GLORIA

FIRST READING: Isaiah 60: 1-6

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you.
See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory.
Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance.
Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you: your sons come from afar, and your daughters in the arms of their nurses.

Then you shall be radiant at what you see, your heart shall throb and overflow, for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you, the wealth of nations shall be brought to you.
Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Psalm 72: Every Nation on Earth

Refrain

Ev - 'ry na - tion on earth will a - dore you, Lord;
ev - 'ry na - tion on earth will a - dore you, Lord.

SECOND READING: Ephesians 3: 2-3a, 5-6

Brothers and sisters:

You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation. It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

GOSPEL: Matthew 2:1-12

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews?"

We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage."

When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born.

They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet:

And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel."

Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance.

He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child.

When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage."

After their audience with the king they set out.

And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was.

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother.

They prostrated themselves and did him homage.

Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

CREED

I Believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(All bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

COMMUNION HYMNS:

Child of Mercy

Refrain: Child of mercy, child of peace, Jesus, Bread of life, food to fill our longing. Child of justice, child of light, Jesus, saving cup, Emmanuel, God with us.

1. All who walk in darkness have seen a great light, to those who dwell in fear, a light has shone!
2. A child is born to us, a son is given us, upon his shoulder glory rests!
3. We name him: "Wonder, couns'lor, hero, mighty God," The Holy One forever: Prince of peace!
4. We proclaim good news to you, great tidings of joy: To you is born a savior: Christ the Lord!

The First Nowell

1. The first Nowell, the angel did say, Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay; In fields where they lay keeping their sheep, On a cold winter's night that was so deep. Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Born is the King of Israel.
2. They looked up and saw a star Shining in the east, beyond them far, And to the earth it gave great light, And so it continued both day and night. Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Born is the King of Israel.
3. And by the light of that same star Three wise men came from country far; To seek for a king was their intent, And to follow the star wherever it went. Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Born is the King of Israel.
4. This star drew nigh to the northwest, O'er Bethlehem it took its rest; And there it did both stop and stay, Right over the place where Jesus lay. Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Born is the King of Israel.

5. Then entered in those wise men three, Full rev'rently upon their knee, And offered there, in his presence, Their gold and myrrh and frankincense. Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Born is the King of Israel.

6. Then let us all with one accord Sing praises to our heav'nly Lord; Who with the Father we adore And Spirit blest for evermore. Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Born is the King of Israel.

O Little Town of Bethlehem

1. O little town of Bethlehem, How still we see thee lie! Above thy deep and dreamless sleep The silent stars go by; Yet in the dark streets shineth The everlasting Light; The hopes and fear of all the years Are met in thee tonight.

2. For Christ is born of Mary, And gathered all above, While mortals sleep, the angels keep Their watch of wond'ring love, O morning stars, together Proclaim the holy birth! And praises sing to God the King, And peace to all on earth.

3. How silently, how silently, The wondrous gift is giv'n! So God imparts to human hearts The blessings of his heav'n. No ear may hear his coming, But in this world of sin, Where meek souls will receive him, still The dear Christ enters in.

4. O holy Child of Bethlehem! Descend to us we pray; Cast out our sin and enter in, Be born in us today. We hear the Christmas angels The great glad tidings tell; O come to us, abide with us, Our Lord Emmanuel!

A Cup of Joe

Happy and Holy Epiphany to all!

This week we are celebrating the Epiphany. Epiphany is a word from Koine Greek which translates "Striking Appearance" or "Manifestation." A few interesting points about The Feast of the Epiphany: Both Eastern and Western Catholics have celebrated this feast on this day since pretty early on: even before we settled on a date for Christmas.

In the East, this celebration tended to be about the whole beginning of Christ's life: His birth, the Magi, finding in the temple...everything in His life up to the wedding at Cana!

For us Western Christians, we tend to focus on the Magi coming to Jesus as a child and acknowledging Him. This is so important because it was our first signal from God that He was/is opening up salvation and relationship with Him to Gentiles (non Jews). We thank God for His love and light, which draws all of us to Him!

