St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

A C U P O F J O E

Greetings in Christ, all!
I'm so, so grateful for your response so far to the campaign. Already, a few of you reached out to our office and offered to make their pledge and I am just so touched. More than a few of you asked if you could make your pledges now instead of waiting for the letter you will be receiving from our Bishop: You can! You can either follow the QR code at the bottom of this article or you can go to:

- [www.stewardshipforsaintsand scholars.com](http://www.stewardshipforsaintsand scholars.com)
(Stewardship for Saints and Scholars dot com)
- On the website, if you look to the upper right, you'll see the "Make a gift" button. Click it.
- Click on the appropriate gift and fill out the form.
- This is very important: Please make sure to choose our parish from the drop-down menu titled "Parish."

That's the way they keep track of which parish is giving what toward their goal. I did this on the website and found it easy. I pledged $166.00 a month for five years, totaling a pledge of $10,000. I'm so grateful for you giving me time to tell you about the campaign and I'm so grateful for those of you who have already pledged or given. I don't have the words to express my gratitude. Let's keep this up!

On Monday this week, our Church celebrates The Feast of St. Jude, the Apostle. We are so crazy blessed to have a first-class relic of him right in our church. If you come to church on Monday, don't miss a chance to be blessed with this relic. Please check out our handout for more information about this amazing Saint. Technically, his name was/is "Judas." The problem is, of course, the other disciples named Judas who betrayed Jesus. In order to avoid confusion, the Church has simply referred to him as "Jude." It is a rare and amazing gift that we have his relic, let's make sure to take advantage of this blessing!

All Saints is this Friday and All Souls is this Saturday. These are two very significant feasts for us. On All Saints Day (Friday), we remember and rejoice in the prayers and examples of the Saints. We will pray Masses at 8 am and 6 pm. We are offering two Masses because this is a Holy Day of Obligation.

On All Souls Day (Saturday), we pray for all of our beloved dead and we will have our usual Mass at 8 am. I'll be praying this Mass with you, as we light candles for all those in our parish family who have gone to be with the Lord in the last year. Beyond going to Mass, It's a good idea to take your family to a family grave this week and do some clean-up and prayers. Praying for the dead is one of the seven best things we can do as Christians. Please be sure to come pray these holy days with us!

So, that's it for this week. I'll keep reminding us all of the campaign for the next couple of months. I can't wait for the day I get to tell you that we hit or passed our goal!

Jesus bless you all. I'm so grateful to God that I get to be your priest.

We are so excited to offer Advent by Candlelight once again, an evening for women with prayer, song, food, and fun. This special time is a wonderful way to prepare our hearts and homes to celebrate the coming of Jesus.

This year, Advent by Candlelight will be held on Thursday, December 5th, beginning in the church at 6:30 pm (church doors will open at 6 pm). This is for women who are at least 21 years old.

All women of the parish attending the event are also invited to hostess a table. Hostesses set their tables in the Fr. Bush Parish Center, provide finger foods for their guests, and visit for more than an hour after the service in the church. To reserve and hostess a table, please register at hfgb.org. Anyone who would like to come but cannot hostess a table may call the parish office, and we will find a table placement for you.

Feast Day | October 28

🕯️ St. Jude, Apostle

St. Jude, known as Thaddaeus, was a brother of St. James the Lesser. He was one of the 12 Apostles of Jesus. He is pictured in many ways: sometimes with a club (he was beaten to death), other times with a flame about him (he was at Pentecost). Sometimes you'll see him with a book (He wrote the Book of Jude in the New Testament), other times with a tool or holding a picture of Jesus. St. Jude was a son of Clopas and his mother was the Virgin Mary's cousin. Jude traveled extensively preaching the Gospel all over. He is believed to have been martyred either in Armenia or Beirut. Following his death, St. Jude's body was brought to Rome and left in a crypt in St. Peter's Basilica. Today you can find him in the left transept of St. Peter's Basilica under the main altar of St. Joseph. He shares the tomb with the apostle Simon the Zealot. Many people came to St. Jude's grave to pray and reported powerful miracles as a result. This led to him receiving the title, "The Saint for the Hopeless and Despaired." Two Saints, St. Bridget of Sweden and St. Bernard, had visions from God asking them to accept St. Jude as "The Patron Saint of the Impossible."

Pray...

"O most holy apostle, Saint Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the Church honors and invokes you universally as the patron of hopeless cases, and of things almost despaired of. Pray for me, who am so miserable. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege accorded to you, to bring visible and speedy help where help was almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need, that I may receive the consolation and succor of Heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly (here make your request) and that I may praise God with you and all the elect throughout eternity." Amen.

162nd Pope - Callixtus II

Born in Burgundy, he was elected pope February 8, 1119. During his pontificate an agreement was reached at Worms which recognized the pope's right to nominate bishops. He became well known as a spokesman of a reform party within the church and a foe of the policy of the Holy Roman emperor Henry V. During the same year at the council at Reims, he excommunicated Henry V. In 1120 Callixtus II was able to enter Rome in triumph. The German princes soon forced Henry to reconcile with Callixtus, and the Concordat of Worms (1122), which terminated the Investiture Controversy. Callixtus called the First Lateran Council (1123), which ratified the Concordat of Worms, securing peace between church and empire for the next 35 years. Pope Callixtus II died on December 13, 1124.

November 1: All Saints Day

On the feast of All Saints, we honor those men and women who - whether they've been canonized or not - have led lives of heroic virtue that set an example for all Christians. The meaning of the feast is summarized in a sermon by St. Bernard: "if we venerate their memory, it serves us, not them. But I tell you, when I think of them, I feel myself inflamed by a tremendous yearning. Calling the saints to mind inspires us, or rather arouses in us, above all else, a longing to enjoy their company so desirable in itself... In short, we long to be united in happiness with all the saints."

Cenacle of Divine Mercy of St. Mary Cathedral

Excerpts from God in the Diary of Saint Sister Maria Faustina (Diary, 1521)

"My daughter, do not tire of proclaiming My mercy. In this way you will refresh this Heart of Mine, which burns with a flame of pity for sinners."

Holy Moments Explained -

Why Do Holy Moments Make Us Happy?

Holy Moments release oxytocin into the bloodstream, inducing feelings of warmth, euphoria, and connection with others. Holy Moments literally produce a natural oxytocin high, and that is one of the reasons it feels so good to collaborate with God to create Holy Moments.

These three God-made hormones are so powerful that they allow us to experience joy even while suffering. This explains why even from prison, the apostle Paul wrote more about joy than any other theme. Let's face it, some Holy Moments come at great personal sacrifice. The satisfaction derived from Holy Moments can even supersede physical suffering. Women experience a similar phenomenon during childbirth.

Holy Moments also have a myriad of other positive effects on us. They boost feelings of confidence, optimism, and the general sense that our lives are moving in a positive direction. Holy Moments also liberate us from feeling helpless. Holy Moments move us from a passive state (waiting for something good to happen), to an active state (making something good happen).
