The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. What's Happening Here

A Cup of Joe

Greetings in Christ, all! This bulletin article has a lot of important items in it. Please make sure to share it with parishioners who could use this info.

First thing: I am GEEKED about the upcoming festival. Please mark down your calendars for June 16-18. This is a big fundraiser for us and I would love for everyone to come by, sample the food, check out the music and just enjoy a good clean time together. We have a significant need for volunteers for a number of things. Would you please help? If you can, please call or email Genevieve at our office and find out what we need and what you can do. Her email is: gpsenski@hfgb.org.

Now, for the heavy stuff:

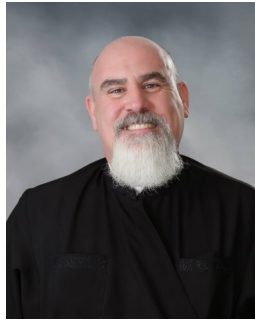

I'm asking us to remember that our Church is a sacred space. Please give people a quiet space to prepare for Mass. Let's do our socializing and chatting in the large gathering area and keep the noise in Church to a minimum. I'm one of the worst at this and need your help there too, so I feel particularly challenged on this topic. If you find yourself being driven to distraction before Mass, I think a good way to handle it is to kindly say "I'm sorry to interrupt, but would you mind heading to the gathering space?" Say that to me and I know to move! If someone says that to you, thank them and head over to the gathering space!

Finally, some very serious news. Last Friday I put a post on our Parish Facebook page for everyone, but it was too late for the bulletin. I will re-run it here with an update because a lot of what we worried about happened all over the country, though not here at Holy Family. So, here is my post, followed by an update:

Greetings in Christ, all!

I am typing this post for all Catholics who will be attending mass this weekend in the US. It's become clear through various posts on Facebook and alerts from law enforcement that there are groups organizing to disrupt Worship at Catholic Churches this weekend. They are planning on doing so in order to express their displeasure with the possibility that the Supreme Court may rule that abortion on demand is not a right guaranteed in the constitution. I've received a number of questions like "what will we do if they come to our Church?" and I would like to share my thoughts on this topic.

I would like us all to remember that, if such a thing happens here our highest priority is to imitate Christ and love those who persecute us, to pray for those who hate us and to serve those who think we are their enemy.

Already this week, numerous Catholic Churches around the country have been vandalized by folks such as these: the violence in their hearts is tragic. I beg you, do not engage with these folks in any way; do not try to reason with them and do not participate in any violence of any kind: those are their weapons.

Our weapon is love. We will do what Jesus did; love them, pray for them and make sure we never degrade our Sacred Space with violence. Our principle is simple: humans are sacred. Let's make sure our commitment to that principle is unwavering in the face of such wounded and angry people.

For those who come to worship God at the Parishes I serve, please know that we have plans in place should such a sorrow occur. It is our plan that your priests will acknowledge the presence of those who are attempting to violate our sacred time and then begin leading the congregation in prayer together until they go away or until the police arrive and remove them.

I recall the hateful antics of different groups that threw condoms at worshippers during and after priestly ordinations in Boston and other dioceses around the country in the late 80's, early 90's. I remember at my ordination, there were people carrying picket signs outside of the Cathedral, protesting all sorts of things about Catholics. I was so angry at these folks and wanted so desperately to show that anger but I have slowly and painfully learned that most times, venting anger is a bit like scratching an itch from poison ivy: it's a great feeling of relief for a second, but the long terms results only make it worse. The better thing for me was to pray for them and thank God that I was actually suffering because of love.

Most times that we suffer as a Church, it's because we earned it by our sin. This is a time we may be called to suffer because we love and value human life. I beg of you: show respect, love and tolerance for everyone, even those who have none for you. This is how we love like Jesus, who "while we hated him, loved us and offered his life for us."

God bless you all.

So, that was the article. Here is the update: I first want to point out that the Grand Blanc Police Department was amazing this last Sunday, keeping an eye on us and making sure we are safe. I am so grateful. We had no incidents or troubles.

This was not the case in many Catholic Churches this last weekend, as numerous Catholic Churches and Crisis Pregnancy Centers were vandalized; at least one with Molotov Cocktails.

Stewardship & Worship

Receive God's gifts gratefully - Cherish & tend to them responsibly -
Share them in justice & love - Return them to God

Each year the Diocesan Services Appeal (DSA) unites the people, the disciples, of all 72 parishes of our diocese, drawing us together to achieve far more than any individual or any single parish could accomplish alone.

Envelopes are available or you may donate online at www.dioceseoflansing.org/dsa. For assistance, please contact The Catholic Foundation (517) 253-8792.

As of May 5, Holy Family's DSA pledges were at $128,906 (66.5% of goal) with 292 donors (15% participation rate).

2022 DSA Prayer

*Loving and gracious God, we praise you and we thank you for the bountiful gifts that you have given us.
You have called us to discipleship. Enkindle in our hearts a desire to share your love with one another.
Stir us to embrace the Diocesan Services Appeal as a way to put your Word into action through the good works of our Holy Catholic Church.
Please bless our efforts that, together, we may bring the Good News of Jesus Christ to all whom we encounter.*

Amen.

