Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A C U P O F J O E

Greetings in Christ, all! Hopefully, you noticed the words on the steps leading into our sanctuary: Sanctus. This is the Latin word "Holy" and, repeated three times, it has a special meaning to us. In Scripture, when St. John was given a vision of Heaven, he saw that there were angels all around God who constantly proclaim "Holy! Holy! Holy!" as they gaze on Our Lord. "Holy" means "set apart, worthy, exalted."

Now, in the Hebrew language, if you wanted to describe something as holy, you simply said "holy." If you wanted to describe it as holier, then you would say the word holy twice. If you wanted to say something was perfectly holy, you said it three times: Holy, Holy, Holy. This is why the angels in Heaven say it three times: God is the definition of Holiness.

So, why on our altar steps? As we approach the Altar of God, we recognize it is a particularly sacred place because the Blessed Sacrament is there and because in the sanctuary we enter into heaven to join Jesus at the Last Supper, where He gave us the Eucharist. That's an amazing truth we hold to: each time we begin the Eucharistic Prayer at Mass; we believe we are going to the actual Last Supper with Jesus. We are not remembering it, we are not reenacting it.

To enter into something that happened 2,000 years ago, we need to be outside of linear time and only heaven is outside of linear time. So, right before the Eucharistic prayer, we sing together the song of the Angels in Heaven: "Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of Hosts! Heaven and earth are full of your glory! Hosanna in the highest!" We then kneel, because we are in Heaven with God. We are at the Last Supper.

It is my fervent hope that, as we see those words "Holy, Holy, Holy," we will remember where we are when we are in Church, we will remember that we enter Heaven with Jesus each time we participate in the Last Supper and we will remember the abject beauty of God and His love for us that our simple, broken prayer is brought right to His throne each time we gather for Mass.

Our finishing work on our church will continue over the next year or so: the reliquary area, the new statues, the baptismal font, communion rail and, someday soon, the organ pipes. Pray that all this comes together through all the havoc the quarantine brought with it. All in God's time, right?

I want to end by taking a moment and asking your forgiveness. This last Monday was August 15th, The Feast of the Assumption of Mary the Mother of God. I do not know why the Church decided it was not a Holy Day of Obligation this year, but I do know I should've written about it last week. You may remember that last time they declared this feast a non obligation, we still offered more Masses than usual because why would we not pray every Mass we could in honor of Our Blessed Mother? This year the schedule got away from me and I dropped the ball: I failed to give you a heads up and failed to schedule more Masses. I ask for you to forgive me. I will do better next time. I have a deep love for Our Blessed Mother and I'm sad that I blew it.

So...that's it for this week. I pray Jesus bless you all richly. I thank Jesus everyday that I get to be your priest

Holy Family 2022 Bible Study

Wisdom Study

Scripture and the Tradition of the Catholic Church provide an abundance of wisdom, though it can often be challenging to apply it to our lives. In this eight-part study, Jeff Cavins and Thomas Smith examine biblical wisdom as it relates to daily life. Drawing on the wisdom literature of the Bible—Proverbs, Wisdom, Sirach, and Ecclesiastes—Wisdom: God's Vision for Life will teach you how to actively seek sound guidance and increase your sense of peace in navigating life.

In everything from friendships to finances, from making decisions to attaining peace of mind, Scripture offers a vision for happiness and well-being. With this program, you will learn how to gather, gain, and grow in wisdom, and you will experience the joy it brings to your life.

August 23: St. Rose of Lima (1586-1617)

The first canonized saint of the New World has one characteristic of all saints—the suffering of opposition—and another characteristic which is more for admiration than for imitation—excessive practice of mortification. She was born to parents of Spanish descent in Lima, Peru, at a time when South America was in its first century of evangelization. She seems to have taken Catherine of Siena (April 29) as a model, in spite of the objections and ridicule of parents and friends.

Our web page for ordering Altar flowers is now open! Please go to: <https://hfgbaltarflowers.pushpayevents.com/> Your $50 donation for your specific month will help us provide flowers at the altar and around the sanctuary to beautify our worship space. Your loved one's name will be listed in the parish bulletin for that entire month. You may offer flowers in honor of a living person for a special occasion or in memory of your loved one.

We hope this new format will allow more people to be able to participate each month and help beautify our new worship space even more. We will continue to have Easter and Christmas memorial collections as well. During Lent and Advent there will be no flowers in church.

Our Catholic Heritage

by Earl Hagen

48th Pope – Felix III

Born in Rome, he was elected on March 13, 483. He tried, but failed, to restore peace and reconcile the Church and Eutychianism. He had sons, one of whom was the father of the famous Gregory the Great. He saw the rise in conflicts with Patriarch of Constantinople, Acacius Felix excommunicated the schismatic bishops, giving rise to the Schism of Acacius, which lasted from 484 to 519. He was also instrumental in paving the way for their reunion. Felix III died March 1, 492, and is buried at St. Paul's Outside the walls.
