Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

A C U P O F J O E

Greetings in Christ!

Big news this week, folks! You may remember that before I arrived here, our parish signed an agreement with the city to do certain things on our campus. One part of the plan we have to do sooner rather than later is build a new building to house our Outreach to the poor and needy and then tear down the old place that we currently do it from. On Tuesday, November 12th, our Finance Council agreed to the financing for us to proceed.

This project will involve building a facility (pictured below) that will replace our current Outreach building, as well as the many little garages for our maintenance with one multi-purpose building. This new building will house offices and storage for our ministry to the needy, as well as all of our maintenance equipment. I'm very excited about this.

When that building is completed, we will then destroy the Outreach House and the many little garages in our parking lot and gain some parking spaces.

Please note, for this to work well, we are counting on at least making our goal in the Saints and Scholars campaign. If you haven't contributed or pledged, please consider doing so soon!

Jesus bless you all.

2024 Giving Tree

Holy Family Parish has accepted the names of 353 children (136 families) from the North End Soup Kitchen for their annual Angel Tag program. Last year they had 1,200 children who received gifts from the community as a whole and they always worry about ability to respond. This is roughly 90 more than last year. Our parish said, "You can give us more. We can do it." And you've always come through.

How it works:

- Choose an angel tag (s) from the tree which will be located in the Gathering Space after Masses Saturday and Sunday, November 23rd and 24th. We're starting a week earlier because some have expressed wishes to shop the Black Friday sales. If you are unable to attend Mass and wish to obtain an Angel tag, please call Nancy Repuyan at (810) 444-8896 prior to November 23rd and she'll give you a child's name and information. Follow the instructions in envelope.

Please return your gifts anytime through Sunday, December 15th, to the Gathering Space. We'll need Monday all day to ensure everyone is accounted for, and bag them by families. The Soup Kitchen will be coming with their truck early Tuesday morning, the 17th to pick up.

Thank you for your very generous hearts.

Found

At the Grandparents' Day Mass there was a set of keys found and brought to the School Lobby desk. If you wish to identify and claim these keys, please call (810) 694-4891.

Christmas Flowers

A nice way to remember or honor someone at Christmas and help make our church beautiful, in honor of Jesus' birthday, is with a donation to the Christmas altar flowers. The donations are also used throughout the year to beautify the church and gathering space. There are three ways you may participate:

- ◆ Flower memorial envelopes may be found on a table in the gathering space next weekend. These can be returned to the collection box or parish office.
- ◆ You may go online to donate under "Memorial Flowers" and then email your memorial names to Linda Doyle at lidoyle@hfgb.org.
- ◆ You may mail a check to the parish office with a paper including your names.

Please clearly print names. If you include a phone number, we can call if we have a question. For memorials to honor a living person, please write "living" after their name. All donations need to be submitted by Wednesday, December 11th, to be listed in the Christmas bulletin.

Book of Remembrance

The Book of Remembrance is available on a podium near Mary's altar. You are invited to add the names of your deceased loved ones to this book so that we may pray for them during the month of November. Please be assured of our prayers for your loved ones who have been listed in the book in previous years. (There is no need for them to be added again.)

Catholic Social Teaching Collection

The Catholic Social Teaching Collection (diocesan) is to equip the faithful to understand and put into practice Catholic teaching in light of the challenges of important social issues, including the sanctity of human life, the dignity of the person, religious liberty, marriage and family, poverty, solidarity, and care for creation. Bishop Boyea has inaugurated a diocesan collection that will support small grants to applying parishes and Catholic entities within the Diocese of Lansing. This grant is designed to fund programs that combine catechesis with hands-on endeavors to advance Catholic social teaching within the diocese. Grant recipients will be selected by the Diocesan Commission on Catholic Social Teaching.

The Diocesan Catholic Social Teaching Collection supports catechetical projects which inform and inspire our practice of the Church's teaching in the world. This is distinct from the mission of Catholic Charities, which provides direct assistance to people in need. This collection is scheduled to be held annually in November.

This collection is meant to advance our understanding and building of God's kingdom: "When humanity recognizes, both in private and in public life, that Christ is King, society will at last receive the great blessings of real liberty, well-ordered discipline, peace and harmony."

An envelope may be found in your packet or you may give online.

Holy Moments Explained -

Your Tidal Wave of Goodness

My life has unleashed a tidal wave of goodness around the world. That may sound prideful and arrogant. It isn't. I know who made it happen. I'm not confused about who the credit belongs to. It was a collaboration with God and so many other people. I can take pleasure in the fact that I got to be part of it, but to take prideful credit would be foolish.

My parents and teachers, brothers and friends, coaches and pastors, all help set this tidal wave of goodness in motion. I was the beneficiary of their Holy Moments.

