You Are My All in All #2081

Closing Hymn

Hail Mary: Gentle Woman #889

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

Readings #1122

First Reading:
Exodus 19:2-6a

Second Reading:
Romans 5:6-11

Gospel:
Matthew 9:36-10:8

St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Greetings in Christ, all! This weekend the noon Mass is for my 25th anniversary of ordination... can you believe it? I'm so grateful to Jesus that I get to be here and St. Mark. I love this assignment and thank Jesus every day for you. I have a write-up in a program for that Mass that will be available on our parish facebook page. I wrote a letter and a little biography in there for you all if you want to look at it.

Now, I gotta type up a tough thing and I hate doing it, but it seems clear I have to. Please bear with me. As you know, this weekend we had to have two communion services. When we replace a Sunday Mass with a Communion Service led by a Deacon, attending such a service fulfills your Sunday obligation. Why? Because the Church recognizes that this is the reality we have as a Church now. We do not have sufficient priests to cover the amount of people who come to Masses.

First things first: I am so grateful for the response that a vast majority of you have chosen: being understanding and supportive of moments like these. I am so grateful. It's hard to not feel like a failure when we aren't able to meet all the needs asked of us and your loving response makes it all so much better. Fr. Le and I are grateful. I have to type the rest of this article now, not for you to change, but perhaps to give you information you might need in case others come to you about this whole situation.

This last week we fielded a number of calls about Priestless Sundays and I have to admit that I'm saddened by the tone some have chosen. You can trust that I take replacing a Mass with a Communion Service very, very seriously. To ask if we've called other priests is objectively a strange thing to ask. Of course we did. In the case of this weekend, we called dozens of priests months ago when we saw how the schedule was shaking out. Beyond this, we received some calls from parishioners who interrogated the volunteers who answered about Fr. Le's schedule and my schedule: "Where are they that they aren't praying Mass?" I personally was interrogated in the same way. To be blunt, that's offensive. You can safely assume that we are not sitting home when we should be praying Mass. If you do not believe you can safely assume that, it might be good to find another parish where you trust the priest. Or, you can contact my Bishop and let him know that you believe Fr. Le and I do not take Mass seriously. To those who expressed anger about this or said we were lying about calling priests, I ask you "What have you done in your lifetime to encourage young men to become priests? What have you done to encourage your sons to consider priesthood?"

The facts are this: as Catholics in the US, a vast majority have chosen a way of life that does not create priests. A vast majority of Catholics focus on faith when we need something, but not when it interferes in sports, social or academic concerns. A fruit of that is that fewer young men are praying about or seeking to become priests. The numbers are daunting and the crisis in priesthood in the US is only beginning. I am not exaggerating when I tell you it's going to get much worse.

I do not type these things to frighten you or to complain. I type this so you know reality and work at accepting it. I don't like this reality any more than you. Doing a communion service instead of Mass makes me physically ill, but Fr. Le and I are giving all we can, I promise you. Please pray about what I've typed here. Please pray for Fr. Le and me. Please pray that Jesus sends us more priests.

I love you all. I promise you that it would not occur to me to not give you all I am in pursuit of He who gave His all for us.

91st Pope – Zachary

Born in Calabria, he was elected pope on December 10, 741. This was the last pope of the Byzantine Papacy. He strongly opposed Rachis, Duke of Friuli and King of the Lombards, who wanted to occupy all Italy. Rachis later recanted his ambitions and became a monk. Zachary then negotiated peace with the Lombards, managing to reconcile with Liutprand, while stipulating a 20-year truce. Zachary built the original church of Santa Maria Sopra Minerva and forbade the traffic of slaves in Rome. After the death of King Charles, he consecrated Pepin the Short as King of the Franks. This was the first investiture of a sovereign by a Roman pontiff. Zachary died on March 15, 752.

Is God Calling You to Join the Secular Franciscan Order?

The "Secular Franciscan Order," once known as the Third Order of St. Francis of Assisi, is an official order within the Catholic Church. It was established by St. Francis of Assisi in the 13th Century for men and women living in the world to follow the Gospel Life in the footsteps of St. Francis.

We are lay men and women, Diocesan priests and deacons who, after a period of discernment, make a promise, to follow a Rule of Life approved by Pope Paul VI in 1978.

We are Catholics, single or married - mothers, fathers, sisters, brothers, sons and daughters. We pray, study, and strive to experience ongoing daily conversion by being faithful to the Gospel.

We strive to achieve "perfect charity" using our talents and resources to help the poor, the oppressed, and outcast and the helpless. We hope to achieve "Justice, Peace, and the Integrity of all Creation."

We meet in the St. Joseph Center every third Saturday of the month (July 15) from 10 am - 12 pm. Please contact Reggie Boerger reggieboerger@gmail.com / (248) 892-5266 with any questions.

Father's Day Blessing

Single fathers usually sit in the back row of their children's school performances. Fathers who are married usually sit as close to the front of the audiences, with their spouses. Why is this?

Well, we all know how important mothers are to the well-being of a family. However, we as a culture look at single fathers with a bit of suspicion. Fathers are as important as mothers are, but offer a different perspective on life and bring a much needed role in bringing up children. Let us welcome all fathers today to the front row of our lives and acknowledge how important they have been, and continue to be in our lives.

Let us pray...

