

CHURCH OF THE HOLY FAMILY
A CARING CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

JULY 11, 2021

15TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

15th SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

ENTRANCE HYMN

Lord, You Give the Great Commission

1. Lord, you give the great commission: "Heal the sick and preach the word." Lest the Church neglect its mission And the Gospel go unheard, Help us witness to your purpose With renewed integrity; With the Spirit's gifts empow'r us For the work of ministry.

2. Lord, you call us to your service: "In my name baptize and teach." That the world may trust your promise, Life abundant meant for each, Give us all new fervor, draw us Closer in community; With the Spirit's gifts empow'r us For the work of ministry.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: Amos 7:12-15

Amaziah, priest of Bethel, said to Amos, "Off with you, visionary, flee to the land of Judah! There earn your bread by prophesying, but never again prophesy in Bethel; for it is the king's sanctuary and a royal temple." Amos answered Amaziah, "I was no prophet, nor have I belonged to a company of prophets; I was a shepherd and a dresser of sycamores. The LORD took me from following the flock, and said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 85

Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

SECOND READING: Ephesians 1:3-10

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him. In love he destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of his will, for the praise of the glory of God's grace that he granted us in the beloved.

In him we have redemption by his blood, the forgiveness of transgressions, in accord with the riches of his grace that he lavished upon us. In all wisdom and insight, he has made known to us the mystery of his will in accord with his favor that he set forth in him as a plan for the fullness of times, to sum up all things in Christ, in heaven and on earth.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL: Mark 6:7-13

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick— no food, no sack, no money in their belts. They were, however, to wear sandals but not a second tunic. He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them." So they went off and preached repentance. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

COMMUNION HYMNS

Here I Am, Lord

1. I, the Lord of sea and sky, I have heard my people cry. All who dwell in dark and sin My hand will save. I, who made the stars of night, I will make their darkness bright. Who will bear my light to them? Whom shall I send?

2. I, the Lord of snow and rain, I have borne my people's pain. I have wept for love of them. They turn away. I will break their hearts of stone, Give them hearts for love alone. I will speak my word to them. Whom shall I send?

3. I, the Lord of wind and flame, I will tend the poor and lame. I will set a feast for them. My hand will save. Finest bread I will provide Till their hearts be satisfied. I will give my life to them.
Whom shall I send?

Refrain: Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord? I have heard you calling in the night. I will go, Lord, if you lead me. I will hold your people in my heart.

Psalm 40: Here I am

Refrain: Here I am, Lord, here I am. I come to do your will.

1. Long was I waiting for God, and then he heard my cry. It was he who taught this song to me, a song of praise to God.

2. You asked me not for sacrifice, for slaughtered goats or lambs. No, my heart, you gave me ears to hear you, then I said, "Here I am."

3. You wrote it in the scrolls of law what you would have me do. Doing that is what has made me happy, your law is in my heart.

4. I spoke before your holy people, the good news that you save. Now you know that I will not be silent, I'll always sing your praise.

The Church of Christ

1. The Church of Christ, in ev'ry age Beset by change, but Spirit-led, Must claim and test its heritage And keep on rising from the dead.

2. Across the world, across the street, The victims of injustice cry For shelter and for bread to eat,
And never live until they die.

3. Then let the servant Church arise, A caring Church that longs to be A partner in Christ's sacrifice, And clothed in Christ's humanity.

4. For he alone, whose blood was shed, Can cure the fever in our blood, And teach us how to share our bread And feed the starving multitude.

5. We have no mission but to serve In full obedience to our Lord: To care for all, without reserve, And spread his liberating Word.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL PRAYER

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

CLOSING HYMN

Go Make of All Disciples

1. "Go make of all disciples." We hear the call, O Lord, That comes from you, our Father, In your eternal Word. Inspire our ways of learning Through earnest, fervent prayer, And let our daily living Reveal you ev'rywhere.

2. "Go make of all disciples," Baptizing in the name Of Father, Son, and Spirit — From age to age the same. We call each new disciple To follow you, O Lord, Redeeming soul and body By water and the Word.

A Cup of Joe

Update SIX

So, I've now shared five updates and this will be the last. It is my assumption that we are moving every week closer to functioning as normal, which will allow me to use the bulletin to keep everyone updated. In this article I want to talk to you all about the vision for our parish, the future and how I believe I can best serve you as your priest.

In terms of the vision of our parish, it is my sincerest hope that we form a Holy Family. I desire that each of us, through the work of the sacraments and the grace we find there, grow in holiness. It is by daily and transformative contact with Jesus that you and I find the strength and ability to be like Christ out in the world. We will be Christ to the world by our holiness, our obsessive care for the poor and vulnerable, and our willingness to sacrifice whatever is needed to help families who need help. It's that simple.

I'm not a big fan of trying to be a successful parish; I don't think business models or "efforts to grow our parish" are the key. I believe that the best thing we can do as a parish is be holy and let that do the work of "growing the parish" if it is God's Will.

I believe the best thing I can do is focus on those things only a priest can do: Mass, confessions, baptisms, etc. I am not a trained CEO, CFO or COO and the more I try to immerse myself in these roles, the less time I have to serve you in the manner God made me to. All of my training and all of my experience have taught me one simple, brutal truth: my highest priority as your priest is personal holiness. If I am not holy, I will fail you in ways that do lasting damage.

I absolutely must make sure I am praying faithfully every day. I need to go to confession at least once a month. I need to stay faithful to my sharing and accountability group of priests and I need to make sure to check in with my counselor regularly. I need to make sure I am keeping up on my readings and that I work hard on homilies. As a priest, I recognize that I am given too much power and I need to make sure I am giving as much of it away as possible so that I do not grow arrogant or into someone who is difficult to work with.

