free time. On paper, it should be easier for me to give freely of these gifts, because I have the luxury that eluded the widow and her two coins: I can see my ample gift being put into action, when so many can only offer what they have and remind themselves that God sees it and appreciates it.

But here we get into the mess of humanity: if we have a lot of something, it means we have a lot of something we could use any way we want. And then we hear the whisper of the serpent: Think of what this (money, time, talent) could do for you.

May we pray for God to give us the heart of the widow, no matter our resources.

Knights of Columbus Baby Bottles for Life

The Knights of Columbus councils in Genesee County are taking on an initiative in Flint that should certainly help Defend Life for the unborn. This initiative is to place three Ultrasounds in the city of Flint by the end of 2021.

The locations for these Ultrasounds include the Pregnancy Resource Center on Saginaw St., Pregnancy Help Clinic on Flushing Rd (presently under renovation), and The Luke Project 52 of Flint.

The cost for these three Ultrasounds is approximately $110,000 with 50% being funded by our local Knights of Columbus councils and parish communities throughout the county and the other 50% being funded by the Supreme Council, headquarters of the Knights of Columbus.

You can help with your donation to these Ultrasounds through your local Knights Baby Bottle Drive and/or a one-time contribution. Any time over the next couple months, full baby bottles or cash/checks can be placed in the bottle collection box in the gathering space. Checks should be written to KofC Council 6742 with ultrasound in memo line.

Questions, please call your council's District Deputy Rick Perry 810-701-0413.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to be expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing, and in following a voice other than our own. St. Teresa of Calcutta rightly instructs us that for "love to be real, it must cost, it must hurt, it must empty us of self." Being in love with God requires more than just checking the boxes of the commandments. It requires a sincere and unconditional self-investment. Desiring God with our whole heart, mind, and soul means that I must also desire a relationship with my neighbor with that same degree of fervor.

Biases and prejudices usually occur when people are kept at a distance and treated as objects. We cannot truly know our neighbors, especially if they are different than us, if we keep them in boxes and do not listen to their stories. When we open ourselves to listen to another person's story, we begin to realize more how similar we are than dissimilar. Being overly attached to our possessions, ideologies, agendas, lifestyles, and personal needs are absolute barriers to achieving the type of personal investment love demands. This is why following Christ can be difficult. It is less a matter of intellect and more a matter of heart and soul. It requires that we transfer our treasure from an investment in tangible secular things and move it into the Kingdom of God. It is only the gift of wisdom and discernment that can help us decide what to do and how to do it.

Contemporaries of Jesus would know that a camel could not enter through the portal of a city weighed down with the baggage it was carrying. In order to enter, the baggage must be removed so that the animal could fit through the entry way. The same is true for us. We carry a lot of excessive baggage around with us that keeps us tethered to our past histories, wounds, myopic world views, prejudices, fears, and suspicions. To invest ourselves in the Kingdom of God, do God's work and live out our love relationship with God, we need to shed the extra weight. While it may seem that a lot of that stuff is necessary, it really is not. We are much more than the things that we think define us and more secure than we think. The more there is to hold on to and the more that we carry with us, the harder it will be to leave it all behind. Many choose not to and walk away sad because they are not ready to trust.

October 15: St. Teresa of Jesus (Avila)

St. Teresa of Ávila was the founder of the Discalced Carmelites, which was a reform movement within the Carmelite Order. In her work of reform, she worked very closely with St. John of the Cross. She wrote several important works, including her autobiography, Life of Teresa of Avila, and her most influential work, The Interior Castle, in which she talks about the mystical life in terms of seven mansions. These mansions show the growth in intimacy between the believer and God. St. Teresa was the first woman ever to be declared a Doctor of the Church (1970).

A Catholic Parent's Prayer

O Gracious God, O Divine Parent,

You know better than anyone how much I want to do right by my kids. I can only do this with your help, by the power of your Spirit working in me:

Help me to put faith at the center of our family -

- ◆ To make prayer, Sunday worship, Christian service and growing in our faith regular, normal, non-negotiable parts of our family life,
- ◆ To confidently live, model and talk about faith at home,
- ◆ To be meaningfully involved at church,
- ◆ To seek and seize opportunities to learn about and deepen my own faith and love, and
- ◆ To give and get support with other parents.

I pray for courage, stamina and resilience over the long haul:

- ◆ To be a strong leader in the "domestic Church" that is our family,
- ◆ To stand up for what's most important and put it at the center of our family's life, and to let go of what's not,
- ◆ To make the tough decisions that need to be made about my kids' activities and priorities, so as
- ◆ To lead them into lives of deep faith, hope and love in this world, and eternal life in the next.

I dedicate myself today to this, your call to me as a parent, in the name of Jesus.

Amen.
