St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

What's Happening Here

A Cup of Joe

Greetings in Christ, all!

This weekend is the big MSU game against their rival in Ann Arbor. By the time you read this, I pray MSU has secured victory.

This Monday is All Saints' Day. This is when we celebrate and we honor the canonized saints in our Church. Normally, this is a Holy Day of Obligation but for some reason, it isn't this year. Even with that, I pray that we set aside some sort of special celebration that day and go to Mass if we can.

This Tuesday is All Souls' Day, the day when we pray for and honor our beloved dead. I hope that we all take time this day to remember and pray for our beloved dead and, if possible, visit and honor their graves. We have a Mass of Remembrance, Tuesday evening, November 2nd at 6pm. Please read the article in the bulletin for more information. We hope to see you there!

These two feasts remind us of a lot of things, but to me, chief among them is the knowledge that life is terminal, that all of us will face death. We remember our death and let that be a fuel to focus our life and our decisions on the longest part of our existence: the eternal one that begins at our death.

Let the knowledge of our deaths and the prayers of the saints compel us to give all we have to love, to prayer, to growth and service. Let the knowledge of death help us to cling tighter to our families and not take them for granted. Let it all be a reminder to us to let go of unhealthy grudges and forgive.

I pray that these two extraordinary days don't just pass us by, but compel us to be grateful for the example and prayers of the Saints and strive to be one someday as well.

I bless you all with a heart filled with gratitude that I get to be your priest.

Mass of Remembrance

All Souls' Day, Tuesday, Nov 2, 2021

Please join us for a Remembrance Mass on All Souls' Day, Tuesday, November 2, 2021, at 6 PM in memory of all deceased parishioners since November 2020 and all of our faithful departed. A banner listing the names of our deceased for the past year will be displayed in the church throughout the month of November.

If you'd like your loved one's name read during this Mass, please submit their name to Nancy Repuyan, Ministry of the Ill and Bereaved, by email to nrepuyan@hfgb.org. Please include pronunciation, if necessary. Please RSVP to Nancy if you plan to attend Mass so we can get an idea for candles needed for participants to place near the altar in memory of their loved one.

4th Grade Multiplication Wall of Fame

Back for another year...The 4th Grade Multiplication Wall of Fame. Once students have mastered all of the multiplication facts, their names are added to the wall. These students have mastered multiplication math facts through 12x12! This is a 4th Grade math standard for all students. Next up...DIVISION FACTS! Congratulations to the following students, Mitchell, Olivia, Donnell, Jude and Tony! We will continue to celebrate when each student is added to the wall!

2nd Grade Accelerated Reader (AR) Wall of Fame

HFS 2nd Graders are on the fast track to reading! Congratulations to Presley, Elise, Priscilla, Mierri, Boston and Cooper! These students have already reached the 100 Plus Club, meaning they all have read over 100 books! AR is intended to encourage kids to read independently, at their own level and pace. The idea behind AR is that kids enjoy reading more when they can select their own books. With over 150,000 titles in the AR library, there is sure to be something that interests all students!

Keep up the great work, 2nd Grade!

Our Catholic Heritage

by Earl Hagen

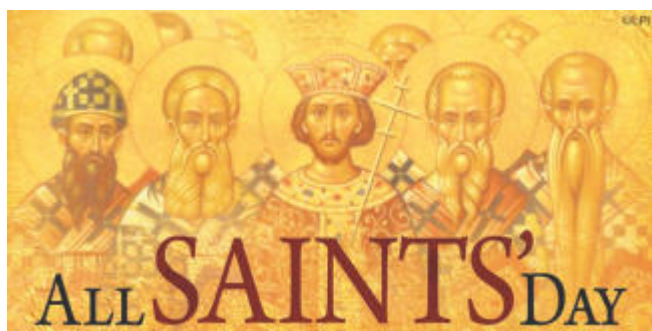

6th pope – Alexander I

Roman. A disciple of Plutarch, he was elected in 105 and died in 115. To him are attributed the institution of the use of holy water in churches and houses and the prescription that hosts to be consecrated be made from unleavened bread.