I need to recognize my limitations: I am not a professional counselor. I am not a spiritual director. Beyond what I am trained to do (sacraments), I recognize that I am a good teacher. I've taught a lot: high school and college and I've offered teaching opportunities here that people seem to enjoy. If I focus on these things, as well as the daily things that I am required to do business wise, that is a very, very full and life-giving week.

To be blunt, I also need you to recognize my limitations. My inability to serve as a counselor or spiritual director has caused some of you pain, but long, hard experience has taught me that the greater pain comes when I pretend I am capable of doing these things and then inevitably fail. I am a limited human in so many ways. Please keep that in mind.

In terms of the future, this is where we need to be brave, flexible and trust that God is at work. While it is true that a smaller percentage of Catholics participate in regular Church life than in the past, there are simply many more Catholics in this country than there ever have been. While they do not go to Mass regularly, they do expect us to offer their weddings, baptisms, funerals, etc. They still call us when they get sick or need help.

This need is tremendous and, at the same time, there has never been a bigger gap between the number of Catholics and the number of priests in our country. Priests are experiencing a tremendous amount of pressure and, frankly, burnout and health crisis are becoming an issue for a lot of my brothers.

Our future as a Church is going to be dictated by this reality: we will have fewer priests and more Catholics every year for some time. It is clear that the issue of declining number of priests versus rising numbers of Catholics in our country is not going to change soon. Even if we end up with a huge influx of seminarians next year, it takes ten years to make a priest.

I would imagine there will be monumental moves by the diocese to try to address this reality in the next year and I ask that you pray we respond well. Whatever the particulars of that response, one thing that seems clear to me is that priests will need to be hyper focused on the things they can do that no one else can and humbly hand off the rest to Lay Employees. For a lot of priests, it can be hard to find people that can afford the low wages that come with working for the Church, but we are blessed here with a great many competent and generous people who are working for us, knowing they could be making more money in the secular world. I hope and pray you honor them for that.

In the meantime, we will adapt to whatever reality God gives us because God is bigger than any of our circumstances. The Church absolutely experienced explosive growth when it was composed of nothing but 12 priests, all of whom happened to be saints. I will, by the grace of God, fight hard to be a saint. I am a sinner, I am broken, but I also know I am loved and empowered by God. As my mother often said "I do not know what the future holds, but I do know who holds the future."

I can't wait to see where Jesus takes us.

I love you all. I can't believe I get to be your priest.

Parish Prayers and more

A funeral Mass was celebrated at Holy Family on June 24 for

Rest in Peace

Greg Gildner. Greg, age 76, died on Friday, June 18, 2021. He was born May 31, 1945, in Burton to Theodore Gildner and Jean Schostak. Greg married Janet Kulick in 1965. Surviving are his wife, children Grant and Jennifer (Robert) Goscicki, four grandchildren, and a brother. He was predeceased by his parents and a sister.

A funeral service was held at Swartz Funeral Home on July 7 for Robert Bandy. Robert, age 86, died on Thursday, June 24, 2021. He was born in Flint on October 23, 1934, to Orville and Gertrude Bandy. Surviving are children Debra (Rodney) Blaisdell, Robin (Jeff) Schneider, Sally (Steve) Ferguson and Thomas, as well as nine grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and two sisters. He was preceded in death by his parents and two children.

Lord, we remember in our prayers Greg Gildner and Robert Bandy, whom you have called to be with you. May the calming peace of your love be with their families. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. Amen.

In Loving Memory

Please pray for the following Holy Family parishioners who died on these dates:

Please remember in prayer those listed in the July 4 bulletin and those listed in the Parish Book of Intercessions (in the Gathering Space).

Eucharistic Ministers Needed for Nursing Homes

We are in need of some volunteers to take communion to nursing facilities on the regular basis of once a month, approximately an hour. This would be on Sunday or Wednesday, your preference. If you're not a Eucharistic Minister, you can become one. You'll be sent with a current EM until you're comfortable with the communion service and/or bedside communion.

Besides the gratitude of the residents, you will receive heartwarming grace for ministering to God's people.

Any questions, call Nancy Repuyan (810) 444-8896.

Parish Office Hours

Consumers Energy is now having premium energy pricing for the hours of 2-7 p.m. This increase will last from now through September. As a result, we will be closed those hours, except for the church. Doing this will represent a significant money savings for our parish. Evening activities or meetings will begin at 7 p.m. Our staff will work from home, as they have been so faithfully during the quarantine. The parish office will be open 8 a.m. - 2 p.m. M-F.

Outreach Need

Outreach is currently in need of certain condiments: ketchup, mustard and mayonnaise. Food items may be dropped off at Outreach Mon-Fri between 10 am and 2 pm. Thank you!

July 11: St. Benedict (480-550)

The father of Western monasticism and the Benedictine Order, Benedict left his studies in Rome to become a hermit. He settled in a rocky cave in Italy near Subiaco where he spent his days in prayer and fasting. After several years, other gathered around him. He organized them into communities. He eventually wrote his Rule, a flexible and moderate pattern of life that became the norm for monastic life in the West.

Soup Kitchen

Holy Family Parish is scheduled to work at the North End Soup Kitchen on the second Thursday of each month 9 am-11:30 am. The commitment for each group is just four Thursdays per year. At this time our volunteers work among staff preparing meals. Due to COVID, volunteers do not have contact with clients. If you are interested in helping, please contact Jamie at the Parish office (810) 694-4891, jrodriguez@hfgb.org.