Sometimes, when I have a few moments to spare in an airport, I look at the screens that list all the cities. I can see the faces of the people in each city who helped make this happen. I cannot describe the feeling. My heart is bursting with awe and gratitude in those moments, and as I turn and make my way to my flight, I whisper a prayer for all those people and their families.

165th Pope - Celestine II

This pope, also known as Guido de Castellisi, was born in Citta di Castello. He was elected as Pope on October 3, 1143. A scholar of noble birth, he studied under Peter Abélard. He was made cardinal deacon in 1127 and cardinal priest in 1134. With the help of St. Bernard, he settled the internal differences of the Church. He tried to end the war between Scotland and England, but he was not able to obtain peace in Italy. He lifted the excommunication of Louis VII of France. He was Pope for five months. Pope Celestine II died March 8, 1144.

November 17: Elizabeth of Hungary

While still a young girl she was married to Louis the Landgrave of Thuringia and gave birth to three children. She devoted herself to prayer and meditation. After her husband's death, she embraced a life of poverty, erecting a hospital in which she herself served the sick. She died at Marburg in 1231.

FOLLOWING OUR FAITH

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I recently moved into a new neighborhood. On my first evening I went grocery shopping and could not find my usual favorite Greek yogurt. Strangely, my heart started to race. All the losses of my previous life hit me. So many of my old friends, habits, comforts, and predictable experiences had fallen away. There I stood, a grown man, crying like a little boy whose world was falling apart in the dairy aisle.

This week, Jesus describes what to do when one world ends, and another begins. Does it apply to the end of time? Yes. Does it apply to the end of our individual lives? Yes. It also applies to every “world” we inhabit throughout our lives, in school, family, friendships, work, play and so on. First, the sun, moon, and stars fall. The old, familiar ways of running things suddenly stop working. Light fades. Things fall apart. It’s awful. But, second, Christ comes “in the clouds.” Jesus, the Son of Man, replaces those old powers with himself as the prime governing principle. Third, he sends out his angels to “gather his elect from the four winds.” He re-integrates the fragments into a new integrated whole. “Summer is near,” he concludes. A new world begins.

Is your world crumbling? Are your sun, moon, and stars falling from the sky? Learn to discern the pattern of the Cross and Resurrection at work in it. This is the power we touch in the Mass. Jesus is coming precisely in this transition from the old to the new world. It doesn’t make our losses easy. But it does make it possible to glimpse the dawning of a summer, a new beginning, the life of the world to come.

— Father John Muir

(Practicing) Catholic - Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The End of the World

If I had a brick for every time my mother said this to me growing up, I could have built a castle. One that comes complete with a moat whose bridge I could dramatically pull up so I could sulk, in the window of the highest turret, sighing loudly so every passerby would know how I suffered.

Because sometimes we act like it’s the end of the world — whether we are a little kid angered by a playground snub, a teenage girl flipping out over an assignment for English class or a college student distraught that she got scheduled for four opening shifts in a row at the coffee house where she works (yes, these are all examples taken straight from my life, why do you ask?).

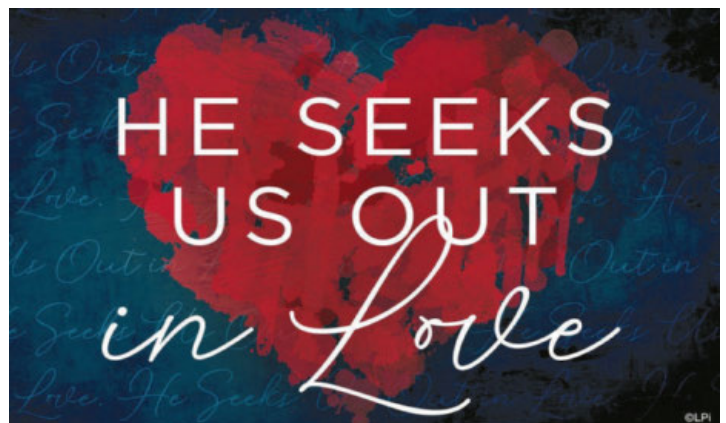

And sometimes, it really does seem like the end of the world. We lose someone we love to cancer. We miscarry a child before we even get to see his tiny face. The rent is due, and the bank account is overdrawn (also all examples taken straight from my life).

In today’s Gospel, Jesus tells us that when the sun is darkened and the moon no longer gives light, we must look for him, because his time is near.

He’s talking about The End of the World. The big one, the apocalypse. But why do I think he’s also talking about the end of the world — those sufferings large and small, real and imagined, that make us feel like the sky is caving in?

In both instances, he draws near to us. So let us look for him.
