A C U P O F J O E

Greetings in Christ, all!

After the ten o'clock Mass on Sunday, I'll be heading off to my annual vacation/retreat. I'll miss you all and certainly pray for you every day. Please pray I rest and rebuild and also, please pray for my Dad who is going in for a heart procedure. We'll take good care of him!

In terms of Mass and confession coverage while I'm gone, it looks like we've got it all worked out. With that, please keep Fr. Le in your prayers and be patient with any Masses or confession times that might not work out. Whenever one of us is gone, the other could always use some love and mercy.

We have a real treat for the Masses next weekend. Every year, the diocese sends us a missionary who comes to our parish and shares the work they do and asks for our financial support/help. We were able to plug this missionary in for next week while I'm gone so that is a big blessing for us and the missionary. Praise God.

STEWARDSHIP & WORSHIP

Our Outreach ministry offers an opportunity for our Parish to fulfill the divine call to carry out the corporal works of mercy. Through Outreach we provide food, clothing and financial assistance to those in need. We are seeking volunteers to assist clients in this process. Our Outreach office, which is open Monday - Friday, 10 am - 2 pm, welcomes your help during any of these days and times. Please contact Kathy Medich, Director of Outreach, for further volunteer information at 810-771-7279 or kmedich@hfgb.org.

The Steward's Work Is Never Done

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock! When you hear these strong words from the Old Testament, you're probably thinking, thank goodness I don't have any sheep — dodged that bullet. Nobody misled here! No flock scattered on my watch! However, we are all shepherds of a kind, called to tend our own sheep: our families, our parishes, our communities.

But it's exhausting. Don't we all sometimes just want to take a break from being a steward? The excuses are so familiar: we're tired, we've done enough, we've given all we can, what more does the parish (or my spouse, or my kids, or my boss, or my friends, or my community) want? We give ourselves permission to be selfish. So, what if the flock scatters just a little?

Jesus gets that. We can just imagine him weary with exhaustion, can't we? We see him on his boat, attempting to sneak away for a quick break — maybe just a chance to eat a bite of food in peace. He is God, but he was still human, after all. Even the most dedicated shepherds need to sleep. But people couldn't leave him alone. They were hungry for him. They needed what he could offer, and they needed it now.

As tough as it is, that's the example we are tasked with imitating. Everyday Stewardship demands accountability. It demands our showing up even when we are tired. It demands that we look at our lives, our time, our energies, our talents, our hearts, our bank accounts and think: where do I still have more to give?

Our Catholic Heritage

148th Pope - Gregory VI

Born in Rome, he was elected on May 5, 1045. He took the place of the much discussed Benedict IX, after he paid him to resign in order to save the papacy from scandal. But Gregory was accused of simony at the Council of Sutri, Papal States, held by the Holy Roman emperor Henry III in 1046. He was forced to abdicate and was deposed on December 20, retiring to Germany. He is attributed with forming the first pontifical army and personally led his army in protecting himself from invasion. Gregory VI died December 20, 1046, in Cologne [Germany].

Prayer for My Family

Gracious God, I pray now for my parents, and for all those who have positively influenced my life... for the happiness of good memories, and for the healing of sad memories... for the forgiveness of those who have wronged me, and for peace of heart with those to whom I did not or could not say "I'm sorry"...

For all the deceased members of my family, that in Your great mercy, Lord, You may forgive their sins and welcome them into eternal life...

For my relatives, friends, neighbors, coworkers and all who have assisted me throughout my life, in appreciation for the joys we have shared...

For my children and grandchildren and all other family members with whom I have experienced times both rewarding and challenging, and with whom I have shared events both painful and enriching...

For all those I know and love for whom I am presently anxious or concerned... for their health and well-being... for their return to the Sacraments... for those who are ill and in need of healing... for those who are out of school or unemployed... for those who are burdened with worries, fears, disappointments or addictions...

In Your great mercy, Lord, hear my prayers and grant my petitions for peace of mind and heart, for all in need of Your blessings, compassion, wisdom and saving grace.

Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Burnout. Recent studies suggest that roughly two-thirds of doctors and nurses have signs of it. You probably know what burnout is: long-term stress leading to emotional exhaustion and a lack of a sense of personal accomplishment. Burnout can threaten anyone who tries to seriously serve and love others. How does our faith inform this challenging experience, and how do we find refreshment?

The apostles face something like burnout this week in Mark 6. They are run down from their missionary work, and Jesus says, “Come away by yourselves to a lonely place, and rest a while.” For them, and for us, it takes humility to intentionally rest. It means the world can go on without us. It stings our pride to admit God is necessary and we are not. Choosing to leave our good work to be with him — whatever the cost — is an act of humble faith. And that trust in God begins to revive us.

But there's more to it. Hilariously, Mark tells us that throngs of needy people find out where the apostles are going and arrive ahead of them. Imagine the exasperation of the burnt-out apostles. “Can we please get a minute to ourselves? This is not healthy!” And Jesus seems to encourage the boundary violation by telling his frayed followers to feed the crowd. Look: once we move into humble rest, he calls us to more work, because we are made for love, not for rest. But Jesus does the vast bulk of the labor. He himself is the one who multiplies the small offering until everyone is satisfied.

What finally gives our heart rest isn't more vacation time. It's experiencing the super abundant generosity of God for us and those whom we serve.

Saint

July 21: St. Lawrence of Brindisi (1559-1619)

He entered the Capuchin Friars, taught theology to his fellow religious, and was chosen to fill positions of leadership in his order. St. Lawrence was declared a Doctor of the Church because he was a great scholar and preacher, gifted in languages, and was a humble and holy administrator with great wisdom, but one of the greatest accomplishments attributed to this saint was the repulsion of the Turks during the Battle of Stuhlweissenburg.

Part Two

Holy Moments Explained -

Everyday Examples of Holy Moments

Mary Wright goes through the drive-through to get coffee each Friday morning and pays for the person behind her. When I asked her why, she replied, "So many reasons, I guess. We need to look out for each other. Lots of people have been generous to me. People need to know that there are generous, thoughtful people in the world. And ultimately, I believe that thoughtfulness and generosity are contagious and can change the world." That's one of Mary's Holy Moments. And she's right - Holy Moments are contagious.
