8th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil; for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks." - Lk 6:43, 45

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

Second Reading:
1 Corinthians 15:54-58

Gospel:
Luke 6:39-45

St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A Cup of Joe

Greetings in Christ!

Before I forget...I've noticed signs popping up in our Church...people taping signs to doors, confessionals, etc. I really appreciate the effort to help, but I would rather no one put up signs in the Church. I've removed scotch tape from our beautiful wooden kneelers in the confessionals and our doors and it bums me out. Again, thank you for trying to help, but I'd rather we didn't do that.

But now, on to the big news: Holy Lord, Lent is upon us! Can you believe it? We start this week with Ash Wednesday and we are offering the following services:

6:30 a.m., 8:00 a.m. (with our school kids), 12:15 p.m. (this is an ash distribution service only),
and 6:00 p.m.

There will be NO Confessions at 5:15 p.m.

Sacrifice is our theme this Lent

As Catholics, one of the most powerful tools in our spiritual armory is sacrifice. When you or I choose to sacrifice in the name of Jesus, we participate in powerful, powerful things: we discipline our bodies, learning freedom from our desires. We discipline our emotions, learning freedom from our feelings and a stronger commitment to truth. We allow God to teach us when we sacrifice and the devil is powerless against such things.

So, what are some ways we can sacrifice this Lent? We can sacrifice our time: disabuse ourselves of the myth of "my time." You and I do not possess time; all time belongs to God. We can make a firm and specific commitment to God that this Lent, he gets first priority on our schedules through personal and communal prayer.

We can sacrifice our goods: is it time to pass on to the poor and needy those things that are not essential for us, but would be for them? Do we give to the Church, to other charities in a meaningful way? Are we, in the words of Jesus, storing up treasure in Heaven or on earth?

We can sacrifice to tame our impulses: food is a big one for me here. I eat more than I should and I do not think about what I eat. I need to remember that my body is a temple of the Holy Spirit (a huge temple!) and I should not let my impulses decide what I eat and when I eat. I'm going after this one.

I've been asked about the idea of simply deciding this Lent to be a better person "fasting from gossip, cruelty, etc." My initial reaction is that we are supposed to be doing that all the time. Lent is the time to take it up a notch, to reach beyond the norm. Think of it like a spiritual boot camp or a spiritual Spring Training...it's the time we refocus by going above and beyond our daily struggles and giving more of ourselves to Him Who Gave His All for us. Honestly though, that is just my opinion. I don't know if I'm right on this or not.

In terms of confessions during Lent, I cannot encourage you strongly enough to go. I believe we offer a lot of confession times and I ask you to try to utilize those. It's not uncommon to get a lot of calls during Holy Week asking for a confession and, if we can, we'll do that, but it is a crazy week schedule wise and I ask us to make the commitment to take care of our Holy Obligation in a manner that is not last minute.

On March 9 we will be offering confessions from 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. with multiple priests helping us. That's a day I think we should set aside and get a good confession in. If that doesn't work, we have two priests from 5:15 until 5:45 p.m. on Wednesday and at least two priests every Saturday from 8:30 - 9:30 a.m., with three on the first Saturday of the month! Beyond that, don't forget that almost every day we have an hour of confessions at St. Mark with one priest.

Whew! This is a long one. I love this season. Let's prayerfully and intentionally approach this Holy Season with all of our heart, soul, mind and strength.

I thank Jesus every day that I get to be your priest.

Come rest in the presence of the Lord... if only for a moment.

“Adoration is prayer that prolongs the celebration and Eucharistic Communion and in which the soul continues to be nourished: it is nourished with love, truth, peace; it is nourished with hope, because the One before whom we prostrate ourselves does not judge us, does not crush us, but liberates and transforms us.”

2022 Altar Flowers

Our web page for ordering Altar flowers is now open! Please go to:

<https://hfgbaltarflowers.pushpayevents.com/>

Your $50 donation for your specific month will help us provide flowers at the altar and around the sanctuary to beautify our worship space. Your loved one's name will be listed in the parish bulletin for that entire month. You may offer flowers in honor of a living person for a special occasion or in memory of your loved one.

We hope this new format will allow more people to be able to participate each month and help beautify our new worship space even more. We will continue to have Easter and Christmas memorial collections as well. During Lent and Advent there will be no flowers in church.

If you have any questions or if you need assistance ordering, you may contact Theresa Dyer at 810-694-4891, ext. 2211, or tdyer@hfgb.org.

Our Catholic Heritage

by Earl Hagen

23rd Pope – Stephen I

Born in Rome, he was elected on May 12, 254. During his pontificate the struggle against the schismatic followers of the Antipope Novatian flared up again. The Christian church of Stephen's time was torn by a major schism over the treatment of the lapsi (Christian apostates who renounced their faith under persecution by Roman authorities) during Emperor Decius persecution of 250-251. The Catholic position was to grant communion to returning lapsi after due penance, while the Novatianists allowed the lapsi fellowship, but not communion. Stephen died a martyr and was beheaded, during a religious function, on his pontifical chair in the catacombs of St. Callixtus on August 2, 257.

