The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

A C U P O F J O E

Greetings in Christ, all! I wanted to be sure to remind you all that I offer Catechetical Sessions every week on the internet. On Wednesdays, I do a topic, on Thursdays, I interview a guest, and on Fridays, I answer questions. You can enjoy these on podcasts and/or YouTube by searching for "Joe In Black Ministries" on your favorite podcast provider or YouTube.com. We recently received word that our podcast is in the top 2-3% of podcasts! Praise God. We have a lot of fun and I think we learn a lot. If this sounds fun/helpful to you, don't hesitate to subscribe.

I hope you noticed our new St. Joseph and St. Mary statues... Praise God! They arrived on Tuesday morning and I think I was in my truck to pick them up within five minutes of the call! Haha

I thank God every day for Our Saints and the way their examples and prayer help us to be the men and women God made us to be.

As for the old St. Joseph and Mary statues, we are working on some plans to restore their color and have a display of numerous saints in our gathering space where the organ pipes currently are. We're not sure we're doing this, I just wanted to let you know what we are thinking.

We made some serious progress on the baptismal font as well. By the time you read this, the three bowls that comprise the majority of the font will be completed and now it's a matter of the woodwork and installation...Come, Holy Spirit! I can't wait until it's up.

So, some exciting things are coming together...all of this because you pray and sacrifice for our parish and school. With all of my heart, thank you.

In the love for Our Mother and St. Joseph,

Fjk

STEWARDSHIP & WORSHIP

“Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving.” This text from the Book of Psalms reminds us how we are to respond to the many gifts we have been given by God, and that greatest gift: the gift of his Son in the Holy Eucharist. In this year of Eucharistic Revival, let us be especially grateful for the Eucharist which in Greek literally means “to give thanks.” Many blessings from God call forth from us many thanks, even sacrificial thanks.

Our Diocesan Services Appeal is one such opportunity to give God thanks for his great gifts; for the work of the Church in our own lives and in lives across our diocese. We put DSA dollars to work right away to provide help and hope for those most in need to discover the saving love of Jesus.

Day after day, year after year, the Catholic Church - through our parishes, our Catholic Charities agencies, our Catholic schools, and dozens of other services and ministries - provides vital care and services to all Christ’s people in the Diocese of Lansing.

With the strength and nourishment given to us in the Holy Eucharist, let us “Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving” for the many blessings he has, and will bestow upon us!

Envelopes are available or you may donate online at www.dioceseoflansing.org/appeal. For assistance, please contact The Catholic Foundation (517) 253-8792.

Catholic Relief Services Collection

This collection next weekend provides funding for Catholic Relief Services, the USCCB Offices of International Justice and Peace, Migration and Refugee Services, and pastoral Care for Migrants and Refugees, relief work of the Holy Father, and the Catholic Legal Immigration Network.

An envelope may be found in your packet or you may choose to give online.

Easter Flowers

A nice way to remember or honor someone at Easter and help make our church beautiful, is with a donation to the Easter altar flowers.

The donations are also used throughout the year to beautify the church and gathering space. There are three ways you may participate:

- Flower memorial envelopes may be found on a table in the gathering space. These can be returned to the collection box or parish office.
- You may go online to donate under "Memorial Flowers" and then email your memorial names to Linda Doyle at ldoyle@hfgb.org.
- You may mail a check to the parish office with a paper including your names.

Please clearly print names. If you include a phone number, we can call if we have a question. For memorials to honor a living person, please write “living” after their name. All donations need to be submitted by Thursday, March 30th, to be listed in the Easter bulletin.

HOLY FAMILY SCHOOL

HFS LENTEN RETREAT

We had an amazing Lenten Retreat for all students, Preschool through 8th Grade. Mr. and Mrs. Babiasz, with the help of Mr. Cech, Powers High School Chaplain, Mr. Patrick Brennan, and some students from Powers Catholic, led our students on a day filled with Jesus. The younger students went on a Lenten Scavenger Hunt, journeying through Jesus' way of the cross. The older students had opportunities to challenge themselves and ask themselves if they are able to do things for the benefit of others. The students spent time in Adoration, praise and workshop, and had small group discussions about what they learned and reflected on their own experiences of a time when they chose purpose over preference. We learned that it's okay to recognize our feelings, but then ask God, "What is it that you want?" When you compare Lent's 40 days to a moment, it isn't that long. We need to notice, surrender our wants, and invite God in. We are not perfect, but we can have perfect moments.

