The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

A CUP OF JOE

Greetings in Christ!

I have a lot of updates for you all and it's my intent to use the bulletin to catch you up on these things. Please share this information with folks that maybe couldn't get to Mass if you would.

The first thing is I'd like to talk about our property a bit, as well as our care for the poor. In the past, I presented you a plan about Fr Le and I moving out of the rectory to make room for moving the Outreach program there. In the end, we simply couldn't afford to effect the changes necessary for that move to happen, so we had to change things up. So, with that, here's what you'll see happening on our grounds over the next year:

First, we are going to build a structure on our property on the north side of Orchard Street across from the school. This new building will have an office, storage and other areas necessary to operate Outreach. It will also feature a garage where we can store all of our tools and machines for maintenance, as well as a maintenance office. Finally, this new building will be a place where we can store things that, well, need storing!

Once that is finished, we will tear down the house where Outreach currently operates, as well as the numerous garages and sheds in that area. We will also tear down the house that is in the south/west corner of our property. In the place where we will tear down that house, we will build a pavilion and plant fruit trees, which will allow us to offer fresh fruit to people in need.

Finally, we will rebuild the fence on the north side of our property.

All of these things will help us to focus our mission in caring for those in need, as well as stay faithful to agreements made to the city some time ago.

We are struggling to find work crews to take on these projects and are continuing to work through the labyrinth of rules and regulations guiding the city of Grand Blanc to get these things going.

I'm quite excited about all of these things and hope you are too!

As a Parish Family, I just love how we respond to Jesus' call to care for those who are in need. It moves me how many thank you letters I sign for people giving to Outreach. This work we are doing over the next year will be a monster blessing for our mission to serve people through Outreach with a good facility and the additional space we have needed. It will be a blessing to us as our grounds look better, we gain parking and set up our next generation to take the torch from us in loving and caring for the vulnerable and those who are in need.

God bless you all!

THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary
Tuesday, August 15th
Holy Day of Obligation
8 a.m. | 6 p.m.

by Matthew Kelly

Prologue

ONCE UPON A TIME there was a monastery deep in the forest. It was full of monks, they were full of joy, that joy was contagious, and people traveled from far and wide to visit. One day a young man asked the Abbott why people came to the monastery. "Most come looking for answers to their questions," the old monk man was curious what type of questions people asked. The Abbott continued, "They come seeking answers to the same questions all men and women ponder. What should I do with my life? Am I wasting my one short life? Where do I find meaning? How do I get the most out of life?" The young man had traveled a long distance to visit the monastery, and as he walked away the old monk wondered what question the young man's heart was wrestling with.

#WhereisPanther Update 2023

The school year is approaching fast, summer is winding down and Panther is getting ready to head back to HFS! But not before we share a few of his stops on his #WhereisPanther Summer 2023 Tour! Another summer and another year of amazing places our HFS families spent their time and Panther was along for the ride! From Powers Catholic Camp of Champions, visiting the Ark in Kentucky, stopping by summer swim meets, visiting alumni, a round of putt-putt in Traverse City, bouncing around at the trampoline park, riding the world's steepest incline in Tennessee, camping with friends, trying a new sport - pickle ball, and dropping in to the Joe in Black Studio, he has been busy. Another awesome Panther summer in the books!

WHAT'S HAPPENING HERE

Our Catholic Heritage

by Earl Hagen

99th Pope – Eugene II

Born in Rome, he was elected bishop of Rome and ruler of the Papal States on May 11, 824. To Eugene is attributed the institution of seminaries. Eugene convened a supreme council in 826 for putting into effect badly needed canons and ecclesiastical law. This is allegedly the origin of the Roman Curia. He further moved to condemn simony (the buying or selling of ecclesiastical privileges), and suspended any untrained clergy. It was then decreed that schools were to be established at cathedral churches and other places to give instruction in sacred and secular literature. This was a decision designed to strengthen the faith. Eugene was not an able pope in political matters, so much so in fact, that he fell under domination of Emperor Aquisgrana. Eugene II died August 27, 827, and is buried in the Vatican Grottoes.

Saint

August 19: St. John Eudes (1601-1680)

St. John Eudes joined the religious community of the Oratorians and was ordained a priest at 24. During severe plagues in 1627 and 1631, he volunteered to care for the stricken in his own diocese. Lest he infect his fellow religious, he lived in a huge cask in the middle of a field during the plague. He is probably best known for the central theme of his writings: Jesus as the source of holiness, Mary as the model of the Christian life. John's devotion to the Sacred Heart and to the Immaculate Heart of Mary led Pius XI to declare him the father of the liturgical cult of the Hearts of Jesus and Mary.
