THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

THIRD SUNDAY OF
LENT

Third Sunday in Lent

ENTRANCE HYMN

You, Lord, Are Both Lamb and Shepherd

1. You, Lord, are both Lamb and Shepherd. You, Lord, are both prince and slave. You, peacemaker and sword-bringer Of the way you took and gave. You, the everlasting instant; You, whom we both scorn and crave.

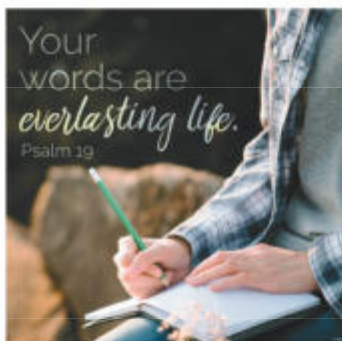

2. Clothed in light upon the mountain, Stripped of might upon the cross, Shining in eternal glory, Beggar'd by a soldier's toss. You, the everlasting instant; You, who are both gift and cost.

FIRST READING: Exodus 20:1-3,7-8,12-17

In those days, God delivered all these commandments: "I, the LORD am your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery. You shall not have other gods besides me.

"You shall not take the name of the LORD, your God, in vain. For the LORD will not leave unpunished the one who takes his name in vain.

"Remember to keep holy the sabbath day. Honor your father and your mother, that you may have a long life in the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you. You shall not kill. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his male or female slave, nor his ox or ass, nor anything else that belongs to him."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 19

Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 1:22-25

Brothers and sisters:

Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

LENTEN GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL: John 2:13-25

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking about the temple of his body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken.

While he was in Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, many began to believe in his name when they saw the signs he was doing. But Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all, and did not need anyone to testify about human nature. He himself understood it well.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty,
Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

SANCTUS

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

AGNUS DEI

COMMUNION HYMNS

Tree of Life

1. Tree of Life and awesome myst'ry, In your death we are reborn, Though you die in all of hist'ry, Still you rise with ev'ry morn, Still you rise with ev'ry morn.
2. Seed that dies to rise in glory, May we see ourselves in you, If we learn to live your story We may die to rise anew, We may die to rise anew.
3. We remember truth once spoken, Love passed on through act and word, Ev'ry person lost and broken Wears the body of our Lord, Wears the body of our Lord.
4. Gentle Jesus, mighty Spirit, Come inflame our hearts anew, We may all your joy inherit If we bear the cross with you, If we bear the cross with you.
5. Christ, you lead and we shall follow, Stumbling though our steps may be, One with you in joy and sorrow, We the river, you the sea, We the river, you the sea.

Jesus, the Lord

Refrain: Jesus, Jesus. Let all creation bend the knee to the Lord.

1. In him we live, we move and have our being; in him the Christ, in him the King! Jesus, the Lord.
2. Though Son, he did not cling to godliness; but emptied himself, became a slave! Jesus, the Lord.
3. He lived obediently his Father's will accepting his death, death on a tree! Jesus, the Lord.

Psalm 95

Refrain: If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

1. Come, let us ring out our joy to the Lord; hail the rock who saves us. Let us come into his presence, giving thanks; let us hail him with song of praise.
2. O come; let us bow and bend low. Let us kneel before the God who made us, for he is our God and we the people who belong to his pasture, the flock that is led by his hand.
3. O that today you would listen to his voice! "Harden not your hearts as at Meribah, as on that day at Massah in the desert when your forebears put me to the test; when they tried me, though they saw my work."

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL PRAYER

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

CLOSING HYMN

The Church of Christ

1. The Church of Christ, in ev'ry age Beset by change, but Spirit led, Must claim and test its heritage And keep on rising from the dead.
2. Across the world, across the street, The victims of injustice cry For shelter and for bread to eat, And never live until they die.

My Faith Journey to Holy Family Parish

Ni Bula Vinaka!! (Greetings)

Interesting questions were asked, what brought you here, Fr.? What makes you leave your beautiful home land of the Fiji Islands to be up here in the cold Grand Blanc, Michigan? I can boldly say it's all God's doing. If God did not Will it, I wouldn't have been here. So Praise be to God.

It's a journey of faith, so things were not so clear; cloud of uncertainties still linger in me, and even after Fr. Joe, our beloved parish priest, gladly gave me that window of opportunity to serve here with him. It wasn't until I walked into Fr. Bush hall while being taken around for a parish and school tour that I came across a poster on the wall which says, "WELCOME, GOD BROUGHT YOU HERE". I said wow, Amen! I am sure it was written for new parishioners and other visiting God's people coming to worship at Holy Family Parish, but that statement spoke to me personally as affirmation from God. It's like God telling me, you are exactly where you should be.

On December 9th, 2020, I celebrated my twenty years of priesthood. Wow, times have really flown by like the wind. I attended one of the major seminaries in the South Pacific, the Pacific Regional Seminary located in Suva, Fiji Islands. I graduated in the year 2000 as a Marist religious priest. I belong to the order of the Society of Mary. So as a missionary, my first mission as a young priest was at a remote island of Bougainville in Papua New Guinea for three years. It was kind of a "sweet and sour" experience. Sweet in a sense that it was my first experience as a priest, the excitement and joy of meeting new people, learning new cultures, new language and being there as an ambassador of God and Mary to serve God's people. It was sour in a sense that I felt ill equipped to deal with all kinds of problems of the people, who had just come out of a civil war that lasted ten years. All structures and aspects of society, culture and faith were gravely affected. I was there in the time of rehabilitation and rebuilding. It was tough, like baptism by fire and I almost gave up on my priesthood, but with God's help I endured. The takeaway from that experience was "no matter how tough and rough life and situations throw at us, never give up because God never gives up on us."

