Celebrating Fr. Le's 25th Anniversary of Ordination

Next weekend, we are joyfully celebrating a very special milestone in the life of our parish and in the priestly ministry of Fr. Le—his 25th Anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood!

We are especially blessed to be welcoming Fr. Le's family, who will be traveling from Fiji to join us for this joyous occasion. Their presence will make this celebration even more meaningful as we give thanks for Fr. Le's years of faithful service and pastoral care.

Fr. Le will preside at the 4:00 p.m. Mass on Saturday and the 12:00 noon Mass on Sunday. Following all Sunday Masses, he will be in the gathering space to greet parishioners and share in this moment of thanksgiving with our church community.

A heartfelt thank you to all who have RSVP'd for the dinner following Saturday's 4:00 p.m. Mass. (We are pleased to be at capacity and reservations have closed.) We look forward to celebrating together and enjoying a special taste of Fijian culture and hospitality.

Please keep Fr. Le and his family in your prayers as we prepare for this wonderful weekend. May God continue to bless him abundantly in his priestly ministry!

The St. Cecilia Scholarship Committee has selected three scholarship recipients this year: Emilie Martin ($1,500), Rita Chammas ($1,000) and Josie Scime ($500). We hope these scholarships may encourage the participation of many more young musicians in our music ministry.

Many thanks to our sponsors who donated between $20 and $600 to fund this scholarship! The scholarship will be presented during the 12 noon Mass on Sunday, July 6th.

To be a Sponsor, you may donate any time by writing a check or through the parish online giving system. ## (Practicing) Catholic - Beneath the Surface

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Mini reflection: Too often, life falls short of my expectations — an opportunity didn't work out, a day didn't go the way I planned — so I ball up my fists and stomp my feet. And God takes the Book of the Gospels and opens it to Luke, Chapter 10.

On Pilgrimage

Before I embarked on my trip to the National Eucharistic Congress last summer with a group from my archdiocese, we had an orientation meeting. At that meeting, the coordinator of the trip shared with us "The Five Rules of Pilgrimage."

If you're not familiar with them (I wasn't), here they are:

1. Don't complain.
2. Don't complain. (It's so important, it's listed twice.)
3. When you see a bathroom, use it.
4. When someone offers you something, receive it.
5. When someone asks you for something, give it.

It's great advice for a pilgrimage, but more than that, I think it's great advice in general. So when I read today's Gospel and I hear Jesus say essentially the same thing to his disciples as they set out to evangelize (well, minus the bathroom tip, but those weren't as much of a thing in biblical Judea), I come to an important realization.

The whole Christian life is a pilgrimage.

Too often, life falls short of my expectations. An opportunity didn't work out. A day didn't go the way I planned (like, at all). A person didn't accept me. And I ball up my fists and stomp my feet like a full-grown Veruca Salt, and I yell: I cannot work in these conditions!

And then, I imagine God, on his celestial throne, sighs and opens the Book of the Gospels (surely he keeps it handy, don't you think?) to Luke, Chapter 10. And he whispers in my heart what he said to his disciples 2,000 years ago.

Don't complain. Be open and give of yourself, and in turn, receive what comes your way, whatever it is. If it's good, rejoice. If it's not good, move on. And in the end, remember where you're headed — the place you're trying to go.

Oh, and again: don't complain.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In the days after the awful 2020 killing of George Floyd, a Catholic friend remarked, "Racism is today's great evil. We should put all our energy into fighting it." I admired her intuition that the church must stand firmly against evil. Amen, I thought. At the same time, something felt wrong. As months went by, I saw her steadily slide into bitterness and anger. Soon, despondency. She spoke of giving up the fight. Don't we too wonder how to fight evil without losing our joy or energy?

Jesus' words this week help. He says, "Rejoice not that you have power over demons, but that your names are written in heaven" (Luke 10:20). Notice the asymmetry in where he wants our focus: on the latter, not the former. Should we confidently embrace our God-given power to overcome evil? Absolutely. But even more so, we should emphasize the positive element of our relationship to God. It is tempting but dangerous to define ourselves by what we oppose. It is better to define ourselves by—to rejoice in—what we celebrate: in Jesus, God has written our names in heaven. This sustains our battles.

This week, our marching orders are: fight evil. But more deeply, rejoice that God knows and loves us personally, individually. We allow this joyful knowledge to undergird our fight against the darkness of our day. Then we enjoy long-term stability to be cheerful warriors, who never forget the reason for the contests we are called to fight and win: love.