November 1: All Saints Day

On the feast of All Saints, we honor those men and women who—whether they've been canonized or not—have led lives of heroic virtue that set an example for all Christians. The meaning of the feast is summarized in a sermon by St. Bernard: "if we venerate their memory, it serves us, not them. But I tell you, when I think of them, I feel myself inflamed by a tremendous yearning. Calling the saints to mind inspires us, or rather arouses in us, above all else, a longing to enjoy their company so desirable in itself... In short, we long to be united in happiness with all the saints."

Knights of Columbus Baby Bottles for Life

The Knights of Columbus councils in Genesee County are taking on an initiative in Flint that should certainly help Defend Life for the unborn. This initiative is to place three Ultrasounds in the city of Flint by the end of 2021.

The locations for these Ultrasounds include the Pregnancy Resource Center on Saginaw St., Pregnancy Help Clinic on Flushing Rd (presently under renovation), and The Luke Project 52 of Flint.

The cost for these three Ultrasounds is approximately $110,000 with 50% being funded by our local Knights of Columbus councils and parish communities throughout the county and the other 50% being funded by the Supreme Council, headquarters of the Knights of Columbus.

You can help with your donation to these Ultrasounds through your local Knights Baby Bottle Drive and/or a one-time contribution. Any time over the next couple months, full baby bottles or cash/checks can be placed in the bottle collection box in the gathering space. Checks should be written to KofC Council 6742 with ultrasound in memo line.

Questions, please call your council's District Deputy Rick Perry 810-701-0413.

In less than a month, the generous parishioners of Holy Family have donated over $4,000 to our Baby Bottle Drive. The drive lasts until December 31. If you took a bottle, please fill it with loose change and return it to the Knights Collection Box in the lobby of the church. Days of Mindfulness Mindfulness is a practice in living honestly with oneself. Join the mindfulness community that meets monthly to deepen our understanding and commitment to the daily practice of meditation. Facilitated by Adrian Dominican Sister Esther Kennedy, OP, retreat leader and spiritual director, the Days of Mindfulness are held Saturdays from 10:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. ET. The sessions are virtual only and will be on Zoom.

The dates and themes are as follows:

November 20, 2021, Wandering Mind. Learn the difference between watching thoughts pass by like clouds and inviting them to lunch. When we are caught by our thoughts, sanity is only a breath away.

December 11, 2021, Wholeness, Happiness, Peace. Living in and being attuned to the rhythms of the present moment means living in accord with life.

The cost is $25 per session, and a break for lunch will be included. Registration is required to receive the Zoom link. Visit www.webercenter.org and click on "programs," call 517-266-4000; or email webercenter@adriandominicans.org.

First Saturday Devotions

The World Apostolate of Fatima Diocesan Morning of Prayer and Reparation for World Peace will be held at St. Mary (11110 S. Saginaw St., Mt. Morris 48458) on November 6th, at 9:00 a.m. The morning will include Divine Liturgy, Investiture in the Brown Scapular, Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Holy Hour of Prayer and Rosary.

St. Francis Prayer Center - Help!

The St. Francis Prayer Center is in urgent need of help! The Prayer Center is in the process of reorganizing their Bed Ministry. Are you someone who would like to help children and parents by delivering a bed for them to sleep on? They are looking to gather delivery teams that will work together one or two days a week or even one or two days a month.

You must be able to lift mattresses, box springs, frames, dressers, night stands, or shelving units. This ministry benefits so many people (especially children). We pray you feel the same way.

They also need someone to place orders at the Food Bank of Eastern Michigan and see to the pickup with a Prayer Center truck on a Monday or Tuesday morning.

Please contact St. Francis Prayer Center at 810-787-5330 to volunteer or send an email to stfrancisflint@comcast.net.

With Fr. Solanus, thank you in advance.
