GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18

The LORD is a God of justice, who knows no favorites.

Though not unduly partial toward the weak, yet he hears the cry of the oppressed.

The Lord is not deaf to the wail of the orphan, nor to the widow when she pours out her complaint.

The one who serves God willingly is heard; his petition reaches the heavens.

The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds; it does not rest till it reaches its goal, nor will it withdraw till the Most High responds, judges justly and affirms the right, and the Lord will not delay.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Psalm 34: The Cry of the Poor

SECOND READING: 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

Beloved:
 I am already being poured out like a libation, and the time of my departure is at hand.
 I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith.
 From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance.
 At my first defense no one appeared on my behalf, but everyone deserted me.
 May it not be held against them!
 But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the proclamation might be completed and all the Gentiles might hear it.
 And I was rescued from the lion's mouth.
 The Lord will rescue me from every evil threat and will bring me safe to his heavenly kingdom.
 To him be glory forever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL: Luke 18: 9-14

Jesus addressed this parable to those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else.
 "Two people went up to the temple area to pray; one was a Pharisee and the other was a tax collector.
 The Pharisee took up his position and spoke this prayer to himself, 'O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity -- greedy, dishonest, adulterous -- or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, and I pay tithes on my whole income.'
 But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.'
 I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

CREED

I Believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(All bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

YEAR OF PRAYER: Forming Missionary Disciples

Father, you invite each of us to share in the life and ministry of your Son, Jesus. Send your Holy Spirit to form our parish as a community of missionary disciples. Teach us how to hear Jesus, to love Jesus, and to share your gift of salvation with everyone we meet.

Through the witness and intercession of Mary, guide me to deepen my commitment as a disciple of Jesus. Lead our parish to grow as an intentional community, committed to go and announce the Gospel of the Lord. We ask these blessings in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

COMMUNION HYMNS:

10,000 Reasons (Bless the Lord)

10,000 Reasons (continued)

A Cup of Joe

Greetings in Christ, all! It was just a few years ago last Thursday that my Mom went to be with the Lord. Of course I am biased, but I think she was extraordinary. I worked for a while on a couple different ideas to share her with you, but in the end, it hit me that perhaps the best idea is to give you some parts of the homily I shared for her funeral.

I ask her to pray for us at St. Mark and Holy Family every day and I want you to know about the woman I believe is praying for us. So, without further ado, here are some portions of the homily I gave at my Mom's funeral.

She saw the Lord in it all...not just the beautiful baby giggling, but in the horrors and crucifixions of being a broken person in a broken world. I can't tell you what that meant and means to me to be loved and raised by a woman who saw the Lord in everything.

Mom loved Jesus. With every cell in her body, she loved God. Because of that, she loved us all with an intensity that is impossible to describe.

Her sincere conviction that God loved her put a steel in her heart that was absolutely, positively unbreakable. Because God loved her so deeply and because she loved Him back, she could weather any storm of gossip, hateful comments, neglect, trials or tribulations. In the words of Proverbs 31, she laughed at the days to come.

We, as a family were with her at the end and no kidding, Mom didn't just die, Mom was finished. Right after she took her last breath as we were looking at her tired, worn out body, my sister Laure pointed out it was perfect: Mom had used up every cell in her body. For 77 years Mom grabbed every moment that God offered her in life and she seized it: she laughed like no one else, she cried with intensity and a depth that would break your heart. She sang with gusto, she prayed with fire, she worked like a crazy woman and hugged you as if the world was ending. She traveled the world and gazed on wonder after wonder, meeting people and transforming them on every populated continent...I can't tell you what it was like to live with and around such a person.

It's hard not to give her resume. It's hard not to tell you the extraordinary things she accomplished: Every joy, every pain, every experience God threw at Mom...but that's not her. Her love for God and her trust in God's love for her is what is important and the best thing about her.

In the last days, I would hold her hand and whisper to her over and over saying "I am filled with gratitude for you." I was and I am. She Shined.

God bless you and thank you for letting me serve as your priest!

Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, US (AMS)

Next weekend our parish will take up the Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, US (AMS). Established by Saint John Paul II in 1985, the AMS is the only U.S. Diocese responsible for providing pastoral care to men and women serving in the U.S. Armed Forces, enrolled at a U.S. Military Academy, being treated as a patient at any of the 153 U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Centers, or working for the federal government beyond U.S. borders - including those from our own parish and diocese. Including families, AMS priests and deacons serve approximately 1.8 million Catholics who hail from 50 states and U.S. Territories. While the salaries and retirement of Catholic military chaplains are paid for by the U.S. Government, the AMS does not receive any funding from the government or military for program and administrative costs. To learn more about the AMS, go to www.milarch.org/nationalcollection. Please give generously. An envelope may be found in your packet or you may give online.

Thank You

A big THANK YOU to everyone (approximately 75 people) who braved the cold on Sunday, October 13th, at 4:00 pm to pray the Rosary in front of the Rectory on Saginaw Street! As the church bells loudly rang out, we joined together with the rest of the country in praying the Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary simultaneously with approximately 1200 Rosary Rallies! This was the 102nd anniversary of the Miracle of the Sun at Fatima and the 2nd annual Holy Family Rosary Coast to Coast!

Also a "Special" Thank you to Deacon Larry, his wife Linda, and many others who led the five decades of The Rosary that afternoon!

Hope to see everyone again next year in 2020!

Please continue praying the rosary each and every day as Our Blessed Mother wraps her Mantel around us, which is strengthening us under the outpouring of grace flowing through Her for guidance, support and resilience.

Help Needed Setting Up Mass

We are still looking for an organization, group, or individuals to commit to the 4th Saturday of the month to do setup of the large hall for Mass (between 8:30 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.). The other Saturdays are being covered. Help is needed just for the 4th Saturday of the month for the balance of the ten-month construction time.

Pushpay

Since April we have been in the process of transitioning our online-giving platform to Pushpay. This has replaced Our Sunday Visitor. It is our goal to get ALL recurring giving switched over in the next couple of weeks, so we need to get your scheduled gifts transitioned to the new platform. There are still some parishioners who need to make the switch or who have made the switch, but have not canceled their giving on Our Sunday Visitor. If you need assistance, please call the parish office.

Married Couples Weekend

Mission: Critical / December 6th - 8th
St. Francis Retreat Center / Diocese of Lansing

Why "Mission: Critical?"

Marriage continues to come under attack. Some would say the state of marriage is in critical condition. Healthy marriages provide much-needed stability to our families and communities. It is critical as husband and wife to understand our role in marriage and have a plan - A MISSION - for our lives together.

If the mission is critical, it needs time and attention to thrive. Join us for a celebration of marriage as we unpack Ephesians 5 and learn how our marriages are designed to be a shared mission. Through this shared mission, we become the image of Christ essential to our families and community.

The weekend includes a Renewal of Vows ceremony, vigil Mass, inspiring talks, ample time to unwind and reconnect with each other, cocktail reception, outstanding food, and a few added touches to make your weekend a true renewal of spirit!

Join us for fun, to relax, and to be inspired! It's our Mission - and it's Critical that we focus on it together! A great Christmas gift idea - Register now as space is limited!