A Cup of Joe (continued)

- In Katy, Texas, someone stole the tabernacle.
- St. John XXIII parish in Fort Collins, Colorado was vandalized with graffiti.
- St. James Cathedral in Seattle, Washington was the victim of a mob attempting to enter Church.
- These are just a few of what was a minor trend last weekend.

"Ruth Sent Us," a pro-abortion activist group, responded to the news of these and other incidents by posting the following message on social media:

"Stuff your rosaries and your weaponized prayer. We will remain outraged after this weekend, so keep praying. We'll be burning the Eucharist to show our disgust for the abuse Catholic Churches have condoned for centuries."

I tell you these things because I assume this is our new reality: people who do not respect the sanctity of human life will certainly not respect the sanctity of worship or houses of prayer. We will love them and pray for them as Jesus taught us.

My big concern was that I received a few messages from Catholics who told me they stayed away from Church out of fear. Do not give in to fear. Do not let anyone keep you from your Christian duty. We pray and we love and no amount of fear tactics can or will ever keep us from that. We will stay vigilant and stay with our plan, all the while working with the police to ensure that as much as is humanly possible, we will be safe.

Thank you for your time and attention. Thank you for your dedication to the dignity of every human being. Thank you for letting me serve you. Words cannot express how honored I am to be your priest.

Our Catholic Heritage

34th Pope – Mark

Born in Rome, elected on January 18, 336. He is attributed with the decision that the Bishop of Ostia will consecrate the Pope, as well as the creation of the first calendar listing all of the religious holidays. He introduced the first "Pallio" (white woolen stole) which is still in use today, woven with blessed white lamb's wool and adorned with black crosses. Mark died on October 7th, 336, and was buried in the Catacomb of Balbina which was allegedly a creation of Mark.

Following Our Faith

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

"It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the Kingdom of God." Many folks really work very hard to circumvent difficult situations. We prefer the easier way around something, rather than risk inconvenience, hurt or prolonged suffering. It's no wonder euthanasia is rapidly becoming acceptable around the world. Through purely human eyes, there is no issue bypassing the inevitable, taking control and bringing things more swiftly to a place of peace. If this is the way God sees things, then why does Jesus make such a big deal helping us understand the experience of suffering and embrace it? God's wisdom clearly takes us in another direction.

Imagine if we were able to eradicate ALL hardship and suffering. Where would we be? As we look at our own journeys, many of our solid more growth-producing life lessons have been born of suffering, disappointment, inconvenience, darkness, and despair. There is something sacred about all of these experiences as God uses them to create something new. Envisioning a life without hardship and suffering brings us to a vision where everything is flat-lined and dull. As much as hardship and suffering are difficult crosses to bear, not taking them up runs the risk of us becoming shallow, empty, and lifeless. Helen Keller remarks that, "a happy life consists not in the absence but in the mastery of hardships." What an incredibly wise insight! Many really successful people and saints were brought to their station in life because they suffered. Suffering teaches us about what's important and propels us to search the depths of our souls for resources and strength we never would have known before.

This is especially true when we love as Jesus asks us to love. Love, perhaps above any other experience, can cause us great hardship, pain, and suffering especially when it's authentic and unconditional. While it can thrust us into an incredible experience of God and life on one hand, it can bruise and wound us deeply on the other. Mastering the art of love is the secret to living life well, walking in the presence of God and investing in the joy of the Gospel. Love and suffering walk hand in hand. Compromising one will compromise the other. Maybe that's why Jesus spent so much time convincing us to accept both.

A Heartfelt Prayer for Teachers

*Lord, please bless all teachers.
Those who serve in public schools,
in private schools, through homeschooling,
and those who teach Your Word
in weekly church school classes.*

*All have chosen the paths
for which they feel they are best suited.
All have chosen the paths they feel will best serve those they endeavor to teach.*

Guide their feet that they may not stumble or lose the way, lest those following after lose sight of the goal and settle for a little knowledge when much is needed.

*Help them instill in young hearts and minds seeds of greatness, seeds of honor,
seeds of compassion, seeds of tolerance,
seeds of courage to stand for what is right
and denounce the wrong,
no matter how high the cost may be for speaking out.*

*Lord, please bless all teachers.
You have given them
the responsibility of training those who must grasp the future.
May it not be with uncertain hands, but with confidence.
May those You have called to point the way
first learn it from Thee.*

Amen

May 15: St. Isidore

St. Isidore was born in Madrid, Spain, and was a farm laborer for his entire life. He married a poor girl who was as holy as himself. After their one son died in infancy, they lived the rest of their married lives in perfect chastity. Isidore was a man of intense prayer and his life was marked by numerous miracles and supernatural interventions. Both he and his wife are venerated as saints. He was formally canonized in 1622 along with St. Teresa of Avila, St. Ignatius, and St. Philip Neri. The body of St. Isidore is still intact.
