The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

A C U P O F J O E

Merry Christmas to all!

May the light of Christ's presence among us drive away the darkness, chaos and anger of this present world.

How blessed are we to have a God that chose to come among us. He didn't need to do what he did; there are many ways I assume He could've saved us.

But He chose vulnerability. He chose to become tiny and dependent, because we are tiny and dependent. God experienced need because we experience need. God experienced all of these things out of love and a hunger to save us.

The moment Jesus was conceived in His Mother's womb, human nature and divine nature mingled together. Jesus takes every human experience but sin and makes it holy. He does this to connect with us, to heal our broken human nature and to offer us the Gift of Hope.

Whatever darkness we encounter, whatever struggles we endure, we do so knowing that the Lord is with us.

I pray that God heals our broken relationships and draws us closer to Him each day so that we stand together as a sign of Hope for a world so contentious, so angry, so fearful.

We need to fear nothing. By taking flesh and becoming one with us, God has united Himself to the human race in a way that can never be undone.

May Jesus bless and restore each of us. May He compel us to remember Who He Is and What He's Done in every moment when we wrestle.

Jesus bless you all!

Giving Tree Thank You

Giving Tree Contributors:

Thank you so much for providing gifts for 280 children from the North End Soup Kitchen. When Holy family was asked to take on more that they were unable to place, Fr. Joe's response was that we would take all of them. The response was overwhelming! We were also able to give a large box and a large bag of miscellaneous gifts for those who arrive there on Christmas Day unannounced.

Thank you also to the eight women who arrived Monday morning to sort and bag. They might have brought a whirlwind with them because they were done by 10:30 a.m. Amazing, ladies!

Welcome!

To any visitors joining us - a special WELCOME! If you would like to register and make Holy Family your parish family, we would love to have you! You can register online on our website hfgb.org. Just click on "I'm New" and select "Membership" from the dropdown menu. You may also stop by or call the parish office at 810-694-4891.

Eucharistic Adoration "Adorers" Needed

Every Tuesday and Friday, we expose the Blessed Sacrament for time of Eucharistic Adoration. This is a wonderful time for private prayer and personal communion with the Lord.

It is necessary that, when the Lord is exposed on the altar during adoration, individuals are present for prayer and adoration, either communally or individually. We lovingly refer to those volunteers who dedicate this time to our Lord, as Adorers. We invite and welcome all to come and spend time with the Lord, but we need some to commit to a time so we know our Lord is not left alone.

If you would like to volunteer for this wonderful ministry, please contact the parish office at (810) 694-4891 or Genevieve Psenski at gpsenski@hfgb.org. This will be the best hour of your day. Let Him transform you.

Stewardship of Treasure December 16th & 17th, 2023

Our Catholic Heritage

by Earl Hagen

118th Pope - Leo V

Born in Ardea, Italy, he was elected pope in July 903. This made him bishop of Rome and nominal ruler of the Papal States. In the few months of his pontificate he was not able to achieve much because of the persistent internal disorders. He had to suffer the pressures exerted by Emperor Berengarius I. The chaplain Christopher, priest of San Damaso Church in Rome, tried to convince the pope to abdicate, usurping his place in the meantime. Christopher was considered antipope. He was taken prisoner and died violently in prison. Leo V then retired to a monastery where he lived until his assassination. Pope Leo V died February 904 with the suspicion of poisoning accompanying his death. He is buried in St. Peter's Basilica.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

"She gave birth to her firstborn son." The pain of childbirth is something that boggles my mind. I'm sure I couldn't handle it. I can't even watch scenes in movies in which a woman gives birth. I understand it's a beautiful part of nature, but there's still something awful about it and the attendant suffering.

