Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks
for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O
God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God,
Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away
the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A C U P O F J O E

Greetings in Christ!
I wanted to let you know that I'll be taking a bit of a vacation/retreat this month. You may remember that every year, I take a 10-12 day retreat vacation around this time and that time is creeping up on me! I'll be leaving right after my last mass this Sunday, July 24 and returning late the next week. I'll be staying at my cousin's house up north and I'm excited to sleep and not make decisions for a while... hahaha.

One of the things that I keep meaning to mention to you is the priest situation in our diocese.

To be clear, the Lansing Diocese is doing better than most in the US, but the issue is that there are less and less of us priests everyday, while the need for priests is relatively unchanged. Although Catholics go to or support their church less and less, they do still place tremendous demands on the Church and their priests and rightly so. We are, as priests, to be faithful to our call and make sure that fidelity is not contingent on whether they come to or support the Church in any way. That means we're serving you who come to Mass and support your church as well as praying funerals, baptisms, weddings, last rights, hospital and home visits for those who don't. I'm bringing this up because it's getting harder and harder to find priests to help us plug in the gaps when Fr. Le or I are gone and I'm asking for your prayers and patience as we deal with the limitations of myself and Fr. Le. There may be weekdays we can't get to confession sessions or maybe even Mass...I hope to avoid this of course but it has proven inevitable at times.

I have been blessed beyond what I can describe here by the way you love us both, support us and give us your prayers and patience. I hope you know I'm not writing this because any one has failed, not at all. I'm just putting this up as a reminder and hopefully, a reason to get all of us to pray that God sends us more priests!

I love you all and thank Jesus I get to be your priest.

July 17, 2022 | 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God's unexpected gifts. Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome (Pope Francis)." While it is necessary to attend to the details of hospitality, learning how to be present to people, experiences, and God is sometimes more important. Creating homes that are welcoming environments requires not only organization and structure but members who truly enjoy being there and celebrating life with one another.

Details can often get the best of us. While attending to details is important to success, our obsession with them can be problematic. Whether wanting to make a good impression, fear of failure, insecurity, or emotional immaturity, throwing ourselves into the "details" of hospitality can distract us from being present to those we want to serve. Conversely, focusing exclusively on being present without any attention to detail also sets our attempts at hospitality up for disaster! We need a balance of both. But creating a truly welcoming space in our homes and within ourselves requires still more.

We have to be empty of ourselves. Becoming a welcoming, hospitable person is not possible in someone focused on their own needs and desires. If the one we serve is the one who looks back at us in the mirror, then there is no space for anyone else. While Martha and Mary had different ideas of what it means to serve, they both had the inner space and freedom to do so. They were detached from themselves. Detachment becomes the challenge to hospitality and creating a God-centered, open-hearted space in our lives. When we impulsively act out of our personal agendas, violence, abuse, pride, greed, lust, power, control, passion, and self-aggrandizement encroach upon the space needed to be present to another human being. Not only can others not find a home in us, but even God cannot find a home in us!

STEWARDSHIP & WORSHIP

Each year the Diocesan Services Appeal (DSA) unites the people, the disciples, of all 72 parishes of our diocese, drawing us together to achieve far more than any individual or any single parish could accomplish alone.

Envelopes are available or you may donate online at www.dioceseoflansing.org/dsa. For assistance, please contact The Catholic Foundation (517) 253-8792.

As of June 30, Holy Family's DSA pledges were at $166,435 pledged (85% of goal) with 425 donors (22% participation).

2022 DSA Prayer

Loving and gracious God, we praise you and we thank you for the bountiful gifts that you have given us. You have called us to discipleship. Enkindle in our hearts a desire to share your love with one another. Stir us to embrace the Diocesan Services Appeal as a way to put your Word into action through the good works of our Holy Catholic Church. Please bless our efforts that, together, we may bring the Good News of Jesus Christ to all whom we encounter.

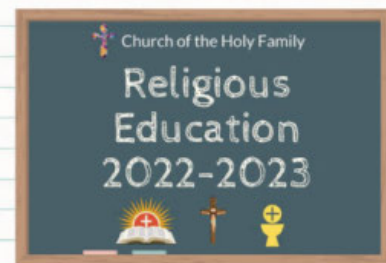

Amen.

Washing Machine Needed

We are currently seeking a donation of a gently used washing machine for the school to wash cleaning cloths and mop heads. Please contact Chuck Wright, cwright@hfgb.org or 694-4891 ext. 2218.

Outreach Need

Outreach currently finds themselves in need of toilet paper. If you can help with this need, please leave the items in the gathering space or drop off at Outreach (white building north of the church) during hours (M - F 10am - 2pm). Thank you!

Donate Blood, Give Life

There will be a Red Cross Blood Drive on Tuesday, July 26, 2022 sponsored by Knights of Columbus Council 10170 of Holy Redeemer Church. The event will be in the Father Bush Parish Center, Small Hall. Located at 110 Bush Street, Grand Blanc MI. Appointments starting at 1pm, can be made at Redcross.org.