77th Pope – Adeodatus II

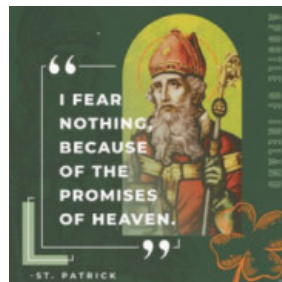

Born in Rome (sometimes called Deusdedit), a Benedictine monk whose pontificate was extremely obscure. He was elected April 11, 672. By the use of missionaries, he strove to bring about the conversion of the Maronites, a determined people of Armenian-Syrian origin. He was admired for his generosity and wealth of spirit. His reign was not of any religious or political importance and he disengaged himself from the events at the time surrounding Monothelism. His was a peaceful pontificate characterized by the weakening of Byzantine presence in Italy. He originated the term "Health and Apostolic Benediction" in his communications. Pope Adeodatus died June 17, 676, and is buried in the Vatican Grottoes.

Saint

March 17: St. Patrick

Details of his life are uncertain. Current research places his dates of birth and death a little later than earlier accounts. Patrick may have been born in Dunbarton, Scotland, Cumberland, England, or in northern Wales. He called himself both a Roman and a Briton. At 16 he and a large number of his father's slaves and vassals were captured by Irish raiders and sold as slaves in Ireland. Forced to work as a shepherd, he suffered greatly from hunger and cold. After six years Patrick escaped, probably to France, and later returned to Britain at the age of 22. His captivity had meant spiritual conversion. He may have studied at Lerins, off the French coast; he spent years at Auxerre, France, and was consecrated bishop at the age of 43. His great desire was to proclaim the Good News to the Irish.

Cenacle of Divine Mercy of St. Mary Cathedral

Excerpts from God in the Diary of Saint Sister Maria Faustina (Diary, 1520)

"I have opened My Heart as a living fountain of mercy. Let all souls draw life from it. Let them approach this sea of mercy with great trust. Sinners will attain justification, and the just will be confirmed in good. Whoever places his trust in My mercy will be filled with My divine peace at the hour of death."

2023 DSA Prayer

Loving and gracious God, we praise you and we thank you for the bountiful gifts that you have given us.

Let us turn to you ever more deeply in the true presence of the Eucharist and find new life in your sacrifice on the altar!

Inspire us to give of ourselves to DSA in service to you as a member of your Holy Catholic Church.

Bestow your many blessings on our humble labors so we may grow more united in sharing your love with all we encounter.

Amen.

FOLLOWING OUR FAITH

Gospel Meditation Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I became the pastor of a large parish, I soon found myself, for the first time in my life, riddled with anxiety, headaches, difficulty making decisions, and fatigue. I called a therapist friend and told her my symptoms and asked if she thought I needed a serious medical exam. She said, "How much water do you drink?" I told her, "I haven't had time to drink water lately." She responded, "You're chronically dehydrated. Drink eighty-five ounces a day and call me in a week." I started guzzling water and in a week all my symptoms went away. I felt great.

Like me, the people in the Exodus wanderings were dehydrated. But unlike me, they knew it. Their symptoms were bad. They fight with each other. They accuse God of being a monster who wants them and their children to die of thirst. Their thirst drives them to plot the bloody assassination of the man who rescued them. God responds by using Moses to strike a rock from which rivers of living waters flow to quench their thirst for years to come.

The Holy Spirit is the living water of love which flows from the pierced side of Jesus, the new Moses. What symptoms in your life suggest you're spiritually dehydrated? Anger at God? Cynicism at your leaders? Bitter rivalry and bickering with others? Don't panic. Of course we have those symptoms. Ask God to provide his water to quench your spiritual thirst, and he will. And all those symptoms will soon disappear.