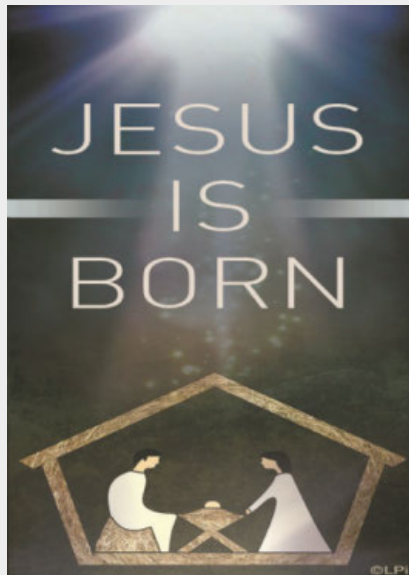

Which is why it's worth pondering an often neglected and currently unpopular part of the Church's theology around the birth of Christ, his was miraculous because it caused no pain to his mother. Even her physical virginity remains intact. Of course, we modern scientific people scoff at such an idea.

Without obsessing over the obstetrical details, we discover a glorious illumination in the symbolic meaning of this birth that we moderns find so embarrassing. God comes into the world in an utterly non-violent way. He himself will suffer his own bloodshed but will never shed that of others. He is so peaceful and non-violent that he will even rise from the dead without breaking the seal of the tomb. All of humanity, in the Church, will give birth to him in the Church free from the terrible pain due to original sin. How badly we need the truth of this miraculous birth today!

Let's delight in this great mystery and miracle of Jesus's birth. He is the Prince of Peace and always nonviolent. We need not fear him, ever.

Part One

Awakening - A Moment of Clarity

When I was fifteen years old, I had a great spiritual mentor. I don't know how my life would have unfolded if I hadn't met him. But it's difficult to imagine that life would have been anywhere near as fruitful or rewarding as it has been.

He encouraged me to read the Gospels. He taught me how to pray. He showed me how to care for the poor and visit the lonely. He encouraged me to read great spiritual books. He watched without judgment as I foolishly wrestled with God. He listened patiently to my questions, doubts, excuses, and resistance. And perhaps most of all, he encouraged me to honor those sacred truths that were emerging in my soul: Something is missing, there is more to life, and you do have more to offer.

Saint

December 29: St. Thomas Becket

While archdeacon of Canterbury, he was made chancellor of England at the age of 36 by his friend King Henry II. When Henry felt it advantageous to make his chancellor the archbishop of Canterbury, Thomas gave him fair warning: he might not accept all of Henry's intrusions into Church affairs. Henry insisted upon usurping Church rights. At one time, supposing some conciliatory action possible, Thomas came close to compromise. He momentarily approved the Constitutions of Clarendon, which would have denied the clergy the right of trial by a Church court and prevented them from making direct appeal to Rome. But Thomas rejected the Constitutions, fled to France for safety and remained in exile for seven years. When he returned to England, he suspected it would mean certain death. Because Thomas refused to remit censures he had placed upon bishops favored by the king, Henry cried out in a rage, "Will no one rid me of this troublesome priest!" Four knights, taking his words as his wish, slew Thomas in the Canterbury cathedral.

Prayer at Christmas

Lord, on this Christmas Day, in the midst of the joy of our celebrations,
help us recall what is truly important about this day.

In the midst of opening presents,
help us remember the love that each gift represents.

In the midst of Christmas dinner, help us remember that you are the source of all life.

In the midst of family gatherings,
help us remember that you are the fullness of all joy.

And in the midst of Christmas Mass,
help us remember the supreme act of love, sacrifice,
and humility that we celebrate on this Christmas day when your Son came as a helpless, unknown baby and grew to be the life and light of the world.

Amen.

2024 Altar Flowers

Our web page for ordering Altar flowers is open!
Please go to: <https://hfgbaltarflowers.pushpayevents.com/>
Your $50 donation for your specific month will help us provide flowers at the altar and around the sanctuary to beautify our worship space. Your loved one's name will be listed in the parish bulletin for that entire month. You may offer flowers in honor of a living person for a special occasion or in memory of your loved one.

We will continue to have Easter and Christmas memorial collections as well. During Lent and Advent there will be no flowers in church.

If you have any questions or if you need assistance ordering, you may contact Theresa Dyer at 810-694-4891, ext. 2211, or tdyer@hfgb.org.
