18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

18th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?' Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God."

- Lk 12:20-21

18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

August 3, 2025

You Are All We Have #586

You Are My All in All #2081

Closing Hymn

Seek Ye First #658

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty,
Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

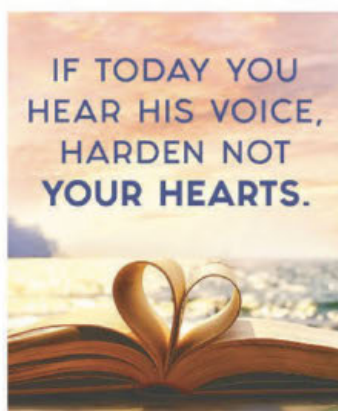

Readings

#1145

First Reading:
Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23

Second Reading:
Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

Gospel:
Luke 12:13-21

St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

WHAT'S HAPPENING HERE

Family Formation

We are excited to introduce Family Formation, an exciting new model for Religious Education at Church of the Holy Family.

This dynamic, family-centered approach is rooted in the Catechism of the Catholic Church and brings children and parents together to grow in faith through shared experiences, prayer, and learning.

For grades 1st through 5th, formation will meet twice monthly on scheduled Sunday afternoons from 1:00 – 3:00 PM. Sessions will begin in the St. Joseph Center with joint activities for the whole family. Parents will then gather for catechesis while children meet in classrooms by grade level. Sessions conclude with prayer and fellowship as one faith community.

Students in 6th, 7th, and 8th grades will also meet during this time in a youth group-style format. Parents of these students are welcome to attend, but not required.

Sacramental Preparation for First Reconciliation and First Communion are included in Family Formation and will be introduced in the 2nd-grade sessions. The Parent meeting for these Sacraments will be held on Wednesday, September 17, 2025, following the 6:00 pm Mass.

Confirmation Preparation is not included in Family Formation. Students seeking Confirmation are invited to attend the Confirmation Parent/Student meeting on September 10, 2025, following the 6:00 pm Mass. Students in Confirmation Preparation are not required to enroll or participate in Family Formation.

Enrollment is now open!

Cost: $125 per family if registered by September 1, 2025 (late registration is $150). Fees include materials, snacks, beverages, and sacramental prep.

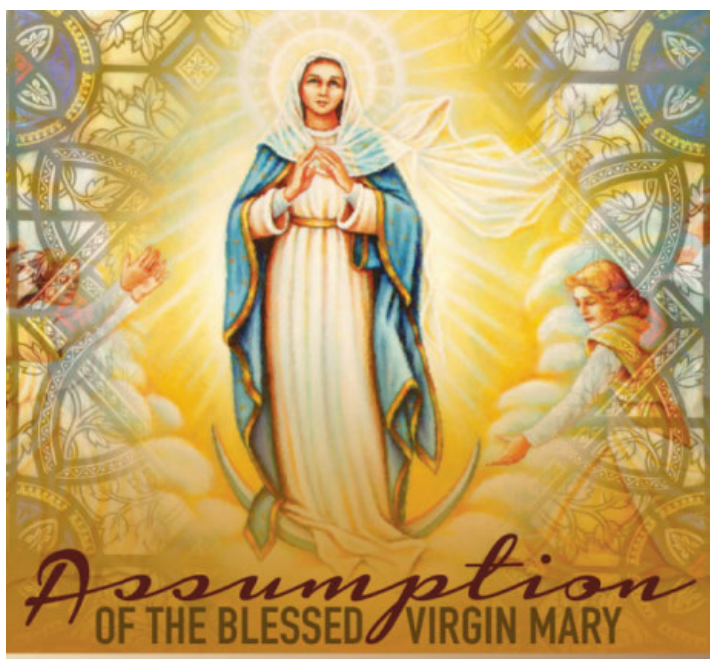

We're also looking for volunteers!

Would you like to help guide or assist during Sunday sessions? We provide all the training and support you need—no experience required. Let God use your gifts! Contact the Parish Office to learn more.

Let's grow together in faith, build lasting community, and help our children know and love Jesus.

For full schedule, information, and sign-up forms, please visit hfgb.org or scan the QR code.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Recent studies suggest that millennials will be the first generation in America to be worse off than their parents in terms of financial earnings and job status. Many lament this. I propose that this week's Gospel provides a hopeful way to see the trend as good news.

The Lord Jesus says, "Take care to guard against greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist in possessions" (Luke 12:15). Greed damages us with the deception that we are what we possess. But to Jesus, this is simply not true. What makes us happy is who we are, who we become.

Does not the expectation that every generation should do better than their parents subtly mask the poison of greed? A similar attitude is mirrored in the man who demands that Jesus justly arrange his share of the family inheritance. Despite the injustice, Jesus will not play that game. In fact, he seems to prefer that the man have less than his parents. What good would having more be to this man if he becomes enslaved and miserable by greed? What good would it be for us to have more if it means we become much less?

In allowing the man to have less, Jesus opens a space for him to become more: a man free to love. In that much more meaningful sense, perhaps he was better off than his parents. Maybe the millennials will be, too.

— Father John Muir

The Pope's Monthly Intentions

For mutual coexistence - Let us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious, or ideological reasons.

If you have been abused or victimized by someone representing the Catholic Church, please believe in the possibility for hope and help and healing. We encourage you to come forward and speak out. Every diocese in the United States now has a Victim Assistance Coordinator who is available to obtain support for your needs, to help make a formal complaint of abuse to the diocese and to arrange a personal meeting with the bishop or his representative, if you desire.

The Victim Assistance Coordinator for the Diocese of Lansing is Lisa Veenstra 1.888.308.6252 or lveenstra@dioceseoflansing.org.

