The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. ## A CUP OF JOE Greetings in Christ! I'm writing to you this week with one reminder and three big updates.

First, next weekend I will be away for a scheduled retreat and we have not been able to schedule priests to cover all our Masses. What does this mean? Unfortunately, we will again need to have one of our scheduled worship times be Deacon-led services with Holy Communion. My recommendation is that, if your schedule requires you to go to 8 am on Sunday, you should worship at a different Catholic Church for the full experience of Mass. We will only be able to offer a service of the Word and Holy Communion without Mass at that time. Unless Fr. Le or I get sick, this should be the last time this happens this year.

Next are the updates and I'm pretty excited about them all. First things first: our tractor that we use to mow the lawn officially died. Dad and I tinkered with it, fixing some things over the last few months but in the end, it simply wasn't savable. I am a big believer in supporting local businesses, so we started our search at Grand Blanc Outdoors. We met with a salesman named Jeff and I don't think he could have been more helpful. He got a sense of what we needed and guided us into making the right purchase. He respected the fact that we are a non-profit and in the end, gave us a pretty nice discount, as well as some sage advice. I'm so grateful. So, now we have a new tractor that we mow with and the only struggle we've had is getting Carrie to let someone else use it! Haha

Speaking of lawn mowing...

We are really blessed to welcome Mark Kaake (cake) to our Parish Family. He is joining our maintenance staff. We have a massive plant with lots of manual work that will always be a challenge, but Mark is excited to take this on. His talents and skills really fit the job well and I am excited for this change.. Please make sure to welcome him and pray that Jesus bless the work of his hands.

We are also making a pretty big geographical change up front at our parish and school. As time moves on, we've realized that we need a more unified entrance to the school and parish office. There are some practical issues at work here and some that are more conceptual. I won't bore you with the details.

The key is this: starting this week, we will be shifting the entrance of our Parish Offices to the main school entrance, which now becomes the Parish Lobby and main entrance where we will greet all guests, visitors, and vendors. Manning the welcome desk will be a new employee, Michelle Hoerig. She will greet people coming to the parish, as well as direct visitors and callers to the appropriate people and places. We're very excited to welcome her and

I ask us all to pray for her and be patient as we work through these changes..

So...lots going on as we creep up on our next school year here at Holy Family. We are an active and growing parish and you should see some new ways of doing things emerge over the next few months or so. Please pray God bless our efforts to be faithful to the mission He has given us!

I thank Jesus that I get to be your priest.

Saint

August 9: St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (Edith Stein), 1891-1942

A brilliant philosopher who stopped believing in God when she was 14, Edith Stein was so captivated by reading the autobiography of Teresa of Avila (October 15) that she began a spiritual journey that led to her Baptism in 1922. Twelve years later she imitated Teresa by becoming a Carmelite, taking the name Teresa Benedicta of the Cross. Born into a prominent Jewish family in Breslau (now Wroclaw, Poland), Edith abandoned Judaism in her teens. After living in the Cologne Carmel (1934-38), she moved to the Carmelite monastery in Echt, Netherlands. The Nazis occupied that country in 1940. In retaliation for being denounced by the Dutch bishops, the Nazis arrested all Dutch Jews who had become Christians. Teresa Benedicta and her sister Rosa, also a Catholic, died in a gas chamber in Auschwitz on August 9, 1942.

Our Catholic Heritage

by Earl Hagen

98th Pope – Paschal I

Born in Rome he was a Roman monk that was elected pope on January 25, 817. On his election he was given the islands of Corsica and Sardinia by King Louis the Pious. Paschal was not only made Bishop of Rome, but ruler of the Papal States. During Easter of the year 823 he crowned Ludwig's son Lothair as Emperor, recognizing his authority over Rome. Paschal is remembered for exhuming the Christian martyrs from the catacombs, as well as for missionary activities and for the evangelization of Denmark and Scandinavia. He worked tirelessly in the discovery of the catacombs, bringing about the transfer of more than 2300 martyrs. Paschal died February 11, 824, and is buried in the Vatican Grottoes.

Craig Davis from LPi, our bulletin printer, will be securing new ads for our church bulletin in the coming weeks. It is the support of the business community that helps to make our church thrive. Please consider purchasing a print and/or digital ad as your participation makes our bulletin successful, and you attract customers!

Church bulletin advertising is a cost-effective way to advertise 52 times per year and show support for your local community; in turn, parishioners will support you!

Digital advertising allows your business to be front and center to anyone who visits a church profile page on ParishesOnline.com — that's approximately 500,000 page views per month!
