A Cup of Joe

Hello, beautiful family!

We are very close now to moving into the hall for the next 8-10 months. As I typed last week, this is going to require a lot from us and I continue to pray that we are patient, loving and grateful for this process of transition.

I have some news that I hope will help us sort through it all and get started. Please read this over and help people who don't read the bulletin.

During the renovations, weekend Masses will be celebrated in the large hall in the Fr. Bush Parish Center. The set-up will be the same as we have used for Christmas Eve Mass in the hall for the past several years, but with the musicians positioned on the stage.

The large hall will typically be set up on Saturdays, after morning Mass, and will remain set up until after the Monday morning all-school Mass.

The small hall will become the day chapel and this is where the daily Masses will be prayed and Eucharistic Adoration will be offered on Wednesdays.

The small hall chapel is where the tabernacle, the baptismal font, the vigil candles, and the confessionals will be located.

The temporary sacristy will be located in the current football locker room.

We could really use some help on Sunday, August 25th. Our last Mass in the current Church will be at 5:30 p.m. that day.

Following this Mass, we would love to have every person able to help us move things from the Church proper to our hall. It's a lot to carry, but if we all work together, we can get it done quickly and well.

I have to tell you, I've seen the hall and it is amazing. The dark, dingy ceiling tiles are replaced by beautiful white ones and our new lights absolutely brighten the area. We have some nice wall panels to offset the brick and a new sound system with new speakers and microphones. We accomplished all this and more under our budget: Praise God!

I know this is not the first time you've been told we are going to have a new Church and I am touched by your support of this effort. The day is finally coming when we will set the stage for future generations to worship God in a strong, well-constructed Church, all thanks to you. May God bless our efforts and keep us confident in His providence.

Last Masses in the Church

Join us at any Mass the weekend of August 24/25th where prayers and petitions will be offered to say goodbye to that worship space.

Our final Mass in the church will be at 5:30 p.m.

For those of you who are able, please consider helping us carry things from the church to the hall after the 5:30 p.m. Mass.

Mass Time Changes - Next Weekend

Our seasonal Sunday evening Mass will be changing to winter time earlier this year due to our anticipated move to Mass in the hall. On Sunday, August 25th, our evening Mass will be at 5:30 p.m. Please note that we are switching to 5:30 p.m., not 5 p.m. as in the past. This Mass time will remain until around Memorial Day 2020.

Also, our 6:30 p.m. Wednesday evening Mass will change to 5:30 p.m. starting Wednesday, August 28th. This change is a result of our recent survey of parishioners regarding weekday Mass times. Thank you to everyone who gave us feedback.

What's Happening Here

Help Needed Setting Up Mass

We are looking for organizations or groups to commit to a Saturday a month to do setup of the large hall for Mass (between 8:30 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.). The 3rd Saturday is covered by the Knights and any 5th Saturdays are covered by staff. Help is needed for the 1st, 2nd and 4th Saturdays of the month for approximately ten months.

Please contact Carrie Pilarski cpilarski@hfgb.org to offer your group's help.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Prince of Peace wants to set the world on fire? This Sunday's Gospel can sound more intense than what we may be accustomed to. It's a passage of contradictions. Jesus so clearly prays for unity, yet here he speaks of division. Why would our God who comes as an offering of love speak so frankly about causing relationships to be torn apart?

The sobering truth is that Jesus is divisive. We see this throughout the Gospels, as the Pharisees critique him, the Romans condemn him, and not everyone in the crowd is enthusiastic about his words. Jesus has not come for the purpose of dividing, but what he does is so radical that it upends the status quo. And it doesn't end with his preaching and miracles! "There is a baptism with which I must be baptized." Jesus isn't talking about his baptism at the Jordan River, which has already occurred, but the passing through the waters of death on the Cross and rising again to new life in the resurrection. This is divisive stuff! Christ's spiritual fire turned the "fathers" - the Jewish people and Pharisees - against the "sons" - the common people. Not everyone wants the Gospel Jesus is preaching. Not everyone wants to be set on fire with the desire to love others. Some prefer to put on a warm sweater and curl up in front of the TV.

In living and loving as Jesus did, we, too, might ruffle some feathers. In disciplining our teenage child for sneaking out, we may cause some division (temporarily, we hope!). In standing up to gossip and the spread of cruel rumors in our workplace, we might cause division. In emphasizing the dignity of both the desperate mother and the unborn child, we might cause division. Not everyone wants the Gospel Jesus is preaching. Not everyone wants the Gospel we are invited to live. But that's no excuse not to live it.