*Gracious God and Father, our first father,
You are the One who has brought us to life in this world you created.
You created us and everything around us.
We turned away from you and only after disappointing you did we return your love.*

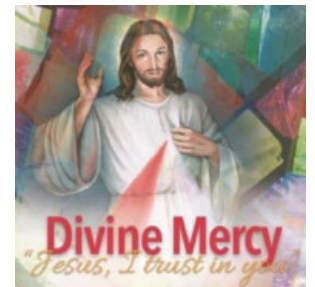

*Look with favor on our earthly fathers.
They helped create us in your image.
We have disappointed them,
but have come to realize just how important they are to us.*

*Bless all our fathers, living and deceased, with comfort and health.
We bring all their needs to you and ask for strength so they may live worthy lives.*

*We ask all this in the name of your Son,
our model of what it means to reverence our fathers.
In Christ's name.*

Amen.

Cenacle of Divine Mercy of St. Mary Cathedral Excerpts from God in the Diary of Saint Sister Maria Faustina (Diary, 1075)

"Souls who spread the honor of My mercy I shield through their entire lives as a tender mother her infant, and at the hour of death I will not be a Judge for them, but the Merciful Savior. At that last hour, a soul has nothing with which to defend itself except My mercy. Happy is the soul that during its lifetime immersed itself in the Fountain of Mercy, because justice will have no hold on it."

2023 Altar Flowers

Our web page for ordering Altar flowers is open! Please go to: <https://hfgbaltarflowers.pushpayevents.com/> Your $50 donation for your specific month will help us provide flowers at the altar and around the sanctuary to beautify our worship space. Your loved one's name will be listed in the parish bulletin for that entire month. You may offer flowers in honor of a living person for a special occasion or in memory of your loved one.

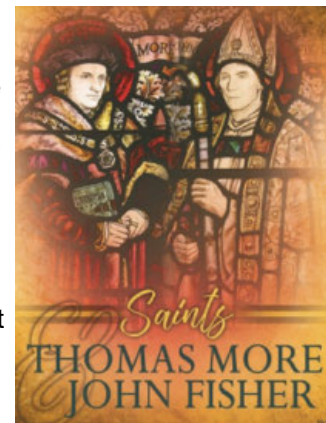

We will continue to have Easter and Christmas memorial collections as well. During Lent and Advent there will be no flowers in church.

If you have any questions or if you need assistance ordering, you may contact Theresa Dyer at 810-694-4891, ext. 2211, or tdyer@hfgb.org.

Saint

June 22: St. Paulinus of Nola, St. Thomas More, and St. John Fisher

St. Paulinus was born at Bordeaux in France in 355. He advanced in the service of the state, married and had a son. Desirous of an austere life, he received baptism and, having disposed of all worldly goods, began to live the monastic life in 393, at Nola in Campagna. He later was made bishop of that city and promoted the cult of St. Felix, assisted pilgrims and diligently alleviated the misfortunes of the day. He also composed poems remarkable for their fine language. St. Paulinus died in 431.

St. Thomas More was born in 1477 and was educated at Oxford. He married and had one son and three daughters. While Chancellor in the King's Court, he wrote works on the governance of the realm and in defense of the Faith. Both he and St. John Fisher were beheaded in 1535 by order of King Henry VIII, whom they had resisted in the matter of his divorce: John Fisher on June 22 and Thomas More on July 6. While detained in prison, Bishop Fisher was named a Cardinal by Pope Paul III.

St. John Fisher was born in 1469. After completing his theological studies at Cambridge in England, he was ordained to the priesthood. Appointed bishop of Rochester, he led a most austere life and fulfilled his pastoral role by frequently visiting the faithful. He also composed works against the errors of the time.

Traveling Prayer Chalice is Back!

We have been praying especially for an increase to vocations to the priesthood and religious life. We are continuing our efforts by introducing to you our Traveling Prayer Chalice for Vocations.

This is a special ministry that invites you to reserve a time to take home this special chalice, along with daily short prayers that will be prayed over the course of a week.

Join us... let's storm the heavens with our prayers for vocations.

2023 DSA Prayer

Loving and gracious God, we praise you and we thank you for the bountiful gifts that you have given us.

Let us turn to you ever more deeply in the true presence of the Eucharist and find new life in your sacrifice on the altar!

Inspire us to give of ourselves to DSA in service to you as a member of your Holy Catholic Church.

Bestow your many blessings on our humble labors so we may grow more united in sharing your love with all we encounter.

Amen.

Prayer for My Family

Gracious God, I pray now for my parents, and for all those who have positively influenced my life... for the happiness of good memories, and for the healing of sad memories... for the forgiveness of those who have wronged me, and for peace of heart with those to whom I did not or could not say "I'm sorry"...

For all the deceased members of my family, that in Your great mercy, Lord, You may forgive their sins and welcome them into eternal life...

For my relatives, friends, neighbors, coworkers and all who have assisted me throughout my life, in appreciation for the joys we have shared...

For my children and grandchildren and all other family members with whom I have experienced times both rewarding and challenging, and with whom I have shared events both painful and enriching...

For all those I know and love for whom I am presently anxious or concerned... for their health and well-being... for their return to the Sacraments... for those who are ill and in need of healing... for those who are out of school or unemployed... for those who are burdened with worries, fears, disappointments or addictions...

In Your great mercy, Lord, hear my prayers and grant my petitions for peace of mind and heart, for all in need of Your blessings, compassion, wisdom and saving grace.

Amen.

Mission Statement

We, the Church of the Holy Family, are united in the invitation to the wonder of a personal encounter with the risen Christ. Through sacraments, prayer and education we are compelled to serve, sacrifice and evangelize, forming a Catholic community of faith, hope and love.

Bulletin Deadline: The deadline for each Sunday is the previous Tuesday by noon. Articles may be submitted to