I want to thank you with all my heart for your amazing generosity this Christmas. I am truly touched by the many cards, the food and gifts...I always tell people that I'm a fat happy priest and you all are making every element of that statement possible! God bless you for your generosity...I love being your priest!

Healing in Jesus' Name

The Apostles were given authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every infirmity. Mt. 10:1

Do you have physical, emotional, spiritual hurts?
Would you like prayer for healings?

Our goal is to connect you with Jesus and allow Him to lead you into healing, freedom and wholeness.

Prayer ministers in this ministry are not therapists or counselors, simply people who have received healing graces themselves and have been trained how to pray with others for healing.

Prayers for physical healing are offered after Masses on the first weekend of the month - or by appointment. Inner healing prayer sessions are by appointment only.

To make an appointment: hfgb.org

For information, contact Dcn. Larry & Linda Blondin at lblondinhfgb.org or (810) 694-4891, ext. 2254.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

The Epiphany of the Lord

We may walk many roads when we search for God, and He leads us all the while. The men we honor today were not Jews. The Messiah wasn't coming for them, not in the minds of Jesus' contemporaries. These men were astrologers. They were adept at reading portents in the sky, a practice condemned in the Mosaic covenant. Still, to the best of their knowledge and awareness, they were seeking the truth. This truth led them to journey from their own homeland to honor a king they'd never met, one they couldn't be sure truly existed. "We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." Who do you know seeks God so tenaciously?

"Magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem," the Gospel tells us. Who are the seekers in your own life? Maybe it's your cautiously curious co-worker, the neighbor who unexpectedly found peace on a yoga retreat, or your desperately angry child who has chosen, for now, to go their own way. Perhaps they're not overtly headed for Jesus now, not yet. But they may well be seekers of truth in ways we didn't expect. Our invitation is to listen, inquire, and give directions when appropriate.

The magi and modern-day seekers can inspire us as well. When is the last time you sought God's truth so tenaciously? As believers, it can perhaps be easy to become desensitized to the Christmas season and to the miraculous reality we recently celebrated. Mass may have been lovely, but so was the succulent roast beef, the crisp smell of evergreen, and the warm glow of family. Consider asking yourself, "God, do I know you as well as I should? Would I journey as far as the magi to meet You, if I could? Do I journey to meet You daily in prayer? What do those answers say about me, and about our relationship?" Perhaps we, like the magi, can once again be "overjoyed" at seeing the Light of the World.

New Beginnings

On December 16, 2019, our Holy Family grew by two. With the approval of their parents, in the presence of their classmates, godparents and teachers, HFS students Aden and Jessica were baptized into our Holy Church by Fr. Joe. It was a momentous occasion to see two of our students come forward and profess their faith and love for God and receive all of the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and First Eucharist). We are excited to continue to walk with them, and all of our students, through daily religion classes, weekly Mass, opportunity for monthly confession and adoration. Congratulations to Aden and Jessica! You are a shining example of our call to create and encourage Disciples of Christ.

Be a part of our Holy FAMILY!

Welcome. CRHP 2.0
There is More to Life

Hi! I'm Chuck Ward

"WELCOME" and "CRHP" - I have seen and heard these words and acronyms for a number of years at Holy Family parish. But I never understood what they were about. Last March I was invited to attend a "WELCOME" Weekend and after exhausting all the excuses I could think of, I decided to attend.

This was the beginning of a new journey for me with Jesus. One that I didn't expect, but I am grateful for the results. I met a group of men struggling with similar issues as I am. We shared some of life's twists and turns that allowed us to form a bond that opened my eyes to the love of Jesus Christ. I invite and highly recommend all the men of the parish to come and experience a "Welcome Weekend."

I look forward to welcoming you to the next

Hospital Policy

The hospitals are no longer able to release patient information (names and room numbers only) of Holy Family parishioners while in the hospital. They say this is a privacy issue and their new stance conforms with other area hospitals. We will only know if a parishioner is hospitalized if we're informed by the patient or family. Please call the parish office if you wish a visit and/or want to be placed on our prayer list. Thank you.

Any questions, call Nancy Repuyan (810) 444-8896.