— Father John Muir

HOLY FAMILY SCHOOL

Growing in Faith: 4th Graders Continue a Beloved Tradition

Before summer vacation started, our 4th graders continued a tradition started by Mr. Steve Simms 26 years ago—planting trees as a hands-on lesson in gratitude, stewardship, and service. Mr. Simms began this legacy while teaching at St. John Vianney. Since then, thousands of trees have been planted across Genesee County—including the tall ones you see below, which were planted by students 25 years ago.

Thank you, Mr. Simms, for inspiring generations to care for God's creation!

All their hard work!

Holy Family, believing that each student is a child of God, challenges each to embrace the Gospel message through the traditions of the Catholic faith, to achieve academic excellence and to grow as saints.

Cenacle of Divine Mercy of St. Mary Cathedral

Excerpts from God in the Diary of Saint Sister Maria Faustina (Diary, 742)

"Yes, the first Sunday after Easter is the Feast of Mercy, but there must also be acts of mercy, and I demand the worship of My mercy through the solemn celebration of the Feast and through the veneration of the image which is painted. By means of this image I shall grant many graces to souls. It is to be a reminder of the demands of My mercy, because even the strongest faith is of no avail without works."

FOLLOWING OUR FAITH

Our Catholic Heritage

by Earl Hagen

198th Pope Clement VI (1342-52)

Born circa 1291 in Maumont, France. Birth name Pierre Roger. His papacy began on May 7, 1342, choosing the name Clement VI. Around age 10, he began studying with Benedictine monks for several years. He attended the College of Sorbonne where he obtained his teaching license and earned a doctoral degree. He served as a bishop and worked as a chancellor, forming lasting relationships with several popes. He became a cardinal before being chosen as pope. Prince John traveled to speak with the cardinals and push for the election of Pierre. The cardinals were already in the middle of making the decision when he arrived, but agreed with both his and the King's choice.

Clement VI practiced nepotism in the same way his predecessors did. He appointed 25 cardinals during his reign as pope. Most of them were from France, nearly half of them his relatives.

During the black plague, more than 30% of those in Europe died. Doctors advised him to keep the torches burning around his palace to avoid becoming ill. He ignored that advice and continued hearing confessions from the sick and dying. Clement VI became sick during the early 1350s. He suffered from kidney stones that occasionally kept him confined to bed and later developed a tumor. During his final days, he developed an abscess that became infected and left him even sicker. He would eventually succumb to those issues and pass away on December 6, 1352, of natural causes around age 60 or 61.

Saint

July 11: St. Benedict (480-550)

The father of Western monasticism and the Benedictine Order, Benedict left his studies in Rome to become a hermit. He settled in a rocky cave in Italy near Subiaco where he spent his days in prayer and fasting. After several years, others gathered around him. He organized them into communities. He eventually wrote his Rule, a flexible and moderate pattern of life that became the norm for monastic life in the West.

The Divine Plan -

God's Math Lesson

What is Spiritual Multiplication? It is a method that Jesus himself chose as the foundation of His ministry, and the strategy He put in place to change the world.

It is based on one very simple idea: Invest in a small group of people, teach them how to create Holy Moments, then empower them to go out and do the same for another small group of people.

These are the two collaborations that will change the world: Collaborate with God to create Holy Moments, and collaborate with him again to teach other people how to create Holy Moments.

How many people? Three. That's all it takes. Three people. If every person who read this book committed to teach three other people to create Holy Moments, we would change the world.

Retreat Focuses on Two Mystics

Weber Retreat and Conference Center's annual in-person Retreat on the Mystics. It focuses on St. Francis de Sales and medieval Dominican mystic Meister Eckhart. The retreat begins at 6:00 p.m. Sunday, July 27, 2025, and concludes at 11:00 a.m. Wednesday, July 30, 2025.

The Bishop of Geneva and the "Doctor of Divine Love," St. Francis de Sales, taught people how to find God in their daily lives. Father Michael Newman, OSFS, a priest of the Order of St. Francis de Sales, is the Assistant Provincial of the Toledo-Detroit Province of the Oblates and pastor of Holy Family Parish in Adrian.

Dr. Anastasia Wendlinder, PhD, Associate Professor of Religious Studies at Gonzaga University in Spokane, Washington, delves into Meister Eckhart's multi-faceted writings and explores his relevancy today.

The cost is $180 for commuters, $280 per person double occupancy, and $380 single occupancy. This includes all meals for those staying at Weber Center and lunch for commuters. Registration is required. Visit www.webercenter.org and click on "programs," call 517-266-4000, or email webercenter@adriandominicans.org. Limited scholarships are available.

Weber Center is on the campus of the Adrian Dominican Sisters Motherhouse, Adrian, Michigan. On East Siena Heights Drive, turn into the driveway between Adrian Rea Literacy Center and the solar panel-covered carport. Follow the signs to Weber Center. For information, call the Weber Center at 517-266-4000.