In 2004 I was blessed to have been accepted and enrolled in a graduate program at Loyola College, in Columbia, Maryland. It was like a leap of faith, from the thick bush in the remote islands to a humongous bright city. Wow, talking about culture shock!! But, anyway I survived. I thank God and the Society of Mary for the wonderful opportunity and the education I acquired. I graduated with MS in Pastoral Counseling after three years. Whilst studying at Loyola I was residing at a rectory at St. Rita's parish in Dun-dale, MD. I had the privilege to connect with parishioners and formed good and lasting friendship for years with some of them. I still treasure those relationships in my heart. It was that wonderful and joyful experience at St. Rita's that kept my hopes alive that one day I will return to mission there.

Like the saying goes, every good thing comes to an end. I had to return to my home land of Fiji after my studies. I was appointed to our Marist formation house for two years, forming our young men for the vocation of religious priests. Then I was appointed to the Pacific Regional Seminary where I graduated with my Bachelor of Divinity, to teach in the area of human development and psychology. It was exciting and a privilege journeying with young men and helping form them to become the best versions of themselves as future anointed servants of God and the Church. In the middle of my tenth year, I felt I had run dry and I needed a break and some forms of spiritual renewal and discernment as to where God is leading me.

I was blessed to have been given an opportunity to attend a four-month sabbatical course at East-Asian Pastoral Institute in Quezon City, Philippines. It was exactly what I needed. In a nutshell, it was like a "transfiguration experience." I felt renewed and transformed which reignited the fire of the Holy Spirit bestowed in me on my ordination day to go out to all the world and preach the Gospel. It was there that I had my affirmation that it was God's will to continue my mission here in the United States.

Why Michigan? Why not??? Hahaha. It is because I have a fellow countryman who is also priest Fr. Kusitino Cobona, who served here at Holy Family a few years ago and is now the parish priest of St. James and Sts. Cornelius and Cyprian at Mason. As the saying goes, "everything happens for a reason" and I believe Fr. Kusi was there for a reason - to make my connection to our Bishop Earl Boyea, to the Diocese of Lansing, to Fr Joe and to some of the beautiful families of Holy Family.

Despite the fact that I almost froze to death in my room on my first night at the rectory due to some mechanical issues, to me that was external. The warmth and welcoming reception of Fr Joe, Fr Bill, the staff members at the parish office, school community and all you dear people of God made me feel very much at home. Jesus implies what matters most is not the external, but internal, yes your warmth, love and true Holy Family spirit supersedes the snow and cold environment of Grand Blanc! I was overwhelmed with your love internally! Praise God!

To conclude, I'd like to be candid. Out of my twenty years of priesthood I have never felt so much appreciation in my life and service as a priest than in my short experience with you all. It's astounding and I thank you for the encouragement and your continuous support. I left my family and warm homeland behind and now God has amazingly

HFS Distinguished Alumni Award Recipients

2020: Mrs. Jill Zelley Jacobs, Class of 1982

When Mrs. Jacobs graduated from HFS, she remembered thinking “It doesn’t get any better than this!” Looking back, she sees it differently. “I see HFS as the place that built my foundation and my love for Catholic schools.” Mrs. Jacobs attended Powers Catholic High School and went on to complete her degree in education at Aquinas College. Her HFS foundation taught her the love of Jesus, the importance of education, and what it means to be a part of a great faith community. In her address to our 2020 graduates she gave strong advice: “Take the foundation that HFS formed and build on it. Continue to love Jesus with all your heart and tell everyone about His love. Build on the strong education that was given to you, and go out and make the world a better place.” Mrs. Jacobs currently teaches 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades at Church of the Resurrection School in Lansing.

Stay tuned, our calendar will be full again soon.

March 7: Sts. Felicity and Perpetua

Despite threats of persecution and death, Perpetua, Felicity – a slave woman and expectant mother – and three companions, Revocatus, Secundulus and Saturninus, refused to renounce their Christian faith. For their unwillingness, all were sent to the public games in the amphitheater. There Perpetua and Felicity were beheaded, and the others killed by beasts. Felicity gave birth to a girl a few days before the games commenced. Perpetua's record of her trial and imprisonment ends the day before the games.

Fasting and Abstinence

Those who are physically capable are called to abstain from eating meat on Ash Wednesday and during the Fridays in Lent. Fasting (Ash Wednesday and Good Friday) consists of one full meatless meal and other limited meatless meals as required to maintain strength. The young, the elderly, and those with health issues are not required to fast. The discipline of fasting and abstinence should be done in a spirit of prayer and with the goal of making a sacrifice in order to draw closer to the Lord.

Palms

The palms that you received on Palm Sunday in previous years are sacramental because they have been blessed. We will gather them over the next several weekends and burn them here at the church. Baskets for the old palms will be located next to the baptismal font.