Gospel Meditation

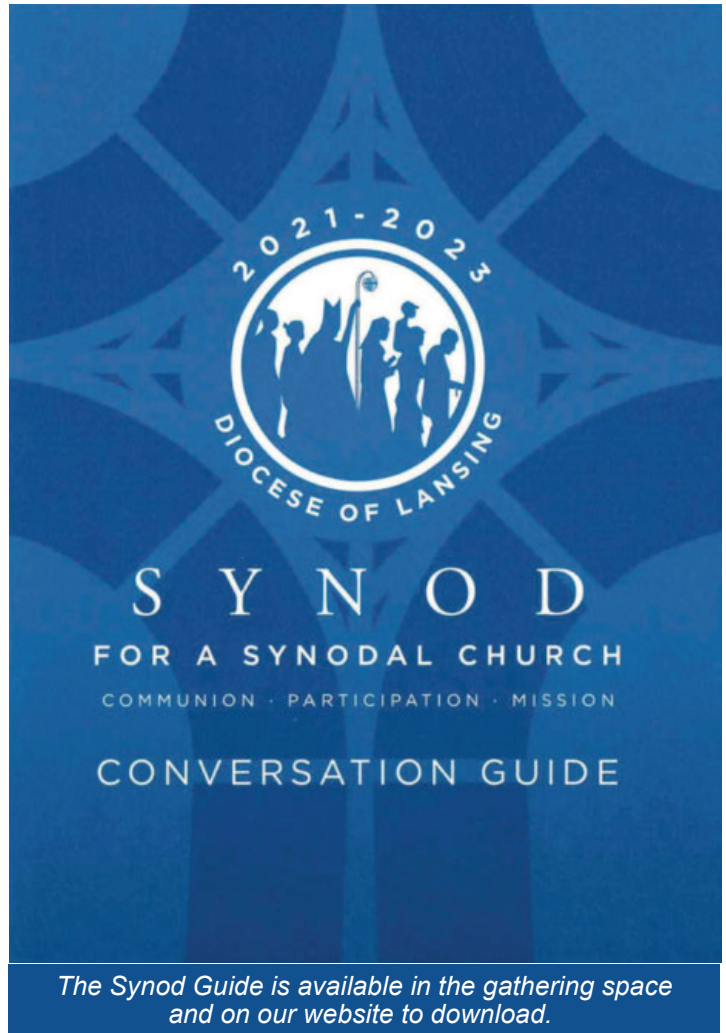

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

What we say and how we say it reveals the true intentions of our hearts. The content and manner of our speech is a window into the recesses of our souls. Our consciences, attitudes, sentiments, weaknesses, and motives are displayed. As much as we think we can hide the truth of our lives from others, we cannot. Who we really are is not only expressed on our lips but is written on our faces. Jesus says precisely this, "For every tree is known by its own fruit." What does the fruit of our lives say about us?

Because we like to play the game of hide and seek with ourselves, in pretending that we are hiding we deflect attention others may give to us by becoming more critical of others. After all, the more time one can spend analyzing others' behavior the less time one has to look at his or herself. Often, the behaviors we abhor most in others are the very ones we are guilty of ourselves. We just don't know it yet. The more we put ourselves in the role of a judge, the more satisfaction and control we seem to achieve. Yet, what about ourselves? In focusing our attention on the beams in others' eyes, the aridity and barrenness of our lives goes unchecked. St. Ambrose reminds us that "no one heals himself by wounding another." Bringing our brothers and sisters down by being overly critical, serves no positive purpose.

But the one who knows how easy it is to fall into sin and weakness and how quickly errors in judgment can be made, knows the depth of true compassion, mercy, and kindness. Having recognized our own poor choices, misguided opinions, negative emotions, and ability to do horrendous things, we can be more sympathetic and understanding of where others may be. We are designed to be mentors and guides to one another. In walking the journey together, we can help each other become the best we can be. Humility is the order of the day and the primary virtue that prevents us from being hypocrites.

March 3: St. Katharine Drexel

While on a European tour, she met Pope Leo XIII and asked him to send more missionaries to Wyoming for her friend Bishop James O'Connor. The pope replied, "Why don't you become a missionary?" His answer shocked her into considering new possibilities. Back home, Katharine visited the Dakotas, met the Sioux leader Red Cloud and began her systematic aid to Indian missions. By 1942, she had a system of black Catholic schools in 13 states, plus 40 mission centers and 23 rural schools. In all, she established 50 missions for Indians in 16 states. Her crowning achievement was the founding of Xavier University in New Orleans, the first Catholic university in the United States for African Americans.

Setting Captives Free

Living a discerning life according to St. Ignatius

St. Ignatius' eyes were opened "just a little" when the Lord taught him to pay attention to the stirrings within him. By focusing on becoming aware of these movements, St. Ignatius teaches us how to remove barriers to living our lives in close union with our Redeemer.

In this seven-week series we will learn to live a discerning life. For anyone already familiar with this teaching, the series will be an opportunity to deepen your understanding and apply it more fully in daily life.

Monday nights, 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm in the Father Harvey Activity Center, Grand Hall (St. John, Fenton)

February 28, March 7, 14 & 21, April 4 & 11

Book required: Discernment of Spirits: An Ignatian Guide to Everyday Living
