Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

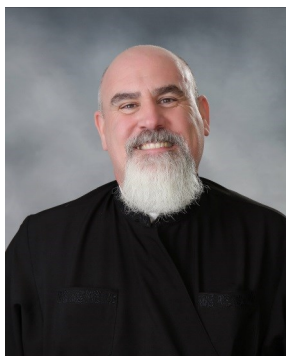

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A CUP OF JOE

Happy Easter, everyone! Jesus is risen from the dead! Death has no power over us, death has lost its sting. What a blessing to be a part of this amazing faith. What a joy to be loved so deeply by God. May every step we take, every word we speak and even the thoughts in our mind praise Him for saving us and making His victory our victory.

I'm so blessed by how many people joined our parish family this year. All over our diocese, and it appears all over our country, people were baptized and confirmed in numbers the Catholic Church hasn't seen in years. This is such a blessing for all of us. Please make sure the newest members of our family know how very much we love them.

A reminder to all of us that Easter is not a day, it is a season: 7 weeks of celebration. We will sing the Gloria once again at our Masses, and we will proclaim "Alleluia!" before we hear the words of Jesus. We also may, at some Masses, renew our baptismal vows and be sprinkled with holy water to remember our baptism...so many things to remind us that the challenge of Lent is over and we have entered the resurrection with Christ.

During the Easter season, Fr. Le and I will preach themed homilies like we did during Lent. We will walk everyone through each part of the Mass in our homilies to help us enter into Mass with more knowledge and more love. I'm quite excited about this and hope you find it helpful.

We are wrapping up an exceptionally challenging and blessed time, so the parish staff and I are going to go a bit easy this week. We'll just try to catch up on our rest and clear our minds a bit. Please be patient with us.

We have some wonderful news. Fr. Tom Nenneau often helps us out here at Holy Family. He has expressed a desire to be a part of our community in a more intentional way. For a lot of retired priests, this is what they long for; they spend their whole life connected to a parish and then find themselves without a community. Well, he loves this community, and we certainly love him. As a result, we should be seeing him pray with us more often. If you want to welcome him with a note or a hug or whatnot, I'm sure that would make him happy.

So...there we are! God bless you all. I'm so grateful to Jesus that I get to be your priest.

STEWARDSHIP & WORSHIP

Easter - Parish Office Hours

The parish office will be closed for Easter holiday on Holy Thursday afternoon, Good Friday and Easter Monday.

"YOU ARE MY CHOSEN
Witnesses"
Isaiah 43:10

Thank you to everyone who has made a gift or pledge commitment to our Diocesan Services Appeal. Our gifts to DSA enable our diocese to provide services crucial to our parish. The programs and services funded by DSA offer direct assistance to individuals and families, and to parishes, schools, and Catholic Charities agencies.

If you have not yet made a gift or a pledge, we invite you to do so today. Gift envelopes are available in church or the parish office. Or you may submit your gift online at www.dioceseoflansing.org/appeal. Your DSA gift will support the vital services and ministries that help bring the love of Christ to all we encounter.

Our parish goal is $196,318. No gift is too small... every dollar donated helps those in our parish and in our unified efforts in the wider church. Further, one-half of all paid contributions received, over and above our parish goal, will be returned for our local use here at Holy Family. We encourage every one of our parish households to reflect on how we can bear witness to our faith in Jesus Christ by supporting the work of the DSA this year.

Living Stations of the Cross

Our 8th-grade students led a powerful and moving reflection on the Passion of Christ. Through praying the Seven Sorrows Rosary (short form), a heartfelt Reader's Theater performance of A Way of the Cross, followed by a reverent presentation of the Living Stations of the Cross.

*He is Risen!
Alleluia!*

As we rejoice in the Resurrection of our Lord, the students and staff of Holy Family Catholic School send our heartfelt Easter blessings to our parish family. May the joy of the Risen Christ fill your hearts with peace, hope, and renewed faith.