Why give blood? The biggest benefit of blood donation is that it saves lives, and "Because more than 90% of people eligible to donate do not, there's always a need for donors. Life-saving blood components can support recovery from injuries or disease. A single blood donation can give one to three patients a better outcome, a chance at survival. Nine out of ten people who live to the age of 70 will use blood during their lifetime."

Eucharistic Adoration Substitute "Adorers" Needed

Every Tuesday and Friday, we expose the Blessed Sacrament for time of Eucharistic Adoration. This is a wonderful time for private prayer and personal communion with the Lord.

It is necessary that, when the Lord is exposed on the altar during adoration, individuals are present for prayer and adoration, either communally or individually. We lovingly refer to those volunteers who dedicate this time to our Lord, as Adorers. We invite and welcome all to come and spend time with the Lord, but we need some to commit to a time so we know our Lord is not left alone.

Our Adoration ministry is in need of more substitute adorers. At times, the adorer scheduled cannot make it and we need help.

If you would like to volunteer for this wonderful ministry, please contact the parish office at 694-4891 or Genevieve Psenski at gpsenski@hfgb.org. This will be the best hour of your day. Let Him transform you.

2022 Altar Flowers

Our web page for ordering Altar flowers is now open!

Please go to:

<https://hfgbaltarflowers.pushpayevents.com/>

Your $50 donation for your specific month will help us provide flowers at the altar and around the sanctuary to beautify our worship space. Your loved one's name will be listed in the parish bulletin for that entire month. You may offer flowers in honor of a living person for a special occasion or in memory of your loved one.

We hope this new format will allow more people to be able to participate each month and help beautify our new worship space even more. We will continue to have Easter and Christmas memorial collections as well. During Lent and Advent there will be no flowers in church.

If you have any questions or if you need assistance ordering, you may contact Theresa Dyer at 810-694-4891, ext. 2211, or tdyer@hfgb.org.

FOLLOWING OUR FAITH

Our Catholic Heritage

by Earl Hagen

43rd Pope – Celestine I

Born in Rome, he was elected pontiff on September 10, 422. Celestine's tenure was largely spent combating various ideologies deemed heretical. Celestine I called the 3rd Ecumenical Council which condemned the followers of Nestorius, the Patriarch of Constantinople.

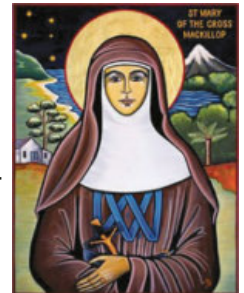

Deacon of the Campania region, he was a friend of St. Augustine which aided him in resolving differences with the Church in Africa. He followed the ecclesiastical policies of Pope Boniface I and fought against the Pelagians especially in Great Britain and southern France.

Celestine I died July 27, 432 and was buried in Rome at the Church of Santa Prassede.

July 19: St. Mary Mackillop (1842-1902)

Born in Melbourne in 1842 to parents who had emigrated from Scotland, Mary grew up in a family that faced constant financial struggles. As a young woman she was drawn to religious life but could not find an existing order of Sisters that met her needs. In 1860 she met Father Julian Woods, who became her spiritual director. Together they founded a new community of women—the Sisters of St. Joseph of the Sacred Heart, also known as the Josephite Sisters. Its members were to staff schools especially for poor children, as well as orphanages, and do other works of charity. "Have courage no matter what your crosses are."--Mother Mary of the Cross

The Lord said to her in reply, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her." — Lk 10:41-42

WHO AM I TO JUDGE? WITH DR. EDWARD SRI - SESSION 1: DON'T IMPOSE YOUR MORALITY ON ME!

What is "right" and "wrong"? Is what's right for you right for me? These are difficult questions to discuss in our culture. We live in a society that supports the opinion that each person should make up his or her own morality, that there is no moral truth that applies to everyone. So, how do we talk about right and wrong in this world? In this series, Dr. Ted Sri explores the fragility of a relativist outlook and the importance of absolute truth.

Sharing the Gospel

God created work for each of us to do, and it is important to do it. But Martha was upset because she forgot to stop and make time for Jesus. Mary had the right idea. She took a break from her work to listen to Jesus. Time with Jesus is precious, so we need to make time to rest and enjoy his love.

Prayer

Dear God, thank you for reminding me to stop and enjoy time with you.

Workshop Focuses on Experience of God in Everyday Life

We know that God is present everywhere and all the time, yet many find it hard to recognize that presence. The Experience of God in Everyday Life: A Day of Reflection will explore ways that we can be aware of God's presence. Patricia Cooney Hathaway, PhD, Professor of Spirituality and Systematic Theology at Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit, offers the program from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Saturday, July 30, 2022.

In the morning, participants explore the seasons of grace and the challenge of finding God. The afternoon session focuses on portraits of grace in each season of our lives and on the stories of women who model holiness through the prism of the Beatitudes.

The workshop is offered in-person only. Guests will be screened for COVID-19 and required to wear masks.

The cost is $25 and registration is required. To register, visit www.webercenter.org and click on "programs"; call 517-266-4000; or email webercenter@adriandominicans.org. Limited scholarships are available.

Weber Center is located on the campus of the Adrian Dominican Sisters' Motherhouse, Adrian. For information, call the Weber Center at 517-266-4000.