In addition, you may also report through the law enforcement toll-free reporting hotline at (844) 324-3374 (Monday through Friday, 8 am to 5 pm) or by email at aginvestigations@michigan.gov

FOLLOWING OUR FAITH

Our Catholic Heritage

by Earl Hagen

202nd Pope - Urban VI (1378-89)

He was born in Ilttri, Kingdom of Naples Italy, around 1318, birth name Bartolomeo Prignano. Elected pope on April 8, 1378, taking the name Urban VI. Educated in Avignon, France. There, he formed powerful relationships with other members of the church, climbing the ranks.

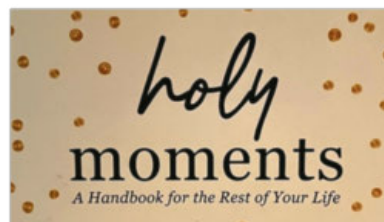

Approximately nine days after the death of Gregory XI, a vote was held to elect a new pope, a vote outside of the Sacred College. This vote was riddled with controversy. There was pressure from the public to elect a Roman pope to keep the papacy in Rome. Infighting between the French, Italian, and Limoges cardinals resulted in strategic votes to push their own agendas. Cardinals thought he would be a safe bet. The Italian and French members might have assumed that he would be a compliant pope while the Ligomes may have been drawn to him because he was not a part of the other party. He was the 1st Italian to be selected since the start of the Papacy ruling from Avignon France.

He was regarded as one of the most controversial popes in history. Known for being practical and level-headed, he quickly turned hostile, becoming enraged with cardinals, developing a reputation for being hot-tempered.

Uncovering a plot by the cardinal to arrest him, he had them arrested and tortured, depending on whether or not they confessed to their crimes. Such controversy existed to the extent that the French cardinals fled Rome fearing that they would be viewed as traitors among their colleagues in the Sacred College and the general public. Several months later, cardinals deemed the election of Urban VI as null and void claiming the decision to elect Urban VI was made out of fear and he was unfit for the position. Shortly after, Clement VII was elected as pope as well. Public opinion of Urban VI in Rome was still high, viewing him as the one true pope. Eventually, two classes emerged. One side supported Urban VI and Rome while the other supported Clement VII and Avignon. Both figures excommunicated one another and several members of the church, starting the Western Schism which split the Catholic Church for 40 years.

In 1388, Pope Urban VI marched with thousands of troops and declared a Jubilee to raise funds. Unfortunately, he fell off his mule and on October 15, 1389, at age 70 died from those injuries.

The Divine Plan -

God's Math Lesson

The principle of Spiritual Multiplication is real, it's powerful, and it demonstrates how people like you and me can change the world by collaborating with God.

This is the power of God's math. The world has problems, nobody disagrees with that. Holy Moments and Spiritual Multiplication are the answer.

It's time for us all to stop making excuses and to encourage each other to discover what is possible. It's your turn, and my turn. It's time to do our part - to renew our commitment to walking with God, to create Holy Moments, to become the best-version-of-ourselves, and to pray for God to lead us to the three people He wants us to share the wisdom of Holy Moments with.

"I am only one person—what can I do?" This is a common excuse. Let's banish it from our hearts and minds. You can do your part. Can you change the world single-handedly? No. But don't let what you can't do interfere with what you can do. Do your part. That's all. Just do your part.

Saint

August 11: St. Clare of Assisi (1194-1253)

St. Clare of Assisi is primarily known for founding the Order of Poor Ladies, later known as the Poor Clares, a religious order focused on a life of poverty, simplicity, and contemplation. She was a close follower of St. Francis of Assisi and is also known for her dedication to prayer and her miraculous visions. At 18, she escaped one night from her father's home, was met on the road by friars carrying torches, and in the poor little chapel called the Portiuncula received a rough woolen habit, exchanged her jeweled belt for a common rope with knots in it, and sacrificed the long tresses to Francis' scissors. He placed her in a Benedictine convent, which her father and uncles immediately stormed in rage. She clung to the altar of the church, threw aside her veil to show her cropped hair and remained adamant. On her deathbed, Clare was heard to say to herself: "Go forth in peace, for you have followed the good road. Go forth without fear, for he who created you has made you holy, has always protected you, and loves you as a mother. Blessed be you, my God, for having created me."

The Frederick Douglass Project for Justice (Michigan Site - Genesee County Jail)

The Douglass Project offers a multi-state Prison Visitation Program that enables community members around the country to visit local correctional facilities and engage in open, face-to-face conversations with incarcerated people. We believe that these unique encounters will spur understanding and empathy – for both visitors and incarcerated individuals – that will, in turn, drive meaningful personal and systemic change.

Cohorts of approximately 10-20 outsiders per visit will visit correctional facilities and engage in face-to-face conversations with a same-sized group of incarcerated adults. The conversations are facilitated by Douglass Project staff using proven tools and techniques that encourage respectful sharing and honest and dignified discussion. Cohorts of outside participants can join individually or as an affiliated group.

General visit details:

- 3-hour program
- Prison tour (depending on the facility)
- Large group introductions
- Small group conversations
- Large group reflections

MI Specific details:

- 2.5 hour program
- Prison tour
- Location - 1002 S. Saginaw St., Flint, MI 48502

Please note that the Douglass Project does not provide transportation or funding to/from any in-person visit site.

Before the visit, outside participants are required to watch a 30-minute orientation video (in advance of the visit) and complete paperwork for a security clearance; paperwork requirements differ by facility.

Upcoming dates in Michigan:

Thursday, September 18, 5:30 - 8 pm

Thursday, November 6, 5:30 - 8 pm

The Douglass Project is expanding its operations, so stay tuned for the upcoming addition of new locations around the country. If an in-person visit is not convenient for you, a virtual visit could provide a good alternative.