Holy Family, believing that each student is a child of God, challenges each to embrace the Gospel message through the traditions of the Catholic faith, to achieve academic excellence and to grow as saints.

"Father Le on the Links" Golf Group

Attention: Male Golfers

Father Le and some of the senior male members of the parish are looking forward to another season of golf together. We are seeking other church members interested in joining us for the coming 2025 golf season.

This is an 18-hole, weekly game at a local course, for male members of both the Holy Family and St. Mark's Parish Communities. Each person is responsible for his own green fees and refreshments at the course. This will not be a "golf league," so there will be no requirement to play weekly. The group will play on Monday mornings beginning in early June and play throughout the summer until Labor Day Weekend. The primary nature of the group is for our parish community's men to meet, share fellowship, and share their faith's journey and passion for golf in a leisurely golf group, without regard to ability or established golf handicap.

If interested in participating, please forward an email, stating your name, mobile phone number, and preferred email address to John Yates at johnyates613@gmail.com. Specific details will be provided in May to those interested in golfing with the group.

Your attention, interest, and prompt reply are appreciated.

FOLLOWING OUR FAITH

Our Catholic Heritage

by Earl Hagen

187th Pope John XXI (1276-77)

Born around the year 1215 in Portugal. His birth name was Pedro Julião. His reign began on September 8th, 1276. At a young age, he went to the episcopal school of Lisbon Cathedral.

Eventually, he moved onto the University of Paris. He studied many subjects. He focused on medicine, theology, logic, and more. Considered to be one of the most scholarly Popes in history, he wrote several texts still used today.

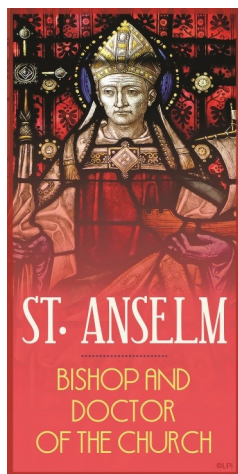

He was Archdeacon of Vermoim and attempted to become Bishop of Lisbon. Unfortunately, he was defeated. Eventually, he started working for Pope Gregory X as his personal physician. After that, Pope Gregory X made him Cardinal Bishop of Tusculum.

Around age 61, he was quickly elected pope due to the untimely death of two of his predecessors. He was the third pope to rule in a single year. Immediately, he went on to reverse a decree that restricted supplies and food while cardinals elected a new Pope. Other notable achievements during his brief tenure as Pope include the start of missions to Convert the Tatars, as well as maintaining peace between several Christian nations and attempting to launch a crusade into the Holy Land. Unfortunately, he was unable to see the outcome of those launches as he died. On May 14, 1277, while the pope was alone in his apartment, it collapsed; John was buried under the ruins, and died on May 20 in consequence of the serious injuries he had received. It was considered very mysterious circumstances.

Saint

April 21: St. Anselm

St. Anselm was born at Aosta in Piedmont in 1033. He entered the Benedictine Order at the monastery of Bec in France. While he quickly progressed in the spiritual life, he taught theology to his fellow students. He went to England where he was appointed archbishop of Canterbury. He fought vigorously for the freedom of the Church and for this he was twice exiled. He is known for his writings in philosophy and mystical theology. His definition of theology is "faith seeking understanding."

The Divine Plan -

THE POWER OF HOLY MOMENTS

There is a plant here on my desk. Its broad leaves are green, rich with nutrients, and they glimmer in the sun. It is flourishing. I can tell just by looking at it. It is bursting with life. My children are in the yard playing. I can hear their squeals of delight and feel their energy as I sit here writing. They are bursting with life. They are flourishing.

Plants and children do it effortlessly. Their natural instincts lead them to flourish. We adults need to relearn the art of flourishing. Holy Moments will teach us if we allow them to.

There is so much we have yet to learn about ourselves. The power you possess to create Holy Moments is a perfect example.
