THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

If the COVID-19 situation across our part of Michigan continues to improve, it is my intention to lift the dispensation from attending Sunday Mass as of Pentecost, May 22-23, 2021. The dispensation remains in place, of course, for those who have serious reasons not to attend.

To welcome you and your loved ones back to Sunday Mass, I am sending each family in the diocese a blessed candle representing, as it does, the Light of the World, Jesus Christ. I am also sending you a prayer card to help you pray with the candle in the eight days following Pentecost. Veni Sancte Spiritus! Come Holy Spirit!

Assuring you of my prayers, I am sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Earl
Bishop of Lansing

Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord

ENTRANCE HYMN

Hail the Day That Sees Him Rise

1. Hail the day that sees him rise, Alleluia! To his throne above the skies; Alleluia! Christ, the Lamb for sinners giv'n, Alleluia! Now ascends the highest heav'n. Alleluia!

2. There the glorious triumph waits; Alleluia! Lift your heads, eternal gates; Alleluia! Christ has conquered death and sin; Alleluia! Take the King of glory in! Alleluia!

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: Acts 1:1-11

In the first book, Theophilus, I dealt with all that Jesus did and taught until the day he was taken up, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. He presented himself alive to them by many proofs after he had suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. While meeting with them, he enjoined them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for "the promise of the Father about which you have heard me speak; for John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit."

When they had gathered together they asked him, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?" He answered them, "It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." When he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight. While they were looking intently at the sky as he was going, suddenly two men dressed in white garments stood beside them. They said, "Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 47

God mounts his throne to shouts of joy! God mounts his throne to shouts of joy, joy, joy! God mounts his throne.

SECOND READING: Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-13

Brothers and sisters, I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the calling you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all. But grace was given to each of us according to the measure of Christ's gift. And he gave some as apostles, others as prophets, others as evangelists, others as pastors and teachers, to equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of faith and knowledge of the Son of God, to mature to manhood, to the extent of the full stature of Christ.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL: Mark 16:15-20

Jesus said to his disciples: "Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved; whoever does not believe will be condemned. These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will drive out demons, they will speak new languages. They will pick up serpents with their hands, and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not harm them. They will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

So then the Lord Jesus, after he spoke to them, was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God. But they went forth and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the word through accompanying signs.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL PRAYER

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

What's Happening Here

A Cup of Joe

Greetings in Christ, all!

I have some very big news. Please read this over and share as you see appropriate.

Next weekend is Pentecost and, beyond what that usually means (we'll get to that), it means something new and different this year: the diocese is ending the dispensation from attending Mass and the state is relaxing some of the restrictions that we have joyfully labored under for the last 16 months or so.

What will this look like?

Well, first, hopefully it means people who haven't been going to Church will return. If you have friends or family who have stayed away, now is a good time to invite them to come back with you. Go to breakfast with them afterward if you want!

At our Church we will be taking down the ropes and opening up all the pews. That really is the biggest difference. Beyond that we'll ask people to wear masks like we have been and we who distribute the Eucharist will continue to purify assiduously during distribution and before.

We will not be reinstating the Sign of Peace and we will more or less continue to do music as we have, though obviously we will want everyone to sing who has not been singing out of fear of spreading the virus.

Please, please, please, if you have a fever or are showing signs of sickness, stay home and pray for us and know we will pray for you.

We will continue to livestream Mass every day for our digital parish and for those who cannot attend in person, either regularly or occasionally.

During the last few months, we have been offering a place in our hall for those who want to come to Mass but need a smaller, more controlled space to be safe. What I am looking for from you is whether or not you would still like us to do so. Since we are opening up our hall too, it will mean that we will have to move it to the "small hall" instead of the big one, as the big one will be in use for other things throughout the week.

If you have an opinion on whether or not you would like to continue to use the hall as a place for the vulnerable who still want to feel safe, please email us at holyfamily@hfgb.org and let us know. The fact is, the number of people going down there for Mass has become much smaller and we don't want to continue the practice if we don't need to. At the same time, if you need that option, please let us know so we can serve you well.

I'm so glad for this newest step in the return to normalcy....let's celebrate this with great joy. Your faithfulness to The Mass has been a fuel that keeps me going during difficult times. I am simply blown away that I get to be your priest.

Next week we celebrate the Birthday of the Church: Pentecost Sunday. This is the day when God sent His Holy Spirit upon the disciples, who then took the Gospel to the world. This Spirit is given to you and me in our baptism and it is strengthened through the Sacrament of Confirmation. We'll talk about it during the homily in more detail.

God bless you all!

Church Flower Fund

Flowers are symbols of joy that serve the purpose of reminding us of God's creation and the beauty of his handiwork. Flowers also remind us of the spiritual life and the virtues we should acquire within our hearts.

In addition to the weekly Altar Memorial Flowers donated by parishioners, we have need of flowers to make the church more festive during Easter, Christmas and other solemnities throughout the year.

A nice way to remember someone and help make our church beautiful all year long is with a donation to our Church Flower Fund. Flower Memorial envelopes will be available in the church gathering space. Please clearly print names on the front of the envelope and put it in the collection (or bring it in to the parish office), along with your donation by Friday, May 21st, to be listed in the Memorial Day weekend bulletin. You may also place it in the drop box outside the parish office door. Or you may choose to donate online (choose Memorial Flowers from drop down menu) and email your names to Linda Doyle, ldoyle@hfgb.org. Any received after the deadline will be published in the following week's bulletin.

Take care - see you in church.

Thank you to everyone who has made a gift or pledge commitment to our Diocesan Services Appeal. Our gifts to DSA enable our diocese to provide services crucial to our parish. The programs and services funded by DSA offer direct assistance to individuals and families, and to parishes, schools, and Catholic Charities agencies. "Every good work" of the Church occurs through dozens of ongoing ministries made possible by our contributions to DSA.

As of May 6, we have 300 participants, who have given $133,867 which is 67.2% of our goal! If you have not made a gift or a pledge, we invite you to do so today. Gift envelopes are available in church or the parish office. Or you may submit your gift online at www.dioceseoflansing.org/dsa. Your DSA gift will support the vital services and ministries that help bring the love of Christ to all we encounter.
