Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

WHAT'S HAPPENING HERE

A CUP OF JOE

Greetings in Christ, all! I've got lots of important information for you this week, so let's get right after it.

I need to run "sick calls" and Last Rites by you, so you know how to get ahold of us and the best way to do it. Every once in a while, I'll hear someone tell me I "missed" them or their loved one and I feel so bad. Fr. Le and I believe strongly in getting to people who are sick and/or dying and it breaks our hearts if we find out we missed someone. So, I've looked into it and I think I know what we need to do so that Fr. Le and I can serve better.

It starts with the difference between Anointing of the Sick and Last Rites.

Anointing of the Sick is for those who need prayers in their sickness. It is a sacrament that we priests administer. As a general rule, there isn't a hurry for Anointing of the Sick, meaning it's not usually an emergency call, but something we can get to in the next day or two. For these, I recommend you simply call the parish office. They will work hard to punch holes in our schedules so that we can get to it in a timely manner.

Last Rites are a series of prayers we pray over/with people who are actively dying. When we get a Last Rites call, we come right then and there or as soon as humanly possible.

For Last Rites, you should always use the parish emergency line: (810) 356-3187. When you call that number, no one will answer. Instead, you leave a message and it goes to three persons' phones so that we can coordinate getting there asap. Just let us know who is dying, where they are geographically and Fr. Le and I will work together to make sure one of us gets there if it is humanly possible. If we can't, the third person will work hard to find a priest who can.

This leads us to the next topic of funeral planning. When someone we love dies and we want the funeral at Holy Family, it is important that you call us first. In other words, I'm asking you to make sure you talk with us at Holy Family before you set a date and time with the funeral home. If you sit with the funeral home and plan the day and time and then call us, it really makes it difficult and sometimes even impossible. With two parishes and a school, Fr. Le and I have crazy schedules and our parish is an active one, so we can't always change things with just a couple days' warning.

Another thing you may want to consider is talking to your kids about having a funeral Mass. More and more, I'll talk to the kids who say things like "Mom wouldn't want a fuss" and do not allow us to pray a funeral Mass. To be clear, we offer a Mass for that person anyway because our souls need that after death. But I think well-intentioned children of the deceased can be too quick to assume that a Mass would not have been wanted or needed. As Catholics, we know that a funeral Mass is not "a fuss," but a necessary part of our sacramental life.

Finally, you may remember that a few months ago, Fr. Le and I talked at all the Masses about the diocese plan to help her priests. A vast majority of us priests are happy but struggling mightily to meet the needs of our communities with limited resources and all the normal limitations of being human. Priests are burning out, struggling to keep up, etc. (PS: I'm tired, but happy!) Beyond that, while Catholics still ask for funerals, baptisms, sick calls, weddings and other sacraments of the Church, they don't all support the Church or regularly go. As a result, we're struggling with the limitations that this provides. So committees met, plans were made, and in the end, they decided to group parishes by geography and similarity. The plan was for priests to live in community and work together with a larger number of priests over a larger number of parishes. For my part, I was excited about this and shared that joy with you. However, I apparently was not in the majority on this topic and unfortunately most priests did not like it or want to cooperate with it so the model is going to change. Our grouping is still the same: Holy Family in Grand Blanc, St. Mark in Goodrich and St. John in Fenton, but they abandoned requiring priests to live and work together. You already share me with St. Mark so I don't know if you'll even notice anything if something does happen. To be blunt, I don't understand what they are going to do and I'm not sure what this all means. As I figure it out, I'll share it with you.

Whew! That's a lot of typing for me and reading for you...I hope you find this helpful.

I love you all and thank Jesus I get to serve you.

"October for Others"

Our cupboards are pretty bare at times during the month. We have expanded our "Others First" Sunday to every Sunday in the month of October. We depend on your generosity to stock our St. Joseph Food Pantry. Please remember the needy as you shop this month.

Bring nonperishable items to Mass next weekend as usual and, if you can, please help each Sunday in October. Thanks!

There is a special pantry need at this time for vegetables, mustard, canned fruit, packaged mashed potatoes/ scalloped potatoes and rice dishes. We are well stocked with toilet paper for now and have plenty of grocery bags.

Respect Life Thank You

A very sincere thank you to you all, for your belief that all life is sacred, a gift from God and worthy of protection. And you have proven that your generosity is only exceeded by your love and commitment to this. We are most grateful to all of you and especially to all the volunteers that helped at the Respect Life Sunday drive. We are so pleased to announce that we collected $1,934.44. This will be used to assist the pro-life cause in defeating the extreme Proposal 3. Please continue to pray for the very soul of our nation and our state. This is a very real battle: Good against evil. Thank you again and may God bless us all.

57th Pope – Agapetus

Born in Rome, he was elected on May 13, 535, (the last survivor of the Symmachan old guard). He condemned the tradition of allowing the pope to choose his successor. After confirming the decrees of the Council of Carthage, he was induced by King Throdatus of the Goths to go to Constantinople to check the Emperor Justinian's ambitions in Italy and use his influence to appease him. Meanwhile, the Byzantine general Belisarius was preparing for an invasion of Italy. While in Constantinople, Pope Agapetus was poisoned by the Emperor's wife Theodora who was of the eutychian faith. Agapetus died on April 22, 536 and was buried in the Vatican Grottoes.

Required for Those Entering a Second Marriage

There is a new marriage preparation requirement for couples entering into a second union, whether following death of previous spouse or a previous nulled marriage.

Typical marriage education programs and ministries are not sufficient for couples entering into blended family marriages. Since marriage in a stepfamily is a "package deal," you must minister to both the couple and "the package." This requires addressing dynamics related to ex-spouses and co-parenting, loss, stepparenting, spiritual shame, finances, and the expectations of both children and adults—just to name a few." To do anything less is grossly inadequate to prevent divorce.

The Smart Stepfamilies program, created by author, therapist, and blended family expert Ron L. Deal, brings together these different aspects a stepfamily will encounter, in order to empower blended family couples and their extended family for successful family living.

The Remarriage Retreat is a way for couples to come together in a non-threatening setting to learn about the challenges that will be experienced, as well as children entering into a stepfamily. It is also an opportunity for a couple to, possibly for the first time, begin to focus on previously unknown information or previously undiscussed topics that will bring challenges and begin the process of sharing with each other how this will be addressed within their new family dynamic.

All the Facilitators have journeyed through the trials and blessings of living in their own blended family and are willing to share their stories and help with the questions the attending couples may have.

The next retreat will take place the weekend of October 29th at St. Francis Retreat Center. To learn more, go to: <https://www.stfrancis.ws/retreats>

Thanks and God bless!
