OF THE HOLY CROSS

THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

Jesus said to Nicodemus: "No one has gone up to heaven except the one who has come down from heaven, the Son of Man." For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. - Jn 3:13, 17

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A C U P O F J O E

Greetings in Christ, all!

Family Formation starts this weekend and I am soooo excited! I'll be teaching the parent sessions immediately after the 10 am Mass in the St. Joseph Hall. I can't wait! At my last assignment, I had three parishes and we did this at one of them. I just loved it. I look forward to seeing as many parents as I can who want to come. I'll be with you from 11:00(ish) till noon. Then, you can grab your kids and head back home for a great day together.

I'd like to talk to you about collections this week and I'll start with a little history.

When COVID hit, we were not allowed to take up collections anymore. We asked you all to sign up for online giving and the result was amazing. Our collections went up and our budget became much more predictable. Since then, we have tried to avoid taking collections because people who give online might feel self-conscious about watching a basket go by, knowing they've given, but appearing not to be giving.

Our Mass attendance is up, our school attendance is up and all things are going well, but truth be told, we really are struggling with rising insurance costs and other such things and after a lot of prayer and discussion, I think we've hit the point where we need to pass the basket at Masses again.

The process will be as simple and non-intrusive as we can pull off. We'll just give baskets to the people in the back row and send them forward, asking those who can and who are not giving online to please give whatever reflects the value of their ability to worship at Holy Family. When the baskets get to the front, we'll ask the front pew folks to either give them to an usher or place them at the front of the altar.

To run an institution of this size takes a lot and I'm so grateful for any help you can give. Please remember, whether you are giving online or in the basket, it's a huge help to us and frankly, giving is what we are called to do.

I'm so grateful for you all. Thanks for hearing me out and for considering being a regular contributor.

For all of you who give faithfully online already, we are so very grateful for you and ask you to continue your faithful support.

If you are new to giving, and prefer to sign up to give digitally, you can hold your phone over this QR code. It should take you right to the website where you can sign up to give digitally every month or week, or whatever you prefer.

God bless you all, I'm so terribly grateful to God and you for letting me be your priest.

STEWARDSHIP & WORSHIP

Do You Know Him, or Just Know About Him?

Facebook, Twitter, and other forms of social media can be powerful tools of communication. They allow people to stay in touch. They provide an avenue for fresh ideas. People can be engaged in conversations and be exposed to issues of the day in ways few could have dreamed of just a few decades ago. But social media can also give the false sense of really knowing someone, when only the surface has been scratched about who a person is in reality.

You don't really know someone just because you know a lot about him or her and are linked to a profile online. Unfortunately, people develop emotional attachments to the idea of a person all the time. If they do find themselves fortunate enough to meet the person face-to-face one day, they can often find out they never really knew the person in the first place.

There are people who believe they know Jesus so very well. They can readily share their view of what Jesus would do or wouldn't do in a given situation. They own items like crosses and Bibles that seem to provide evidence of this person they know so well. Sometimes, they even strongly admonish others because their view of Jesus is certainly not in line with their own.

But in Luke 13, Jesus speaks about those who claim to know him, but they really do not belong to him at all. They make claims based upon what they have seen and heard, but they have never allowed Jesus to truly change them. They are like Facebook followers; seemingly close, but with no real relationship at all.

Do you know Jesus? Don't just be a fan. Invite Jesus into your life and let the real relationship begin.

Is God Calling You to Join the Secular Franciscan Order?

The "Secular Franciscan Order," once known as the Third Order of St. Francis of Assisi, is an official order within the Catholic Church. It was established by St. Francis of Assisi in the 13th Century for men and women living in the world to follow the Gospel Life in the footsteps of St. Francis.

We are lay men and women, Diocesan priests and deacons who, after a period of discernment, make a promise, to follow a Rule of Life approved by Pope Paul VI in 1978.

We are Catholics, single or married - mothers, fathers, sisters, brothers, sons and daughters. We pray, study, and strive to experience ongoing daily conversion by being faithful to the Gospel.

We strive to achieve "perfect charity" using our talents and resources to help the poor, the oppressed, and outcast and the helpless. We hope to achieve "Justice, Peace, and the Integrity of all Creation."

We meet in the St. Joseph Center every third Saturday of the month (September 20) from 10 am - 12 pm. Please contact Reggie Boerger reggieboerger@gmail.com / (248) 892-5266 with any questions.

Family Formation - New Religious Education Model

We are excited to introduce Family Formation, a new model for Religious Education at Church of the Holy Family.

This family-centered approach is rooted in the Catechism of the Catholic Church and brings children and parents together to grow in faith through shared experiences, prayer, and learning.

Schedule

Family Formation Sundays will now be built around the 10:00 AM Mass:

- 9:15–10:00 AM – Parent & child/ren session
- 10:00 AM Mass – Worship together as a family
- After Mass–Noon – Children head to classrooms while Fr. Joe leads the parent session

This schedule keeps Sunday afternoons free for family time while strengthening our faith as a parish.

Program Details

- Grades 1–5: Parents and children begin together, then children meet by grade level while parents receive catechesis. Sessions conclude with prayer and fellowship.

- Grades 6–8: Gather in a youth group–style format. Parents are welcome, but not required.
- Sacramental Preparation: First Reconciliation and First Communion are included in Family Formation and introduced in the 2nd-grade sessions.
- Confirmation Preparation is separate.

Registration

Enrollment is now open!

- $150 after September 1 Fees include materials, snacks, beverages, and sacramental prep.

Volunteers Needed

Would you like to help guide or assist during Sunday sessions? No experience is required—we provide all training and support. Let God use your gifts! Contact the Parish Office to learn more.

Let's grow together in faith, build lasting community, and help our children know and love Jesus.

The Exaltation of the Holy Cross

John 3:13-17

One of my favorite movies is the 1991 comedy What About Bob? Bill Murray plays a troubled, paranoid hypochondriac named Bob Wiley who innocently but annoyingly hounds Dr. Leo Marvin, played by Richard Dreyfuss. Bob is paralyzed by his fear of, well, everything, and is convinced the psychologist can heal him. But Dr. Marvin's failed attempts to heal Bob end up driving the doctor to attempt to murder Bob. He fails. The surprise is that, having faced death head on, Bob is suddenly healed. He attributes his healing to Dr. Marvin for break-through "death therapy." In facing the cause of his deepest illness and dysfunction, Bob is healed.

Underneath this light-hearted comedy is a dead-serious resonance with this week's feast: the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. Christ is lifted up on the cross to force us to face the truth of sin and death. In that reckoning we find healing. Like Moses' snake on a pole, the cross says: this is what is causing your sickness – rebellion, disobedience, sin. Look at it! Don't run from it. Now seeing it exposed, we see life. We see our physician mercifully healing us. In this sense, we are all like Bob Wiley. The "death therapy" of the cross is our only hope for healing.

This week I invite you to "exalt the cross." If you don't have one in your house, get one. Use it for prayer. Gaze on it frequently. It teaches us to not be afraid. It heals us.

— Father John Muir

208th Pope - Nicholas V (1447-55)

Born November 13, 1397, in Sarzana in the Republic of Genoa. Birth name, Tommaso Parentucelli. He became pope at the age of 49 on March 6, 1447, choosing the name Nicholas in reverence to Niccolo Albergati, his early mentor.

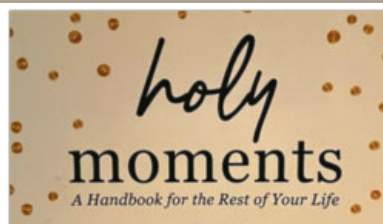

He was pope for eight years and 18 days, overseeing some of the most monumental moments in the Church's history. Seeking political peace in France with the signing of the Treaty of Lodi in 1454, ending the fighting, as well as in Germany with the 1448 Concordat of Vienna, giving the Pope much more control over the German Church. Particularly the right to confirm bishop appointments. It also removed, at least temporarily, the monetary obligations owed by German church members to Rome.

Just three years into his papacy, he held a Jubilee year in Rome in 1450 where several of the pilgrims and others made donations to the Church in which the Pope used these to advance the culture of the Church by renewing its sense of purpose, adding resources to enhance its physical and intellectual standing, as well as a platform to encourage deeper spiritual engagement among its followers. Jubilees were meant to be held every 25 or 50 years, marking a time of universal pardon and forgiveness. The last Jubilee year was held only 27 years earlier.

Pope Nicholas V wanted to help bring the Church from the Middle Ages into a more culturally modern time. He invested heavily in arts and architecture, restoring and embellishing many Roman architectural treasures. He commissioned renowned artists to decorate buildings. He employed French, Belgian, and German tapestry makers, and encouraged the development of goldsmith and silver-smith crafts in Rome. He initiated a large-scale rebuilding program, including churches, the Vatican Palace, and St. Peter's Basilica. He established the Vatican Library, using his personal collection of manuscripts, classical and humanist texts, as a basis and adding to them. He supported the translation of Greek texts into Latin, transforming Rome into a center for humanism and intellectual atmosphere.

Pope Nicholas V died on March 24, 1455, at the age of 57, of natural causes.

The Power of One Idea -

Possibilities

His record lasted just 46 days. Ten years later, high school students were breaking the 4-minute mile, and the world record today is, 3:43.13. Since Bannister broke the elusive 4-minute barrier, more than 2,000 people have run sub-four-minute miles in competition. What was once considered impossible is now routine.

We have explored the reach of the human mind and the human body. Now it is time to explore the reach of the soul.

The human spirit has not reached its limits. Not even close.

Holy Moments may have once seemed impossible, but they are not. It's time to make Holy Moments routine.

Human beings are capable of incredible things. You are capable of incredible things. Most people live and die without even scratching the surface of their potential. You may have explored your physical and intellectual limits, but have you ever really tried to explore your spiritual capacity? Until we do, we have no idea what we are actually capable of.

It is time to explore your soul-potential.

Saint

September 19: St. Januarius (305)

Little is known about Januarius except that he was a bishop of Benevento (near Naples, Italy) and was probably martyred during the persecutions under Emperor Diocletian around 305. According to legends about Januarius, he went to visit Christians who had been imprisoned. He was then arrested and condemned to death for being a Christian. Januarius and his companions were thrown to wild beasts in an amphitheater, but the wild animals refused to harm them. The Christians were beheaded instead, and the blood and body of Januarius were brought back to Naples. Januarius is regarded as the patron saint of Naples, and his protection is sought when there is the danger of volcanic eruption.
